From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

On the Right "Track"

Jeb Fisher, the local station-master, tells a story that happened last winter during one of our worst blizzards.
Seems there was a Center City salesman down at the depot waiting for the scheduled 8:02 train. Storm raging the way it was, small town, why, the poor chap pictured himself stranded for days. Suddenly a train emerged from the storm and creaked to a stop. It was the 8:02, right on time!
The happy salesman shook Jeb's hand and said: "Weather like this and your 8:02 is right on time!" "Hate to disillusion you, son," said Jeb, "but this is yesterday's 8:02."
From where I sit... things aren't always what they first appear to be. For example, there's the fellow whose first impression is that only ice tea is real refreshment, but not beer, which I prefer. Sure he's entitled to his opinion, but he's got to respect mine too. That's tolerance and that's something we've got to "train" ourselves to have more of.
