Seniors Tell of Plans For Schooling

Now that school is out many of the graduating seniors here have started making plans for their higher education; some only in the formative stage and other actively working toward that goal.

Before school was out a number of the seniors indicated what they planned on doing and it will be interesting to follow their plans.

Linda Bassett plans on becoming a nurse and received a scholarship to Sacred Heart hospital in Eugene.

Harley Bell plans on attending vocational school in Salem.

Bonnie Boroughs will enter the University of Oregon.

Another candidate for vocational technical school is Ken Chichester.

Mary Cogar has already embarked upon her career as a housewife.

David Hickerson plans on attending Linfield college.

Sharon Hostetter will attend business college. Also entering business school will be Sandra Johnson.

Okinori Ono will return to his native Japan later this month and will continue his education there.

Patsy Pennick plans on attending the University of Oregon.

Carol Schaer, salutatorian of her class will attend OCE.

Bruce Tuers will enter the heavy equipment maintenance field.

Allan Warde is now working at Simpson's and wishes to train for a draftsman this fall at a vocational school.

Gary Whitsett is another senior planning to attend OCE. Another college prospect is Rusty Whitten.

Ray Yankus, class valedictorian, is planning for a college education.

Janice Logan, who was forced to remain home several months during her senior year because of illness, plans a career as a housewife later on.

Dianne Merrill plans on working for a year and then attending college. She is presently with a group of Stayton and area young people on a tour of the United States.

Carl Kelly, a Mill City "native" plans on attending college at Linfield.

Several other class members are tentatively interested in going on to school but their plans are not definite yet.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Kimmel went to Estacada Saturday night for the annual high school alumni dinner. Doc is a graduate of Estacada High.

Mrs. Albert Toman has returned to her home after spending the past 10 days with her daughter and family, the Art Robisons of Spray. Mrs. Robison is slowly regaining her strength following her illness of the past year. Mr. Toman met his wife in Prineville Monday.

George Conibear of Portland is now working with the Forest Service in Mill City. He graduated from high school this week and was brought here Tuesday by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Conibear, and his aunt, Mrs. Flossie Johnson. The Conibears were residents here many years ago, and lived in the house now owned by Mr. and Mrs. Herb Hutchinson. Mrs. Tena Graham returned to Portland with the Conibears to visit relatives. George is staying at the Graham home for the present time.

Jacks and Jills and Ills and Pills

Jack and Jill were taken ill
And needed medication.
Jack made for a discount store.
But Jill scorned the temptation.
"I demand an expert's hand;
The pharmacy's where I go.
They have the skill to end each ill
From flu to impetigo.
Poor Jack will find when buying blind
That luck 'most always fails him.
There's no one there to know or care
About what hurts or ails him."

"Yes, each day, more and more customers entrust us with their medical needs. May we too take care of yours?"
