Eastern Star Has Stayton Visitors

Unexpected visitors from Acacia Chapter, OES of Stayton dropped in at the regular meeting of Marilyn Chapter at the lodge hall Monday night. Included were Jo Carrick, Grand Representative of the State of Maine in Oregon; Helen Tate, Worthy Matron of Acacia Chapter; Alta Bodeker, and Margaret Williams, both line officers.

Presiding over Monday evening's meeting were Gladys Lake, worthy matron, and Wilson Stevens, worthy patron, assisted by the other officers.

During the business session, the secretary read the following invitations for visiting near-by chapters: Cedar Chapter of Scio, October 17; Chadwick of Salem, October 18; Ramona of Silverton, October 25; District meeting at Stayton, November 1, for which there will be a practice October 30; Acacia of Stayton, November 15; and reception for Jo Carick, December 10, at Stayton high school.

Under good of the order, Worthy Patron Wilson Stevens introduced the distinguished guests from Stayton who responded with short talks. An additional guest was Helen Kleihege of Chadwick Chapter in Salem, who now makes her home in Mill City.

The chapter room was beautifully decorated by four huge baskets filled with arrangements of seasonal flowers, flanked by colorful Autumn leaves.

Serving refreshments of cider, doughnuts, coffee, and other tid-bits in the October motif were the associate matron, Goldie Storey, and her daughter, Clydia Emerson.

Garden Club to Make Christmas Decorations

The Mill City Garden club met Thursday at 12:30 for a dessert luncheon at the home of Mrs. Fred Moore. Mrs. Harvey Tolbert was co-hostess.

Mehama Mothers Club Plans Linen Raffle In Near Future

MEHAMA — Mrs. Gene Ryehard, Mrs. Duane Wagner, and Mrs. Bonnie Wagner were hostesses for the meeting of the Mehama Mother's club at the schoolhouse Thursday evening.

The president, Mrs. Leo Kirsch presided over the short business meeting at which regular business was transacted and the club also decided to fill a basket with household linens and other articles to be raffled off at a future date. The money will be used to buy a piano for the first and second grade room of the school. The club used this means of raising money last year and it was very successful.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Duffy and Linda were in Tigard Sunday visiting at the home of her brother, the Elvin Morris family.

Here's what Mrs. Marvin Lancaster of Monroe says about electric living:

"We pay only 49¢ a day for all the electricity we use. That's a real bargain!"

"Most of us take electric service too much for granted. I know I did, until I counted up all the jobs my 31 electric appliances helped me with—including plenty of canning! Why, for only 49¢ a day, electricity is the biggest value in my household budget!"

Mrs. Lancaster and her family, like thousands of Willamette Valley families, are using lots of electricity these days—more and more all the time!

See the many new electric appliances on display at your appliance dealer's store. Make full use of PP&L electric service—today's biggest value!
