TOWN TALK

Thought for today—Generosity has never impoverished the giver; it has enriched the lives of those who practiced it.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Veness and Anne Subardi plan on spending part of the Christmas vacation visiting with the Bob Harris family in California.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Carlson and Suzy will spend Christmas in Novato, Calif., with his mother.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Poole and family will spend the holiday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Mikkelsen at Oakland, Calif.

If current bouts with the flu are routed, Mr. and Mrs. Mel Rambo and Laura Jo will spend Christmas in Oakland, Calif., with relatives and some time with their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. George Rambo at Medford.

Claudia and Linda Budlong returned to school Monday morning after being absent the last three weeks with severe cases of the flu.

E. K. Fish is again confined to his home with the flu.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Lake plan on leaving this week for Montana where they will spend the holidays with relatives. They are making the trip by car and Mrs. Lake said they hoped to time their road travel in between the snow storms that are prevalent in the Montana area.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Hoover and family of Redding, Cal., are visiting at the home of her mother, the Bert Morris. They will all go to Portland for Christmas where they will join another daughter and her family, Mr. and Mrs. John Carmony.

Mrs. A. R. Tohl attended a tea at the home of Dr. and Mrs. R. P. Anderson in Stayton from 2 to 4 Thursday afternoon.

The Round Robin pinochle club members were entertained by Sue Poole at her home Monday evening with a dessert served at 7:30. Winning high score was Tearly Muir and pinochle was won by Sunnie Chance. Mabel Yankus received low. Guests for the evening were Marie Stewart, Sylvia Kindred and Nadine Duggan.

The next meeting will be January 15 at the home of Lou MacGregor.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph McCurdy were hosts to a pinochle party at their home recently for members of the Forest Service. Prizes were won by By Rarey, Sid Nerdahl, Marilyn Nerdahl, and Natalie Simes.

Glenn Ettinger, who has been suffering with the prevalent flu was taken to Marian Home Monday night.

Mr. and Mrs. John Darby and family planned to leave Wednesday for Los Angeles for the holidays with friends.

Guests last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Cummings were their uncle and aunt, Dr. and Mrs. Ralph Cummings and son, Ralph, of San Jose, Calif. He is assistant to the president of San Jose State college.

The Bid or Bunch Pinochle club met at the home of Gladys Podrabsky Monday evening with the hostess serving refreshments at the close of the evening of cards. Guest for the evening was Frances Muelbauer. Winning high prize was Jean Rosamond and Mary Wright won both pinochle and low. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Rosamond January 8.

Mrs. Edith Mason will spend the holidays in Corvallis visiting with her daughters and their families.
