GATES

By Mrs. H. N. Wilson
The Webb Case family, now of Washington, former residents here before his serious accident in the woods, were visitors in the Gates area last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Jacobsen and four children of Molalla, Blackburn went to Salem Friday to meet Mr. Blackburn's sister, Mrs. Etta Chastain of Edmond, Okla., who arrived by train. Mrs. Chastain, 70, had not seen her brother for 13 years, and all are having an enjoyable visit. The Blackburns and Mrs. Chastain were dinner guests Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clare Henness and three children, who live on the prairie.

Friends will be glad to learn that Mrs. Louisa Wrigglesworth is now working at the School for the Deaf in Salem, having transferred from a Children's hospital in Portland. She will live with her mother, Mrs. Rosa Roten, and near her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Ro-ten.

When Mrs. Alice Watson, Mrs.
Sarah Rains and Mrs. Mary Howell went to the Gates Community church on Friday to do the weekly cleaning, they found vandals had shot at a thick window in the Sunday school room, causing small splinters of glass to fly over a large area inside. There was a hole the size of a penny, but the window did not shatter.
Only a poor sport would pick a church for target practice.
Fund raising is not easy here.
George Arthurs will go to Seattle this weekend to get his wife, Dorothy, who has been visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. Henry Neunier, whose houseguest was another sister from South Dakota.

The Gates Women's club will meet Thursday (today) at 1 p. m. in the clubhouse. Mrs. Walter Thomas, president, will serve the dessert lunch before the business meeting. Mrs. Elsie Volkel will be in charge of the program, talking on "landscaping." Anyone interested is invited to attend, and many members plan to bring guests.
Mrs. and Mrs. Bob Oliver and three daughters, Ed and Jack Oliver made an overnight camping trip to Crater Lake, returning home Sunday. Only thing to mar the trip was some car trouble.

Mr. and Mrs. Terry Muir and two sons of Salem, were dinner guests Sunday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Oliver. Afternoon callers were Mr. and Mrs. Jim Mahoney and their friend, Mrs. Berry, all of Salem now, but were friends and neighbors of the Olivers, when all lived at Moorecroft, Wyo.

Mrs. Shirley Swaim, Mrs.
Jack Gulliford and Mrs. Marion Stovall attended an officer's training meeting in Salem last Wednesday given by the Marion County Extension unit. Arrangements were made for visiting dates of the county agent and other details concerning the Santiam Canyon Extension unit here. Topic for the October meeting will be "Vegetables" to be given on the 26th.

Carol Sue Ball returned by jet to Portland Monday, following a two week's visit in New York and Columbus, Ohio, a guest of Earl Cooper and his parents, at his home in Columbus. Greatly enjoyed was a sightseeing trip to famous spots like Rockefeller Center, Greenwich Village, Empire State Building, and a view of the Statue of Liberty. She was met at the airport by her mother, Mrs. Clarence Ball, and on Wednesday they drove to Corvallis, where Carol Sue remained for the activities of "rush weekend" at OSU. She enrolls as a junior there later this week.

Mrs. Clare Rush gave a coffee at her home Wednesday afternoon for Mrs. Leland Kap-linger and Mrs. Emory Prime-au of Mill City, old friends. A beautifully decorated cake honored the 37th wedding anniversary of Olivia Kaplinger.
Miss Joanne Britton, younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs.
Rex Britton has enrolled as a sophomore in Lebanon high school, and will reside with and be a companion for her maternal grandmother, who is 80 years old. The Britton's older daughter, Jeanne, is a senior at Mill City.
