WAITRESSES ARE DOLLS TO HIM

Whenever my husband and I go out for dinner, he has a peculiar habit of calling the waitress 'Honey,' 'Dear,' 'Doll,' etc. If they're very young, he gets them all flustered and they usually make a mistake additional transfer of them is unhappy, I can't stand it and get severe head-aches. ually make a mistake adding up the bill. The older waitresses may; we signed for him. He's must enjoy these endearing now unhappy in the service. He names because they break their neck to please him. I'm not jealous but I do feel embarjealous but I do feel embar-rassed whenever my Don Juan ways wanted things he was too goes into his act. Would you or wouldn't you say that this is in very poor taste? Mrs. R.K.

Calling a waitress anything but waitress, in my opinion, is in very poor taste. Tell your Don Juan to stop making a complete fool of himself. The act is over! And no more curtain calls!

I'm 14 and an only child. My mother still thinks of me as her baby. If I want to make the late show at a movie, she won't let me because I'll come home too If I want to go into town just to window shop with a friend, she says no because I might get lost. Whatever I want to do or wherever I want to go, she says NO! What should I do to show Mom that I can take care of my-

No Baby

Dear Baby: Gentle persuasion will show Mom more than a million loud words. Take your growing up in steps and don't be unreasonable in your requests.

If every Mom was like your's, there would be less teenagers in trouble.

A friend of mine recently gave birth. My husband and I sent them a check as a gift. We have and son, Billie. They returned Williams, Zeta Prichard, Lola ing honoring their daughter, the gift and they have never said a word about it. We haven't even received a thank-you note. Last week the cancelled check came back from our bank.

What do you do when people don't even have the courtesy to say THANKS?

Wondering Dear Wondering: When people run out of courtesy, you SHOULD run out of checks!

thought maybe you could help

The oldest wanted to join the wanted to marry a Wave at 18; we signed for him. I now young for-for instance, he got his first car at 12. I just haven't learned to say 'NO' to anything any of my boys wanted. My two middle boys are very sweet and reasonable but the baby sure is spoiled. It's getting me down-all of it! Can you please tell me do all mothers go through the same thing or is it just me?

Dear Mrs. Miserable: I certainly hope all mothers don't go through what you describe

The happiness you want to es joy from your children can only be achieved by doing for them what is necessary for their physical, mental and moral well be ing. Overdoing and not being able to say 'NO,' results in their inability to grow up and become responsible adults. Raising four boys isn't easy, but if you raise them right, they will be happy and so will you.

Dear Amy: In the near future, I'm having my family over for dinner to celebrate my 15th wedding anniversary. Through intermarriages, they run the gamut of almost every religious faith. My husband, children and I have always made it a practice to say Grace before our meals, and we would like to include a prayer before we enjoy the meal of this special occasion.

I have searched through our prayer books and cannot find an appropriate one to say that would not offend anyone's religion. Can you suggest one?

You are a gracious, intelligent woman. Here is an appropriate prayer acceptable to all reli-gions: "For what we are about to receive, Lord, make us truly thankful. Amen.

Detroit - Idanha

The Idanha pre-school group met last Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Freida Heibert. Those attending were Margie Benton, Dorothy Harris, Mrs. Harold Roth, Elaine Lyda, Ruby Reid and Dorothy Williamson.

A Junior choir has been organized and meets every Wednesday at 4 p. m. at the home of Rev. Glen Lyda of Detroit.

The Detroit church youth group held their regular meet-A 31/2 ounce serving of cooked ing Sunday night at the home out. The group is planning to have a bowling party at Stayton Friday night.

> The Detroit Women's Civic club held their regular meeting last Wednesday night at the home of Lorraine Sophy. Bernice Dummer was co-hostess. There were 34 in attendance. Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Clark and daughter, Kathy, of North Santiam were Sunday guests of the Glen Lydas of Detroit. Kathy sang a solo Sunday at the Detroit church. The Detroit Sunday school is planning a roller skating party Saturday. Those who have been to church three out of four Sunday may go and are to meet at the church at 11 a. m.

On the basis of recent research there is no significant difference in the fat content of lean-plus marble portions of cooked beef, lamb, pork and veal. One 31/2 ounce serving of cooked meat (lean plus marbled) supplies about 16 grams

To The Busy Housewife

YOUR HOMETOWN NEWSPAPER IS A REAL CONVENIENCE!

A wonderful way for a busy young mother to save countless hours is by shopping the ads in her hometown newspaper By knowing, before she goes to town, which products she wants and where to buy them, she can do an efficient job of marketing. While the housewife spends her time becoming an expert nurse, laundress, cook, playmate, and bookkeeper, the local newspaper is bringing her the shopping news. It tells her about the latest products and services that will help her accomplish her work most efficiently. It tells her where to find the best prices offered on items she needs. It saves her many long hours of 'shopping around"
