LAST OF THE BOWLING NEWS
 Another bowling season came to an end with a successful bowling banquet, thanks to the efforts of Leonard and Eva Myers, Barney Keep, of radio and tv fame was guest speaker. Doc Duffy did a fine job as master of ceremonies and tried hard to top Barney's jokes. The banquet ended with the drawing for the door prizes, and the happiest winner was Sue Poole when she won one of the bowling balls. Lloyd Girod and Joe Boyle were presented a silver tray from the Men's and Women's Bowling associations. Leonard Myers took home a lion's share of the many trophies.
 The last ice cream winners of the bowling season were Pauline Hensen, Naomi Underwood, Shirley Laird and Mary Wright. They can pick up a gallon of DeLuxe ice cream from Girod's Super Market.
 Some scores from the last few nights of bowling:
 Tony Masser 256; Benny Montoya 212; Ruby Huff 201; Jeanette Fery 195; Chuck Way 265; Dave Neitling 223-216 for 624; Vince Lulay 225-204 for 619; Leonard Myers 230 for 616; Verne Jenks 215-211 for 619; Don Carey 223; Clare 202; Art Hempeck 211-206; Irma Core 188; Marge Ralphs 191; and Bob Lierman 212.
 I would like to take this opportunity to thank all the league secretaries for their help on the scores for the past two years. They are Ernie, Dee, Dora, Gil, Fran, Joe, Val, Ellen, Hank and Sue.
 I would like to wish Ernie and Fran the best of luck on their new venture into the bowling business at Albany.
 I would also like to extend a get-well greeting to another fine devoted bowler, Dave Bunde. Get well soon, Dave, and all of us would like to see you on the bowling lanes again.
 Things we might put into the bowling banquet next year:
 1. The man and lady bowler of the year.
 2. Present an award to the man and lady bowler with the highest average.
 3. Have a special sponsor table for all sponsors.
 4. Get Doc Duffy some new jokes.
