Big Game Hunters Alerted to Coming Filing Deadlines

Big game hunters intending to file applications for the various special big game permits and tags reminded by the game commission that the filing deadline for submitting applications is less than a month away. To be eligible for these tags and permits hunters should file applications as soon as possible.

The first hunt on tap is the antelope season scheduled for August 25 through 29. Filing deadline is set for 5 p. m., July 18. The public drawing is scheduled for 10 a. m., July 25.

Applications for the controlled deer tags must be filed with the game commission by 5 p. m., August 1. The drawing is scheduled for 10 a. m., August 8.

Deer hunters have 26 areas for which they may file applications for controlled season tags. A $5.00 fee must be submitted with the controlled season application.

Applications for the unit deer permits for the taking of either-sex deer must be filed by 5 p. m., August 8. The public drawing will be held at 10 a. m., August 15. Hunters are reminded to include their 1st, 2nd, and 3rd choice units in the spaces on the application.

Elk hunters have a little more time in which to file for elk permits, with the filing deadline set for 5 p. m., August 29. The drawing for elk permits will be held at 10 a. m., September 7.

Big game tags and applications for the various permits and controlled tags are available at all license agencies. Time deadlines and drawing schedules will all be on Pacific Daylight time.

Gospel Services To Be Held At IOOF Hall

There will be special Gospel services held at the IOOF hall Sunday June 24 at 7 p. m. and Thursday, June 24 at 8 p. m.

These services are undenominational and will be conducted by Donald Brist and John Sterling. The public is invited.

Little Chats On Public Notices

By James E. Pollard
"Men Wanted"

(No. 46 in a Series)

In the early part of this century Sir Ernest Shackleton was one of the great explorers of the Antarctic. In all he made four expeditions to that remote part of the world which was then much less well known than now. He died as a result of hardship suffered on his last trip.

Before leaving one of his trips, Sir Ernest used an English newspaper to help recruit men for his expedition. The notice read:

MEN WANTED
for hazardous journey, small wages, bitter cold, long months of complete darkness, constant danger, safe return doubtful. Honor and recognition in case of success.

Sir Ernest Shackleton In its way this was a public notice in that it was an invitation to men with adventurous spirit to sign up for an undertaking that would appeal only to the boldest. It was similar in purpose and form to the public notices, or legal advertising, to be found in any bona fide newspaper of general circulation. It was, to be sure, more exciting than most such notices.

But public notices, as provided by law, are no less important even though they may be

IT'S YOUR LAW

Respect For Law Makes Democracy Live

JUST IN CASE

It's the efficient ones who all too often fail to make plans—about the most important things.

Consider a will: No matter how big or little your estate, you need a will, for without one you make needless and costly troubles by leaving the courts to handle your estate. A survivor may find it hard to take care of the children while awaiting a court's permission to use estate funds.

Have a lawyer draw up your will at once to prevent family rows, needless court actions, freezing of funds. The cost is minor.

Review your will to meet new circumstances—births, deaths, marriages, and changes in your fortune as well as changes in the tax law.

Think well about the choice of an executor of your estate. He may have a tough job. He must, for instance, offer your will for probate in court, notify all interested persons, take possession of all property and prepare a detailed inventory of it, file an appraisal in court, attend appraisers' meetings, file all income tax returns, etc.

Be sure to name a trusted executor. Without a will, the probate court must name an administrator, very often a stranger to one's family.

Best of all, gather your legal papers together, call up a lawyer, make an appointment with him and go over all your property, business and family situations. He has done this with many others and may have suggestions to solve your problems, save taxes, and take care of your family.

Such an act will ease your mind and save your family all sorts of uncertainty and trouble.

unexciting or even uninteresting. The underlying principle is one of the most basic in the American way of life: the right of the public to be informed and that of the individual to be given due notice where his rights are concerned. In hundreds of situations this purpose is carried out through the columns of the bona fide newspaper.

MEHAMA

Mrs. John Teeters

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Ryland returned home recently from a vacation trip when they visited friends in Seattle, Wn., and also attended the fair. They took a few days trip on up to the San Juan Islands which they enjoyed more than the fair.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. McCarty visited during the weekend at the home of their daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Ammons and Mr. and Mrs. George Antella in Longview, Wn.

Visitors last Tuesday at the J. M. Teeters home were Mrs. Teeters' uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Mulkey of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Hughes and children, Cynthia, Sheryl, Bill and Laurie of Coos Bay visited during the weekend with his mother, Mrs. E. J. Hughes and other relatives here.

Mrs. Clara Smith is visiting this week with her sons' family the Wayne Smiths in Eugene.

Mr. and Mrs. Grant Smith and Mrs. Bonnie Wagner and children, Linda, Debby and Donald left the first of the week for San Diego, Calif., for a visit with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Spencer, Gerry, Raymond and Marilyn returned home Sunday. Mr. Spencer took the family to La Grande two weeks ago to the home of Mrs. Spencers' parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Black and then went on to Nampa, Ida., where he visited a few days with his parents, the Charles Spencers. Mrs. Spencer and children accompanied the Blacks to Cheyenne, Wyo., where they visited with her brothers' family, the George Blacks. They came back to LaGrande by way of the Yellowstone Park. Mr. Spencer went after the family over the weekend, and they visited several dams on the way home.

Mr. and Mrs. Harley Johnson are enjoying a vacation trip in Eastern Oregon with their daughter an son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Harley Scott.

Mrs. Wilford Fisher (Alice Boyington) of Van Cleve, Ky., who is visiting here with her sister, Mrs. Russell Wilson and family, will be in charge of the morning services at the Mehama church Sunday, June 24.

Mr. and Mrs. Reed G. White of Portland visited with relatives here Saturday evening.

Mrs. Harvey Buxton and daughter, Beth Davies of Coos Bay, visited during the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Julius Tietze. Mrs. Buxton went on to Portland for a weeks' visit and Beth remained here with her grandmother.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Richmond and daughter, Pam, spent Sunday with friends at Newport.

Mrs. Edwin Eggers and children, Gerry and Renee of Corvallis, visited Sunday with her cousins' family, the G. V. Christensens.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Engdahl (Susee Teeters), Lee, Max, Chris, Jane and Garth of Santa Rosa, Calif., visited from Thursday to Saturday of last week at the J. M. Teeters home and with other relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Johnson, Vicki, Carla and Dale were dinner guests Sunday at the Fred Steinfeld home in Aumsville.

Mrs. George Nay of Ogden, Utah, is visiting with her sons' family the Milton Rotens and with other relatives. A visitor last Friday at the Jack Ryland home was Mrs. Ryland's nephew, Tom Tradwell of Oswego Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Castle were Saturday evening guests at the C. M. Cooper home near Jordan. Additional guests of the Coopers were Mr. and Mrs. Earl Ford, who were visiting there from California. The Castles spent Father's Day with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Herberger in Salem.

Mrs. D. L. Teeters and son, Bruce, and Mrs. Harold Longfellow visited Sunday afternoon with their sister and family, the Don Stensland's in Independence.

Better hustle if you want to enjoy nice Asparagus, the aristocrat of the vegetable garden. End of the season is in sight says Susan O'Hair, Marion County Extension Agent. When shopping, choose fresh asparagus with fresh tender, green stalks, and close, compact tips. Remember, a spreading tip is indicative of age and toughness. Fresh asparagus should be stored in the refrigerator in a moisture proof bag or container.
