When he's away

she'll want the security of an upstairs extension

An upstairs telephone is a comfort in so many ways. It gives you added convenience and privacy too. But the greatest comfort of all is the peace of mind you enjoy, just knowing the upstairs telephone is there when you need it.

PTA To Purchase New Coffeemaker; Steel Flatware

Mrs. James Wright presided at the Wednesday evening meeting of the Mill City-Gates PTA which was held at the high school library. It was announced that the next executive meeting would be held January 27 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Grant.

Mrs. Wright said that Mrs. Lee Pinkston had accepted the chairmanship of the adult Education committee. Mrs. Jim Grant, room mother chairman took the room count of most parents and teachers present with Leo Poole's sixth grade room winning the award.

A purchasing committee was appointed to obtain prices and buy a coffee maker and some stainless steel flatware for PTA use. Those serving on the committee are Charles Kelly, Jim Putman and Mrs. Roy Pate.

It was noted that in this year's budget a $10 allowance had been made to purchase a shrub for the high school. Mr. Brent said it would be more acceptable to have the cash and a suitable shrub would be purchased. Following the short business meeting Frank Moore spoke on School District Reorganization. Refreshments were served by a group of fifth grade mothers.

Mehama Women's Society Plan Silver Tea for March

MEHAMA—Mrs. Ray Roberts was hostess for the 1:30 dessert luncheon which preceded the meeting of the Women's Society at the church January 14. Mrs. Roberts also led the devotion period for the afternoon. The Rev. James Hardy was present for part of the meeting and led in a discussion of the year's program in the absence of Mrs. Hardy, program chairman who was unable to attend due to illness.

The Society decided to provide hostesses for the coffee hour after the morning worship services for the remaining Sundays in January and the month of February. Tentative plans were discussed for a Silver Tea to be held in March. The committee reported that the fixtures for the new lavatory had arrived and would be installed soon. Also under discussion was the project of buying cups and small plates to be used for teas and other meetings at the church. Mrs. B. L. Kirsch was appointed on the committee to see about buying the dishes.

Present for the afternoon were Mmes. Roberts, Kirsch, H. W. McCarley, John Stroshine, J. M. Teeters and Keith Phillips.

The Martha Troxel Circle of the Christian church met Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Stanley Williams, Mrs. Albin Cooper presided at the business meeting. The group voted to bring packages of flower or vegetable seeds to be sent to the Turner Memorial Home for Valentines.

Mrs. Wilma Shepherd presented the program which was an "Introductory Study of Africa."

Mrs. Richard Freeman led the devotions and Mrs. William Shepherd and Mrs. Williams were hostesses.

The February meeting will be on the 9th at the home of Mrs. Williams.

Mehama Women's Club Board Meets

MEHAMA—The Board members of the Mehama Women's club held their annual meeting at the home of Mrs. Raymond Branch Wednesday afternoon, January 13. Mrs. Branch who has the power of attorney for the club, read the new incorporation laws and they were discussed by the group. It was decided by the members of the board that the club should keep the incorporation in force, and the secretary was instructed to send in the necessary papers.

Seven members of the 10-member board were present for the meeting. Refreshments were served by the hostess, Mrs. Branch to Mmes. Art Anderson, B. L. Kirsch, J. M. Teeters, K. J. Golliet, Harold Longfellow and Lilly Wolfkiel.

Following installation the young folks had a dance at the fire hall.

Storage in the Home To Be Topic of Extension Meeting

GATES—Project leaders for the January meeting of the Santiam Canyon Extension unit will be Mrs. Edna Hutcheson and Mrs. Harold Wilson, and their topic will be a repeat of the popular "Storage in the Home," given once last year. This meeting is open to anyone in this area, interested in getting more and better use of their present space.

The meeting is called for 10:30 a. m. Thursday, January 28, at the Gates Women's clubhouse, with a pot luck dinner at noon.
