Silver Tea Held at Kelly Home Tuesday

The home of Mrs. Charles Kelly was the scene of a lovely silver tea Tuesday afternoon from 2 until 4:30. Proceeds from the tea will go to the Estarl and Home Endowment fund of the Eastern Star. The tea was given by the social club of Marilyn Chapter, OES.

Greeting the guests at the door was Mrs. Sylvia Duncan, worthy matron. Mrs. Kelly received the guests and invited them to the dining room where the tea table was set before the large picture window overlooking the river. The tea table was covered with a cut-work linen cloth. An arrangement of purple heather and tulip tree blossoms graced the table opposite the silver coffee and tea service. Mrs. Harold Hake, wife of the pastor of the Christian church and Mrs. Wilson Stevens, member of the Estarl and Home Endowment committee, presided at the urns. Mrs. Charlie French assisted at the table. Mrs. Lowell Cree passed the guest book.

Assisting about the rooms were Mrs. Tena Graham, Mrs. Floyd Johnson, Mrs. Jack Gulliford and Mrs. Roger Nelson. Mrs. Daniel Kleihege played background music throughout the afternoon. Bouquets of daffodils were about the rooms.

Mrs. Kelly took those who were interested on a tour of her new home.

Boring Girl Bride of David Schiewek In Gresham Ceremony

LYONS—Miss Juanita Phillips, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Phillips of Boring, became the bride of David Schiewek, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Schiewek of Lyons on March 30. The double ring ceremony was held at the Assembly of God church in Gresham at 4 o'clock p. m. with L. O. Triplett performing the ceremony and the Rev. Glyn Hillgess offering the prayer.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of silk organza over taffeta, with applique lace accenting the front of the full-length skirt which ended in a train. The bride's shoulder length veil fell from a seed pearl crown. She wore a strand of pearls, a gift from the groom.

The church was decorated with baskets of white carnations, white roses and ivy, with white pillars giving a porch-like effect for a background.

Organist was the Rev. Monte Fast and soloists were Mary Lou Greene and John Schiewek.

Miss Janita Belcher of Boring was the maid of honor, wearing a dress of mint green brocaded taffeta, made princess style.

Her headpiece was fashioned of Dior roses and veiling. She carried white carnations and ivy.

The bridesmaids, Judith Black, and Doris Reed of Portland, Pauline Schiewek of Salem and Elna Triplett of Gresham, were gowned in dresses similar to the maid of honor.

Best man for the groom was John Schiewek and ushers were Ed Schiewek, Don Schiewek, Douglas Phillips, Brent Bentley, Dale Rubel and Michael Myrick.

After a short wedding trip to Seattle the young couple left by plane for Hawaii where he is stationed with the coast guard.

Jaycettes Sponsoring Bloodmobile Visit

The regular Jaycettes meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Ron Lindsay with Mrs. Jim Grant presiding.

Part of the business meeting was devoted to the discussion of arrangements for the Bloodmobile which is coming to the area today, Thursday, April 11. The Jaycettes will be assisted by the Mill City Woman's club. The Jaycettes will be working two shifts at the Bloodmobile.

Numbers were drawn for prizes during the evening with Paula Grant and Myrita Davis the lucky winners.

Following the business meeting refreshments were served by the hostess to Myrita Davis, Cleta Wills, Paula Grant, Joan Wettergreen, Shirley Hoover and Carol Smith.

Hostess for the next meeting will be Betty Shaw.

Engagement Told

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Howton of Portland are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Miss Cheryl Jean Howton to Norvel Dean Richards, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Richards of Mill City. Both young people are seniors at Santiam Union High school. No date has been set for the wedding. Miss Howton is the granddaughter of Mrs. Harvey Tolbert and the niece of Mrs. Paul (Bud) Cline.

Steinfelts to Observe 50th Anniversary Sun.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Steinfelt will be feted by their children on the occasion of their Golden Wedding Anniversary Easter Sunday.

Friends and neighbors are invited to call between 2 and 5 p. m. at the Santiam Golf Club near Stayton. The Steinfelts were married in Canadian, Tex., March 4, 1913 and have lived in Oregon (Fox Valley and Stayton) since 1949, coming from California where they had resided since 1924. The celebration was postponed so the Steinfelts' six children and many of their 13 grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren could attend.

The Steinfelt's children are Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Goodwin of Redding, Calif., Mr. and Mrs. James Goodwin, Gerber, Calif., Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Hill of Pittsburg, Calif., Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jernigan of Anderson, Calif., Mr. and Mrs. William Steinfelt of Sacramento, Calif., and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Verbeck, of Albany.

Lyons WSCS Plans Mother-Daughter Event for May 9

LYONS—Mrs. Leora Stevens was hostess for the meeting of the Women's Society of Christian service held at the Stevens home Tuesday afternoon.

The annual mother-daughter banquet which will be held on May 9 was discussed. Mrs. Leora Johnson is general chairman. It was also voted to send a donation to the Methodist home in Salem, and to order more silver ware for the kitchen at the church. Mrs. Hollingshead made a report on the rummage shop, and a general discussion held on the sale of the building, and also on purchasing a rug for the parsonage.

Attending the meeting were June Hollingshead, Naomi Int-Veld, Alice Huber, Pearl Hudson, Martha Cruson, Bertha Wilson, Ruth Cotton, Leora Johnson, Eva Bressler, Betty Carter, Lottie Grosso, Gladys Edwards and the hostess, Mrs. Stevens.

Two from Here to Attend Assembly At The Dalles

Main order of business at Santiam Rebekah lodge at their April 3 meeting was the election of delegates to the Rebekah Assembly of Oregon at The Dalles in May. Ida Fleetwood and Toni Thomas will be the official delegates.

Faustina Nesbitt was recommended to serve as District Deputy president of Santiam.

It was announced that Mrs. Aloha King had received her Theta Rho majority degree from Beta Iota No. 57 in Salem the previous week.

The April 17 meeting of Santiam will feature an "After Easter Bonnet" parade and will be a do-it-yourself project.

Mrs. Rachel Olmstead and Mrs. Mattie Root will be the ommittee in charge that evening.

Mrs. Nesbitt reported on the district IOOF-Rebekah United Nations youth pilgrimage which is being sponsored again this year. She is a district committee member and the finals were held in Silverton last week with a Salem girl winning the honor. Santiam High school did not have a contestant this year. District contestants took a tour of the State Legislature and gave their impressions in a speech. Mrs. Nesbitt accompanied them on the tour.

Mrs. Thomas and Mrs. Ruby Brisbin were the committee in charge of arrangements for Wednesday's meeting with the "April Fool" theme used. A number of clever arrangements were used to illustrate the theme such as "nut-gathering," "flowers in May, and "Pennies from Heaven."
