By Mrs. H. N. Wilson

Dickie Rynearson celebrated his 9th birthday anniversary on January 9, with a "stag" party at his home. Dinner guests invited were Mike and Chuck Swaim and Hugh McWhirk. His sister, Susie Rynearson and friend, Carol Stevens, helped serve, after which all went to a movie.

Oscar Harris spent the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Harris, and has returned to his base at New London, Conn., where he is attending Sumbarine school.

Mr. and Mrs. Rex Herron returned to their home at Marion Forks last weekend, where snow was 17 inches deep. Mrs. Herron is recuperating from a short stay in a Salem hospital, and Rex had a few days' bout with the flu at the home of his grandparents here, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Novak.

Mr. and Mrs. Chris Knutson of Mill City and Mr. and Mrs. Burton Knutson and two children of Toledo, were recent visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ned Richards. The Richards agree with Chris Knutson that the true names of old landmarks, like Gates Hill, Ni-

Remember the GOOD OLD DAYS From The Enterprise Fifteen Years Ago

Scoutmaster Frank Merrill with his assistant Lawrence Kanoff had attended a scout executive meeting in Salem.

Captain and Mrs. George Laird were visiting with Mill City relatives. He was stationed at Ft. Leonard Wood, Mo.

The Rebekahs had held their annual installation with Myrtle Hessman acting as District deputy president. Ruby Winters was installed as Noble Grand and Leola Hurt as vice-grand.

Fleetwood's Grocery had a large ad in The Enterprise with all brands of coffee featured at 30c a pound; breakfast cereals at 2 pkgs for 19c and pint jars of salad dressing at 13c. Things WERE cheaper then.

Looking at the latest in fashions in the pattern department—the wide shoulders and short skirts were featured as the "new look".

Mrs. Walter Ball of Detroit reported her husband Pvt. Walter Ball was captured in France and made a prisoner of the Germans. He had previously been reported missing in action.

Orville Knutson was taking boot training at Camp Roberts and his brother Richard was with the army in Germany.

Ten Years Ago

A proposed $43,000 bond issue for adding two more rooms to the elementary school, a new school bus and other expenditures was being considered.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Vincent of Mill City were both in the hospital as the result of a bad motorcycle crash.

A Gates petition was being circulated to establish a justice of peace for the "Gates District". The request was made due to the increased traffic since the construction of the Detroit Dam.

Lee Ross had been appointed Recorder for the City of Mill City according to Mayor Albert Toman.

Police Chief J. T. King had been named Ground Observer Post Supervisor to assist the Western Air Defense.

Lester E. Poole had been designated as a distinguished military student from OSC. He was participating in a six weeks ROTC field training at Ft. Lewis.

Five Years Ago

O. K. DeWitt had been to Salem to participate in a discussion on the Three Sisters agora Dam and Minto—should be kept forever.

Dick Parker, W. N. Kershaw, A. T. Barnhardt and City Atty. Joe Devers were representatives of Gates at the recent Salem meeting concerning the proposed dam above Niagara by the Consumers Power Co., and are in favor of the project if and when it is allowed.

E. J. (Ned) Richards 88, was saddened to hear of the death of his cousin, Jack Richards, 84 in Stayton last Thursday. Both grew to manhood in this vicinity much as brothers, and lived here most of their lives.

In a recent exchange of property in Gates, Jetts and Ethel Moses acquired a strip of land north of the George Bailey home from Elmer Klutke, and another parcel north and west of the Union Oil station and adjoining the Moses property, has been acquired by Father Gearing of Sublimity. No immediate plans for the use of the property has been made known.

Primitive area. Alvin Sorseth had been selected as District Ranger at Detroit Station to replace Tenney Moore.

Stanley Chance was elected Fire Chief at Gates, replacing Joe Joaquin who was moving from the city.

A new Intertype typesetting machine had been installed the past week at The Enterprise. The new machine set a wider variety of type than had been used previously.

Moving into the newly acquired school homes in the CBI addition were Mr. and Mrs. Bob Thorpe, Mr. and Mrs. John Baldwin and Mr. and Mrs. Claude DeFrates.

The Lions club was again sponsoring the March of Dimes with Julia Bassett, Auxiliary head in charge of the Mother's March. Bob Veness was general chairman.

A-3C Jerry Larson was home on furlough after visiting his mother, Mrs. Gilbert Brosig and his grandmother, Mrs. Walter Brisbin. He was stationed at Wichita Falls, Texas.
