

★ The Woman's Page ★

"I do enough walking already,

that's why we installed a barn extension"

So many modern farmers tell us the extension telephone in their barn has been a real time and step saver.

If you would like to know more about how this low-cost, labor-saving convenience can be yours, call our business office today.

Valley Telephone Company
Serving Mill City-Gates, Aumsville,
Detroit-Idanha, Silverton, Turner

Dorcas Welfare Federation Meets

Thursday, April 14, five ladies from the Mill City Dorcas club were officially initiated into the Willamette Valley Federation in Salem during their semi-annual federation meeting. A potluck lunch was served after which the film, Miracle of Middletown was shown. Two men from the Conference of Seventh-Day Adventists were there to lead the forums and discussion on how to best serve those in need in the community with the free dispensation of food and clothing.

A grant of $10 was presented the Mill City Dorcas society to help with the painting and the remodeling in the little welfare center donated to the group by the Orval Ross family, located on the Lyons highway.

Mrs. Joe Fencil entertained Sunday, April 3 honoring her mother, Mrs. Julie Kazda on her 74th birthday anniversary. All of her daughters were present for the occasion including Mrs. Fencil with whom she makes her home; Miss Jennie Kazda of Portland, Mrs. Ann Gun-saules of Stayton and Mrs. Frances Dolezal of Portland.

Juvenile Delinquency Topic of D. A. at Woman's Club Meet

Mrs. Hattie Bratzel Kremen, Marion County District Attorney was guest speaker at the Mill City Woman's Club Tuesday evening at Fir Manor. Her subject was "Juvenile Delinquency" and proved to be a very interesting and timely topic.

Mrs. Kremen was introduced by Mrs. O. K. DeWitt, a past president of the Mill City club and a long time personal friend of Mrs. Kremen.

Mrs. Don Paul, club president did not conduct a regular business meeting; however there was a discussion on how many would be able to attend the Marion County Federation of Women's clubs at Jefferson next Tuesday, April 26. Those planning to attend include Mrs. O. K. DeWitt, Mrs. Charles Kelly, Mrs. Jack Duggan, Mrs. Francis Bodeker and Mrs. Al Sorseth.

Refreshments were served following Tuesday evening's meeting by Mrs. Al Sorseth and Mrs. C. E. Mason.

Bridal Shower Held For Mrs. Syverson

GATES—Mrs. Richard Syverson, nee Virginia Gail Urban, was the inspiration for a lovely bridal shower given by Misses Carol and Phyllis Pate in the Gates Women's clubhouse on Friday evening, April 15th. Yellow tulips, lilies and apple blossoms flanked by yellow candles, decorated the buffet table, and yellow tulips and yellow candles were used on the mantle over the fireplace. Miss Janice Novak assisted the hostesses, and placed the gifts on the table.

Following the opening of the many lovely gifts, delicious refreshments were served to the following: Mrs. Josephine Morgan, Albany, grandmother of the bride, Mrs. Gertrude Wiedman, Jaunetta Morgan, both of Lyons, Mrs. Hazel Devine, Mrs. Ed Kershaw, Arlene Kershaw, Mrs. Frank Novak, Janice Novak, Mrs. Ruth Edwards, Carol Edwards and Lola Heuless, all of Gates, and Mrs. Ilena Derrick, Viola Derrick, Mrs. Betty Zeltbert, Hattie Cole, Mrs. Arnold Syverson, Mrs. Roy Pate, Miss Judy Podrabsky, Mrs. Betty Rames, Mrs. Mary Hoodenpyle, Billie Shuford, and Mrs. Gloria Urban and daughter Lorie, all of Mill City, Miss Christian, Eugene, and Mrs. Marlin Cole, of Salem.

Sending gifts were Meses. Arey Podrabsky, Martha Beaver, Clyde Morgan, Linda Steiner, Delmar Syverson, Myrtle Day, Virginia Roten, Bill Shuford, all of Mill City, Mrs. Peter Etzel, Fern Ridge, Mrs. Lorraine Sophy, Detroit, Kathy Harris, Aloha Thomas, Barbara Blumenstein and Mrs. Robert Blumenstein.

Junior Choir Sings At Presbyterian Church

A special feature of the Easter Sunday services at the Mill City Presbyterian church was the recently organized Junior Choir with Mrs. Dick Parker and Mrs. Shields ReMine directing the 16-member choir.

The small children ages 5 to 12, besides looking angelic in their blue and white choir robes sang extremely well. Mary Gay ReMine has also been assisting with the practices and sang the solo parts in their songs Easter Sunday.

Choir members include Stuart Hill, Pat Kelly, Nancy Veness, Martha Veness, Janet Veness, Donna Walker, Liz Moore, Wendy Moore, Karen Loveall, Jerri Jo Parker, Mary Suzanne Heller, Johnny Harris, Marilyn Kay, Nancy Steers, Marilyn Cole and Lynette Parker.

About 175 attended services at the church Sunday.

Virginia Haskett Inducted Into Toastmistress Club

The Mill City Toastmistress club met at the new home of Mrs. Yvonne Crandall on the Little Northfork near Mehama Thursday, April 14.

Mrs. Virginia Haskett was inducted into the club with Mrs. Faustina Nesbitt conducting the induction ceremonies.

Hostesses for the dessert preceding the meeting were Sue Poole and Faustina Nesbitt.

The invocation was given by Mrs. Crandall.

Topicmistress was Mrs. Nesbitt with Crikett Pinkston in charge of the education phase of the meeting. She had a projector and colored slides and showed "What to do and what not to do" when an amateur operates them.

Mrs. Poole told a fairy tale with the theme "Sugar and Spice" using Mrs. Crandall's two small daughters for part of her captivated audience. She won the traveling trophy for the best speech.

All club members held a discussion on what they expected from Toastmistress with the guests also participating.

Evaluator for the evening was Kora Prichard with Mrs. Sunny Chance acting as guest timer. Grammarian and Lexicologist was Eleanor LaMunyan with Mrs. Leola Johnson acting as Toastmistress. She used the musical theme "In the Mood" with Faustina Nesbitt giving an extemporaneous speech "Jeannie."

The Mill City club will visit the Stayton Toastmistress club on April 27 when several of the Mill City members will participate in the Stayton club's activities.

Guests for the evening were Opal Horne, Sunny Chance and Jean Roberts.

One drop of water every two seconds from a leaky faucet amounts to 54 gallons of wasted water a month.

Remember the
GOOD OLD DAYS
From The Enterprise
Fifteen Years Ago

Easter guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Rogers were Mr. and Mrs. Troy Wambaugh of Oregon City. Mrs. Rogers who was teaching that year at Scotts Mills was home on vacation also.

Mrs. W. J. Robinson had returned home after visiting with Sgt. and Mrs. Max Kelly and 2 children of Bremerton, Wash. Mrs. Kelly and children were to stay in Mill City at the home of her parents, the Sig Jepsen while Sgt. Kelly was overseas with the Marines.

Mrs. Lawrence Tally (Alice Roberts) had recently returned from Arkansas where she attended Memorial services for her husband who had been killed overseas in action. She was presented a certificate of bravery and the purple heart in his behalf from President Roosevelt.

The state highway commission had promised $300,000 in state funds to improve 16 miles of highway through Detroit on the Salem-Bend road.

Lettie Swan was initiated into Santiam Rebekah lodge by reinstatement, as she had been a member some years ago. The Rebekahs were to join in a celebration with the IOOF lodge to celebrate their 126th anniversary.

Ten Years Ago

Little Judy Kay, daughter of the Walter Kays had stepped on a broken jar and cut her foot badly.

Gertrude Mason was moving to Harrisburg to make her home with her son Arthur Mason and family.

Mrs. George Veteto, Mrs. Cloyd Cox and Mrs. George Crook entertained for Marion King, bride elect of Sonny Nelson.

Clyde Farley had leased Don's Service station in Mill City. Farley had been in the garage business in Salem for 15 years. The Smith's planned on moving to Eastern Oregon.

There was a shortage of carpenters in the City caused by many of them being employed at Detroit Dam.

Rosalie and Maurie Bassett were visiting at the home of their grandparents, the R. C. Shepherds in Salem.

From Lyons came word that the Teen-Agers club had been having some very interesting meetings with one held the previous week at the home of the Willard Hartnells. Lloyd Gerath was president and Shirley Johnson was secretary.

Five Years Ago

"Evening in Paris" was the theme of the Junior Prom with the gym turned into a fairyland—Harry Wesleys band was playing for the dance with

Farewell Party Given For Frank Hunters

A farewell party for Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hunter was given Friday night at the Last Frontier at Gates by members of the Lions Club Auxiliary. A floral centerpiece graced the table which had been decorated for the occasion by Mrs. Jay Mason and Mrs. Andy Anderberg. Signs appropriate for the occasion had also been made by Mrs. Anderberg. The honor guests were recipients of a cash gift placed in plastic Easter eggs.

Following the social hour and dinner, the group spent the remainder of the evening dancing and visiting.

Mr. and Mrs. Hunter left for Redding, Calif., where they plan to locate.

Local Student Will Tour With Whitworth College Choir

Rosalie Scott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Scott of Mill City, is a member of the Whitworth College Choir, which will be touring in Washington, Oregon and California from April 17 through May 1. Rosalie sings in the soprano section of the 45-voice choir, which will present sacred and secular concerts in 20 different cities in the three states. This will include 16 concerts in churches, several concerts in high schools, and one at San Francisco Theological Seminary.

Over 3000 miles will be covered by the group in the 14 days away from the campus, which includes one week of the students' spring vacation. In past years the Choir has toured California, Oregon, Colorado, Montana and Washington.

Maurie Bassett featured player. Chuck Kuhlman was chairman of the event.

Mrs. Al Nesbitt had been elected to head the Mill City PTA with Mrs. Arey Podrabsky elected vice-president.

Donald Nesbitt, member of the Salem Marine Corps Reserve had been promoted to Private First Class.

Five Mill City Seniors were participating in Oregon State College week-end—including Carol Andreassen, Hazel Caudle, Ralph Jull and George Rambo.

From Lyons came word that a new water district was being formed with Walter Bell present to assist with legal matters.

Janet Ross had been selected to attend Girls State at Willametta University—June 14-19. Many organizations in the City had contributed to the expenses.

The Old Timer

"Some after dinner speakers don't need introductions half as much as they need conclusions."

Here's what Mrs. Alvin Chritton of Sweet Home says about electric living...

"IT'S WONDERFUL LIVING WITH ELECTRICITY ...IT DOES THE HOUSEWORK EVEN WHEN I'M AWAY"

Here's a list of the 31 appliances that help the Chritton family live better electrically for just 50¢ a day:

- | | |
|---|---|
| <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> RANGE | <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> VACUUM CLEANER |
| <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> WATER HEATER | <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> MIXER |
| <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> REFRIGERATOR | <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> FURNACE MOTOR |
| <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> FREEZER | <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> ELECTRIC BLANKETS |
| <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> DRYER | <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> VENTILATING FAN |
| <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> WASHER | <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> PORTABLE FANS—2 |
| <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> DISHWASHER | <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> COFFEE MAKER |
| <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> TELEVISION | <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> TOASTER |
| <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> RADIOS—2 | <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> ROOM HEATER |
| <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> IRON | <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> POWER TOOLS |
| <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> WASTE DISPOSER | <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> LIGHTING |
| <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> ELECTRIC LAWN SWEEPER | <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> ELECTRIC CLOCK |
| <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> ELECTRIC LAWN EDGER | <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> SHAVER |
| | <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> RECORD PLAYERS—2 |

HOW MANY OF THESE APPLIANCES WORK FOR YOU IN YOUR HOME?

"When I leave for work in the afternoon, I set the timer on the electric range. Dinner for the family is ready to serve when we get home. I wash the clothes and do the dishes the same way. It's marvelous to be able to do so much work electrically—and, for so little cost, too—only 50¢ a day!"

Yes, at home or away, you can count on your electric helpers to do much of the hard work for you. No wonder so many Willamette Valley homemakers are using more and more PP&L electricity to make their housework easier. See the latest work and time-saving electric appliances at your dealer's store.

PACIFIC POWER & LIGHT COMPANY
Live Better...Electrically!

distinctive

Olympia's distinctive good taste makes every round a pleasure! Active Westerners find that Olympia's reliable quality and distinctive character matches their own thirst for perfection. One of the world's few naturally perfect brewing waters makes the difference. This is why we say, "It's the Water"

Visitors are always welcome to Olympia Brewing Co., Olympia, Wash. *Oly *B