

Merry
CHRISTMAS

We pause to wish you peace and joy. May these gifts be with you today and always.

Mill City Hardware
Herb and Opal
Mill City, Oregon

We thank you all for your kindness.

Ada's Needle Shop
Mill City, Oregon

Woman's Page

Goldie Rambo, Woman's Page Editor, Phone 897-2772

Reading Program Put on at PTA Meet

Only a small crowd attended the December meeting of Santiam PTA with Mrs. Al Yankus presiding at the business meeting when it was voted to send $10 to MacLaren School for Boys for use at Christmas time. The coloring contest winners were named with Cindy Ziebert, Herbert Carpenter and Jack Johnson winning prizes.

Youngsters were asked to bring canned goods to school this week to be given to the Ministerial association for distribution at Christmas.

An interesting and instructive program was presented by Lawrence Brent and a staff of teachers including Miss Alice Smith, Mrs. Lenore Lee, Mrs. Mary Brent, Mrs. James Hickerson, Mrs. Bill Truitt and Ernest Wall.

There was a demonstration and discussion of how reading is taught in the elementary school from the first grade on through upper grades, with both phonetics and sight reading methods used.

The next meeting of the PTA will be January 10.

Swans Return From Trip To California

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Swan returned home this week from a months' trip visiting with relatives and friends in California.

They went by the way of Highway 97 visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wachter at Klamath Falls. He is a former resident of Mill City. They also visited his mother, Mrs. Nell Wachter at Cornell, Calif.

Among other former Mill City residents visited by the Swans were Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Atwood of Arcada, Calif., and Mrs. Vera Hathaway at Redding, Calif. They took in spots of scenic interest at San Diego, Sacramento, Riverside, San Bernardino and Hemet. Mrs. Swan said they took some of the Oregon mist with them which the Californians were glad to have as it has been an exceptionally dry season.

Enroute home they visited their sons-in-law and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. George Gilenwater and Mr. and Mrs. Orville Odeman at Gold Beach. They traveled the new coast highway coming home and took some colored slides of the new stretch including the high bridge near Brookings.

Mrs. Swan said they enjoyed their trip a great deal but were glad to get back to the "green" of Oregon and the slower pace of traveling.

Woman's Club Has Christmas Party at Emery Primeau Home

The Mill City Woman's club held their annual Christmas party Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Emery Primeau, which was beautifully decorated in the Christmas motif.

Hostesses were Mrs. John Muir, Mrs. Martin Hansen and Mrs. Don Carlson who served a variety of Christmas cookies with the fruit salad and coffee. There were a large number of of the club members present and a guest for the evening was Mrs. Olivia Kaplinger.

Women's club members exchanged gifts and also brought a number of them for the Hillcrest School for Girls and the Chemawa Indian school at Salem. Mrs. Leo Russell will deliver the packages to the schools.

Mrs. Edith Mason portrayed her usual good role as Santa Claus and passed out the gifts. Mrs. Russell was in charge of a short Christmas skit with several members taking part.

Jaycettes Wrap Toys For Tots Gifts

The Jaycettes held their regular meeting Monday, December 18 at the home of Mrs. Bill Truitt.

During the business meeting it was announced that the remaining 24 shrubs had been

Garden Club Holds Annual Holiday Party

The Mill City Garden club held their annual Christmas party Thursday evening in the social room of the First Christian church with Mrs. E. K. Fish, Mrs. Danny Moore and Mrs. Lowell Cree as co-hostesses.

The rooms were attractively decorated with holly, Christmas greens, snow men, Santa Claus, Christmas trees and other decorations.

The long serving table was entirely set with ceramic dishes and decorations made by the hostesses. Candy canes tied with red bows and tiny gold cones marked the places for the guests. The gift table had ceramic lighted Christmas trees on either end.

For entertainment Rev. and Mrs. Harold Hake sang: "Silver Bells" and "There's a Song in the Air." Mrs. Edith Mason gave a reading "The Black Madonna" and Rev. Hake led the group in singing Christmas carols, followed by a Christmas prayer by Mrs. Clara Swan. One game was played with Mrs. Adolph Brunner receiving the prize. Mrs. Martin Hansen received the door prize. Santa Claus (Mrs. Edith Mason) made his appearance and gave gifts to all present. Each member present brought a gift for the members of Turner Memorial home.

Refreshments were served. Present were Rev. and Mrs. Harold Hake, Mrs. William Lyness and Mrs. Arthur Hedge who were guests and Mrs. Curtis Cline, Mrs. Althea Grimes, Mrs. Daniel Kleihege, Mrs. Toni Thomas, Mrs. Rachel Olmstead, Mrs. Edith Mason, Mrs. J. C. Kimmel, Mrs. A. Brunner, Mrs. Hollis Turnidge, Mrs. J. Lowe, Mrs. James Swan, Mrs. Charles Dolezal, Mrs. Ed Cooke, Mrs. Herbert Schroeder, Mrs. Martin Hansen, Mrs. Louis Verbeck, and the hostesses Mmes. E. K. Fish, Lowell Cree and Danny Moore.

The January meeting will be on the 11th at the home of Mrs. Otto Witt.

planted on the hillside near the city center.

Wrapping of gifts for the Toys for Tots program was scheduled for Thursday evening, December 21 at the Jaycee hall.

Following the business meeting a Christmas party and gift exchange was held. Secret pal names were revealed and new names drawn.

Refreshments were served by Jane Truitt and Natalie Simes to Carol Carson, Carol Smith, Paula Grant, Jackie Janis, Cieta Willis, Donna Podrabsky and Joan Wettergreen.

Hostesses for the next meeting will be Joan Wettergreen and Cieta Willis.

Assembly of God To Have Yule Program

The Assembly of God church will hold their traditional Christmas program Wednesday 20 at 7:30 at the church.

A pageant, "Unto Us a Child Is Born" will be presented and there will be several recitations by the youngsters.

There will be treats for the children and the public is welcome to attend.

Young People To Carol Saturday Nite

The Young People of the Christian church will meet Saturday evening, December 23 at 6:30 at the parsonage for an evening of Christmas caroling under the direction of Larry Laird, youth director. Following the caroling the group will again meet at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Hake, where refreshments will be served.

Season's Greetings

John and Tearly Muir

Christmas Entertaining Can Be Fun!

Call in Your Special Order for "Holiday Goodies"

Fancy Christmas Cookies

Santas, Trees, Christmas Brownies
Date-Coconut Squares, Date Squares
Butter, Sugar and Chocolate
(topped with icing, nuts, or sprinkles)
WILL PACK TO YOUR ORDER

Yulekake - Christmas Bread
Holiday - Decorated Cakes

The Perfect Gift for Giving or Eating
One or two pound size, packed in attractive gift Cannisters.

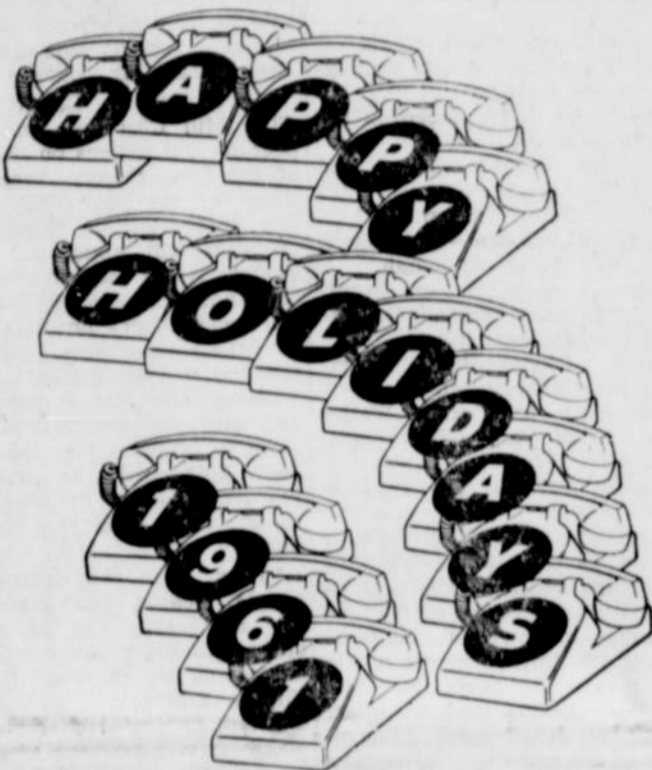

1 Pound Loaf or Individual Cakes.

Fresh Made
Tom and Jerry Batter
MUIR'S BAKERY

AND FOUNTAIN

Phone 897-2196

Mill City, Oregon

Valley Telephone Company

Serving Mill City-Gates, Aumsville,
Detroit-Idanha, Silvertown, Turner

The Enterprise Prints Wedding Announcements
Expert Craftsmanship—Fast Service Too

TOAST the NEW YEAR in!

To give 1962 a happy, hilarious welcome, plan to join in the fast-and-furious fun of our gala New Year's Party. Sparkling entertainment. On-the-beat dance music.

Door Prizes - Gifts for All
LAST FRONTIER

Phone 897-2400 for Reservations

HOLIDAY WISHES

There's a joy in sending you Yule greetings. Best wishes to you and yours.

Porter & Lau

Phone 769-2154

Stayton, Oregon