Church Ladies To Conduct Clothing Drive Here

The women of the Mill City Presbyterian church are conducting a clothing drive for shipment overseas to the underprivileged in other lands. Anyone having good, usable clothing may leave it at Fellowship hall.

Mrs. Ida Fleetwood and Mrs. Altha Grimes are heading the drive, assisted by other women of the church.

Only standard reliable jars and lids made and intended for canning are recommended. Glass in canning jars is thinner than in the past. As a result they are stronger, less likely to break from unequal expansion.

Mrs. Thomas Scott Presents Students in Piano Recital

Mrs. Thomas Scott presented her piano students in a recital which was held Sunday, May 18 at Stone's Recital Hall in Salem.

Those participating were Jerry Chance, Jimmy Storey, Jeri Jo Parker, Sharon Mulse, Melody Barnhardt, Terry Hansen, Debby Chance, Ryan Swan, Linda Duffy, Kandee Henness, Christine Story, Kathy Story, Jimmy Rotz, Janice Gordon and Alan Yankus.

Mrs. Scott played a duet with Alan Yankus, "When Thou Art Near," and she also played a piano solo, "Fantasie-Improvisation" by Chopin.

Transfer Members Taken Into Lodge

Three members were taken in by transfer from lodges in California at the last meeting of Santiam Rebekah lodge.

They were Marie Stickney and Mr. and Mrs. Claude Levin. A new project has been undertaken by lodge members, that of purchasing a new rug for the hall. A series of money-making ventures are being planned according to Ann Primeau, noble grand. At Wednesday's meeting several pies were auctioned with proceeds going into the fund.

Following the business meeting refreshments were served by Ann Primeau and Otto Koenke with the hall and dining table decorated with spring flowers.

The Seniors are out. After last Friday, none had to return, except to make up tests and other unfinished work. But half of them have been back, roaming around the school. Of course, they haven't officially graduated yet; that comes Friday night, the 24th.

Everyone else will still be here until the 31st. School should go on as usual this week, without too many interruptions, and semester tests are dreaded next week. These tests take up to two hours, at the discretion of the teacher, and cover everything since January, which seems like a long time ago.

For 11 of us, June 1 means three glorious weeks of vacation. Mr. and Mrs. Williams, Mr. Rasmussen, Patsy Pennick, Frances Reid, Sherry Bennett, Carolyn Davenport, Marilee Teller, Grant Merrill, Ed McCurdy, and Ron Ohmart are leaving at dawn for Mexico. If the trip works out, it may become a regular thing for Spanish students.
