Bo Bo Ski Wat'en Dot'en-Wat'en Dot'en-ssss! I'm just getting warmed up for the basketball games which will be starting soon. Thursday the tryouts for J. V. Yell Leaders were held and Friday the student body voted. The JV yell leaders are Mary Ann Bassett, Bonnie Boroughs, Susy Carlson, Janice Logan, Tamra Morris and Barbara Olson.

This year's P. E. classes are different from other years. One of the courses is called the three F's, figure, fun and form. So now all the PE girls are going to have beautiful figures. Thursday they had a round table discussion on going steady. It was rather lively because there were quite a few for an against.

Saturday night the girls showed the boys how they would like for them to act while out on a date. It was Sadie Hawkins night. The girls took the boys and were kept busy opening doors and such things as that.

This dance was a combination Sadie Hawkins Dance and magazine sale dance. The balcony was decorated as Dawgpatch.

The King and Queen of Dawgpatch were selected Friday. Each girl was given a petition. Everytime she did something for a boy, that boy was to sign her petition. One boy couldn't sign one girl's petition more than five times. The girl with the most signatures on her petition was queen and the boy who signed the most times was king. Alene Stevens was queen and Ken Kanoff was king.

For entertainment at the dance Dorman Gregory and Bill Putnam sang a duet. It was beautiful, just beautiful. Actually no entertainment was necessary. It was entertaining enough just looking around at the citizens of Dawgpatch.

To freeze hard meringue shells, wrap in moisture, vapor-proof wrappings. They may be served frozen or allowed to thaw in the wrapping. Do not thaw unwrapped because of moisture which will condense on the meringue.

GATES

Members of the Gates Women's club will meet Thursday (today) at 2 p. m. in the clubhouse. Mrs. Maude Davis and Mrs. Walter Thomas will be hostesses.

Mr. and Mrs. Gregory Stevens and their houseguests, Mr. and Mrs. William Bornheutter of Twenty-Nine Palms, Calif., were dinner guests at the Oliver Watson home Veteran's Day. The Bornheutters returned to California later in the week.

Mrs. Velma Carey has been asked to fill in questionnaires over a period of six years, hoping vital information may be revealed concerning the cause of cancer.

Mrs. Maude Davis and son, Edmond, recently arrived from Tacoma, have been assisting at the W. H. "Mode" Davis home in Mill City the past week, following the hospitalization of Mrs. Jennie Davis, due to a heart attack last Monday. On Saturday Edmond and his mother drove Mode Davis and his daughter, Mrs. Barbara Delaney to the Delaney home in Hood River. Mrs. Delaney will care for her father, one of the older oldtimers in this Canyon, and her mother, Mrs. Jennie Davis will be transferred from Salem Memorial hospital to the Hood River hospital as soon as her condition permits.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Thorpe, Dick Pennick and Terry Spaber, all of Vancouver, Wash., were Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Pennick and children. Dick Pennick is a nephew of Bill Pennick.

There was a good turnout in the Gates Gym Saturday night, for the showing of the Centennial film in color, by Forrest Holman of Stayton. Scenes taken in Stayton and other towns on up the canyon, entrance of the Wagon Train into Independence, and many other scenic spots and events, all within an hour's drive of Gates and the Canyon made us proud, and we feel highway No. 22 has been rightly named "The Happiness Highway!"

Mrs. Mattie Root has returned to the home of her daughter, Mrs. Ed Kadin, after a vacation trip of several months to Wisconsin, Missouri and Nebraska, where she visited relatives and old friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Novack returned Wednesday from a month's trip to Hanna, Okla., where they visited at the home of their daughter, Connie Skinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Franzen of Neskowin, were houseguests recently of her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Moses, who operate the Kitchen Motel.

Mr. and Mrs. Loren Epler left Sunday for their home in Bellingham, Wash., after a weeks visit at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Zeda Rynearson. While here they were looking about property to buy, with the idea of making their home here in the Canyon in the near future.

Selling cannisters of candy and Christmas cards and stationery has been a very successful project for ladies of the Gates Community church, and some of the funds just raised have been used to pour cement sidewalks on the church property, a much needed improvement.

Mr. and Mrs. Til Rains spent a couple of days at Howell, helping out at the home of their son, Tilmon Rains and family who had just finished some fall butchering.

Sussie and Dickie Rynearson were houseguests last weekend at the home of Patti and Jo-Netta Wilson in Salem. A skating party was enjoyed and dinner at Shattuck's Chateau later, honoring the birthday of Patti Wilson.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wilson were Sunday afternoon guests at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Don Carey and family in Stayton. A chicken dinner was enjoyed, with a birthday cake for Mrs. Wilson, who had another anniversary.

Word has been received of the death of Mrs. Andy Renner (Luella) at Albany, on October 28th, attributed to a heart attack. Mrs. Renner was born in Schuyler, Neb., December 14, 1895, and besides the husband, is survived by one daughter and two sons. The Renners lived in this section of the Canyon for several years before moving to Albany.

It Got Cold Here
Temperature dropped to 20 degrees Friday morning—sort of a low reading for this "banana belt" section—and all late fall dabbias "bit the dust."

Mrs. Zeda Rynearson and Mrs. Shirley Swaim were in Portland Thursday, where Mrs. Swaim had allergy tests made.

and Mrs. Rynearson visited a brother, Alvin McNamee, who is a patient in Good Samaritan hospital there, and her mother-in-law, Mrs. Mildred Agee. James Rynearson and wife, Dixie, of Arcata, Calif., were guests at the L. L. Rynearson home last week. The men are brothers, and the two families, with Sussie and Dickie drove to Stevenson, Wash. Sunday, where a sort of family reunion was held. "Red" Rynearson met three grand nieces and nephews, all under six weeks old, and was especially pleased to note one had red hair, also.

There will be a concert November 25 at 7:30 p. m. given by the music club of Santiam Union High school. The band will be featured, with the choir and special numbers between. Admissions are for the benefit of the music club needs.

Elmer Klutke and his friend, Don Hill, of Salem, were hunting in Eastern Oregon over the weekend, near Whitney.

A houseguest last Monday at the W. R. Hutcheson home was Mrs. Mattie Hermann of OES, who came here for the school of instruction.

Mayor and Mrs. W. R. Hutcheson were renewing old friendships this week with some former neighbors, when all lived in the Prineville area. Mr. and Mrs. Roy McCallister, now of Redmond, were returning from California via the coast highway, and stopped at the Hutcheson home.
