

GATES

By Marion Stovall

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Thomas are celebrating the birth of their grandson Troy Christopher born June 11 to Mr. and Mrs. Troy Emerson, at Santiam Memorial hospital. He weighed 7 1/4 pounds at birth.

The Women's Club meeting Thursday (today), will be an all-day work meeting, beginning at 9:30 a. m. There will be no business meeting. Members are asked to come dressed to work on the clubhouse and grounds and to bring a pot-luck dish for the noon lunch.

Miss Aloha Thomas became the bride of Edwin Cornelius King June 9, in Belton, Texas. Mr. King's brother, an ordained minister, performed the ceremony. They are now honeymooning in Florida and will make their home in Belton.

William Whitlock of Sandy, Oregon, his brother Robert and Miss Patty Fleischman, were in the Canyon Sunday visiting the Whitlock's uncle, Mr. Otto Witt of Mill City, and their brother-in-law, Mr. George Stovall and family.

Walter Thomas, Jr., arrived home June 5 from military duty in France.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Ball drove their daughter, Carol Sue to Corvallis Sunday, where she is enrolled for Oregon State University's summer session to complete her Junior year. Carol Sue will join her husband, Earl Cooper in Taipei, Taiwan, China in the fall.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Delker and son Ron, formerly of Sheridan, Oregon, will be moving into the Bob Oliver rental house this week. Mr. Delker is employed by Albert Harris.

The George Stovalls received word that Mr. and Mrs. Everett Price and family, who are on their way to Cedar Falls, Iowa, stopped at Salt Lake, Utah for a salty swim in the lake. Mr. Price, who is attending summer school in Iowa, received a National Science Foundation Scholarship to attend Michigan

State University at East Lansing, Michigan this fall. Mr. Price taught science at Santiam High School this year.

Mrs. Buzz Blalock and daughters Clydena and Carrie Lou of Lebanon stayed overnight Saturday with the Bob Olivers. Their daughter Sheryl Oliver, returned to Lebanon with the Blalocks for a week's visit.

Mrs. Retha Herron underwent an emergency appendectomy Friday at Memorial Hospital in Salem. Her family reports that she is doing very well and is expected to come home ten days after the operation was performed. Her doctor told the family that it was a miracle they operated in time because her appendix had been ruptured for two and one half days.

Mrs. Robert Blumenstein visited Mrs. Herron at the hospital Saturday.

Mrs. Alice Dougall and family of Scio lunched with the Bernard Bunngarners last Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles McKee's sister, Mrs. Irene Greene of McMinnville visited Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wilson, Mrs. Bowes and other friends in this area Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Terry Randall and daughter, Cathy, and Mr. and Mrs. George Noacks all of Salem and Mr. and Mrs. Terry Randall Jr., spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ken Randall. Terry Jr., was recently discharged from the Navy. He plans to attend school in Portland where he will begin his pre-medical education.

Mr. and Mrs. Jay Worley of Fort Collins, Colo., have been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Steve Myers. Mr. Worley was a superintendent of schools for 33 years and Mrs. Worley a primary teacher for about the same time. Mr. Worley visited in Oregon about 45 years ago but it is Mrs. Worley's first trip to the west coast. She marvels at our large trees and luxuriant undergrowth and she thinks our wild rhododendron the prettiest wild flower she has ever seen. While they have been here the Myers have taken their guests up the Columbia River highway, to the Rose Parade in Portland, to Mt. Hood, the beach, and last Sunday a family reunion was held in Sweet Home in honor of the Worleys. Approximately 35 cousins were there and Mr. Worley presented each family present with a genealogy of the Worley family which he had been working on for 35 years. The Worleys left Thursday for Portland where they will visit briefly before going on to Seattle where they will visit the Fair before returning home by way of Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hunt of Portland spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Penn. Mrs. Hunt is a sister of Mrs. Penn.

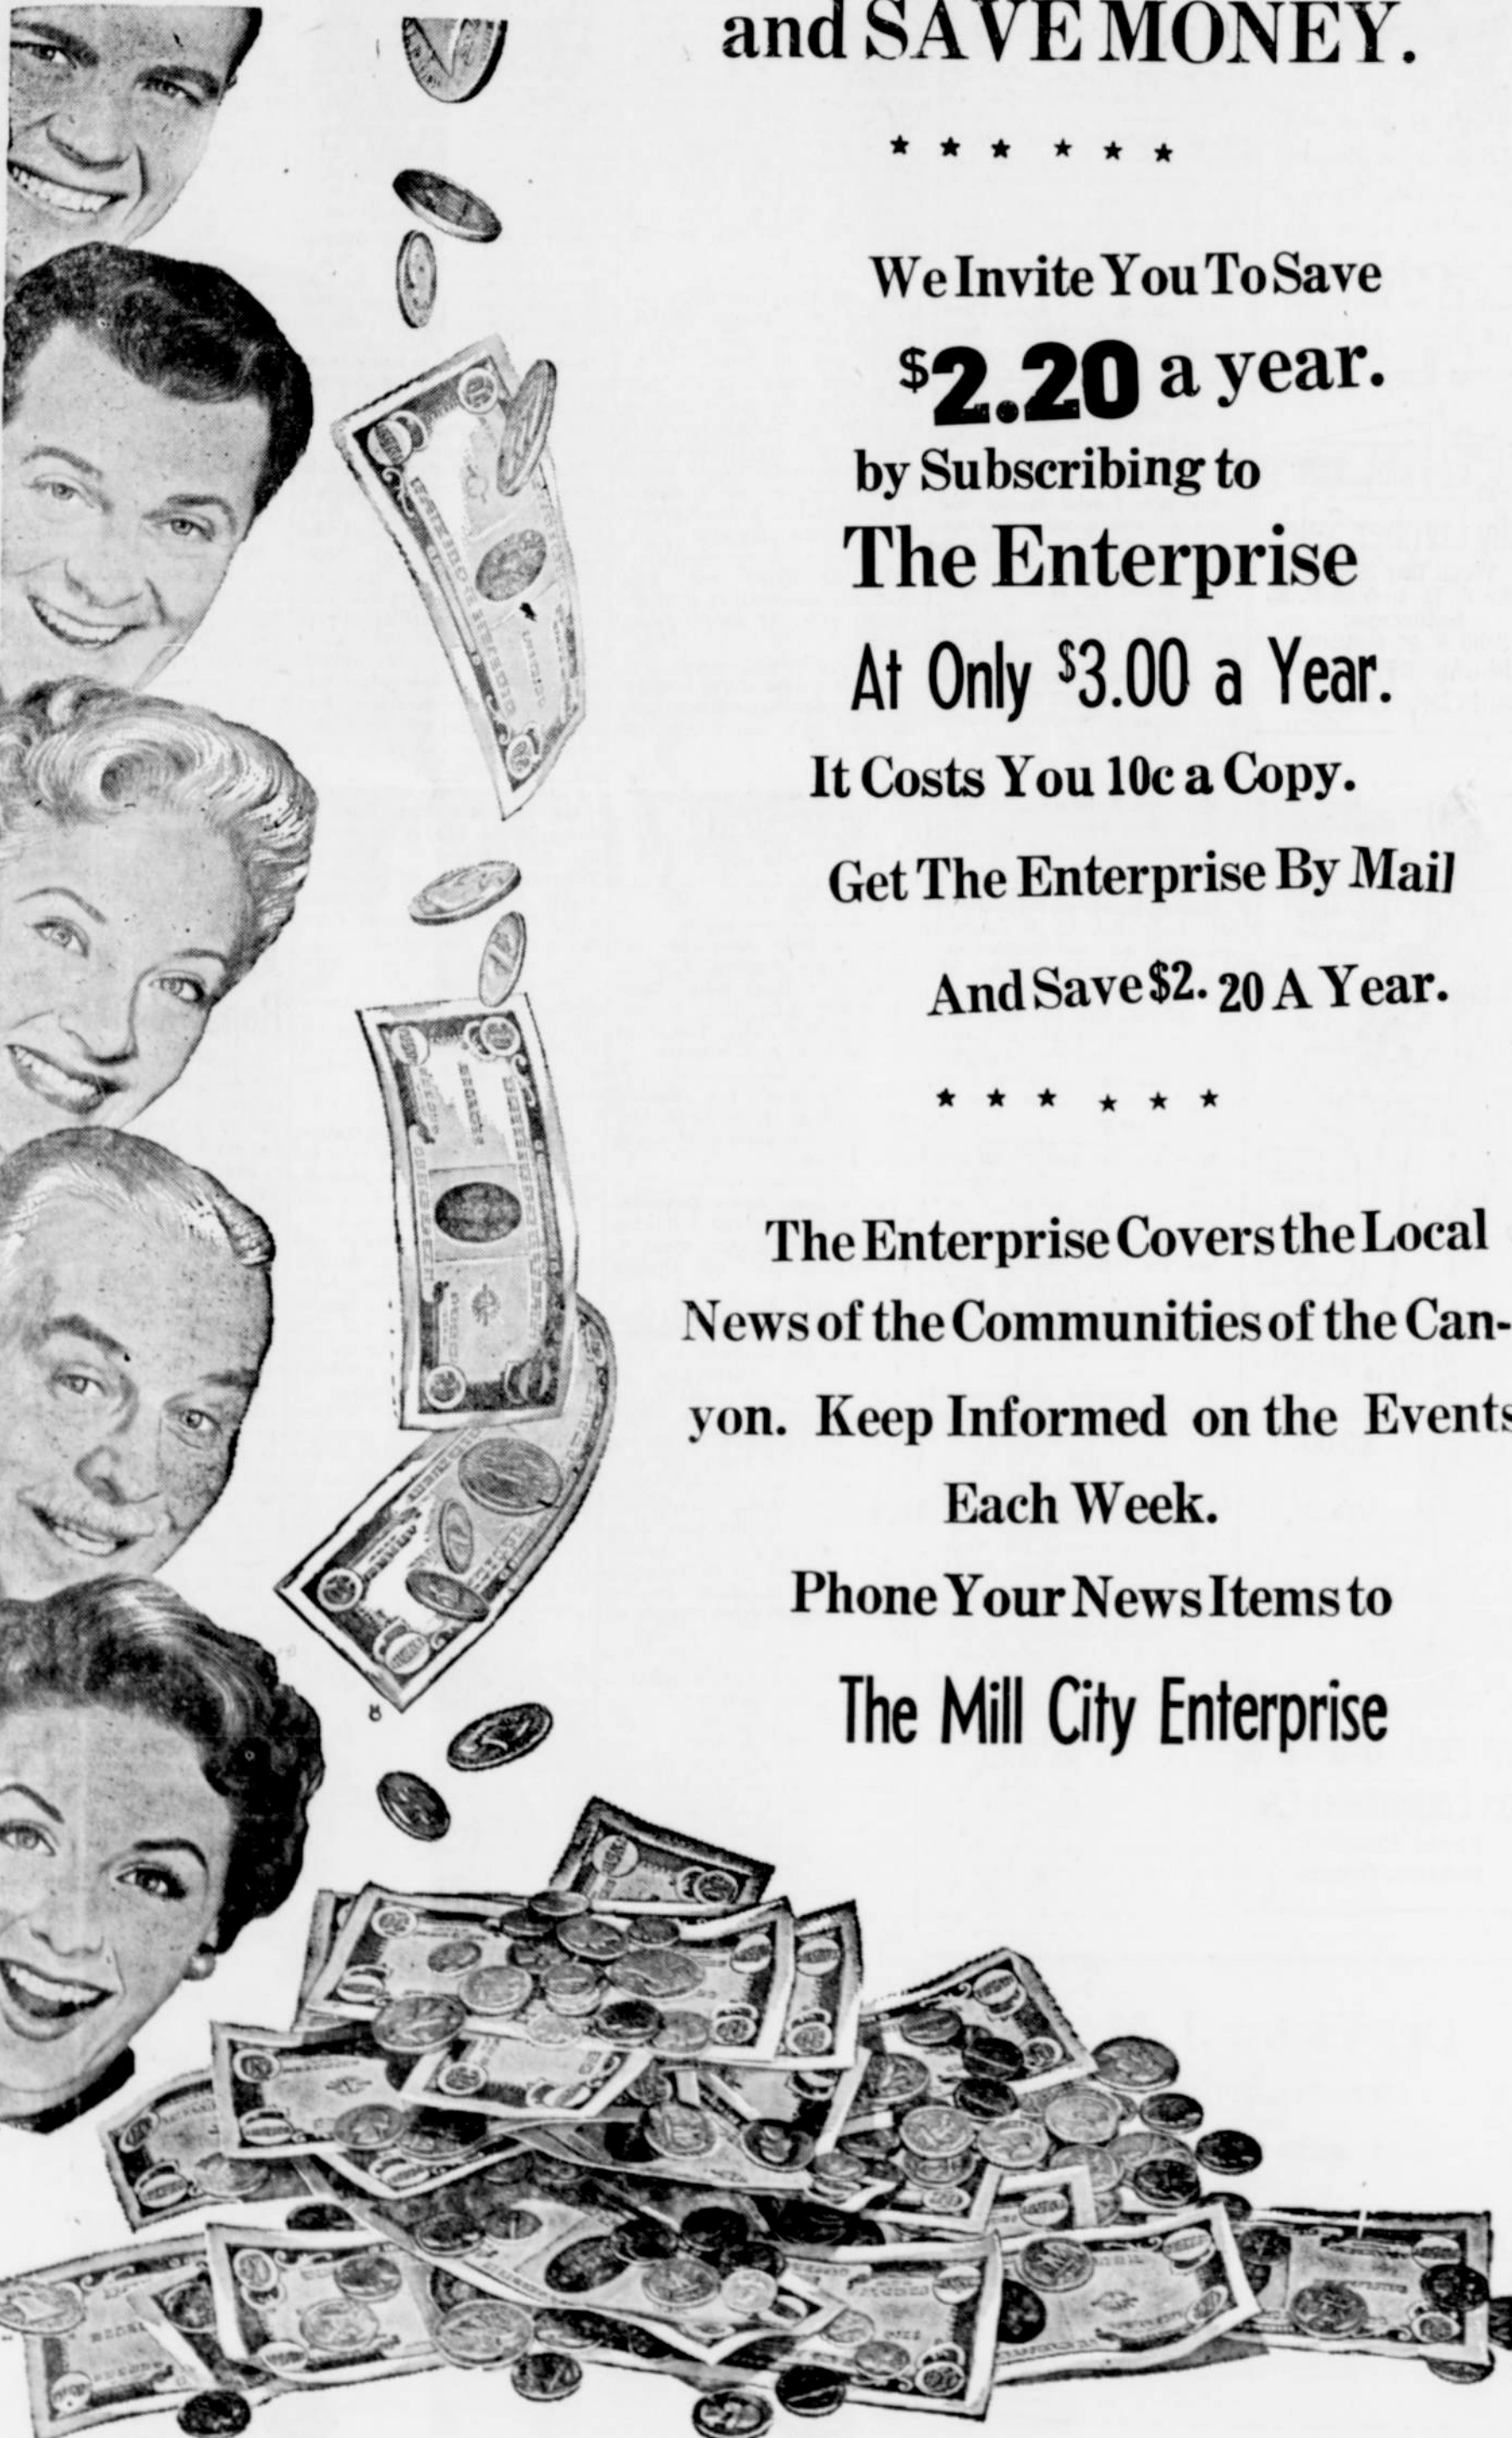

Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Myers went to Breitenbush Hot Springs Monday. They stopped to visit with Mrs. Ray Mays in Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. Mel Rambo who purchased a lot on the North Fork earlier in the year from Mr. and Mrs. Steve Myers have traded for another lot on the river. They made the trade with Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Harrison in Salem. The Rambos plan on moving a trailer onto the lot soon.
