Rebekahs-IOOF To Sponsor Float and Princess July 4th

At the last meeting of Santiam Rebekah lodge, plans were made to cooperate with the Oddfellows in sponsoring a float and princess for the 4th of July celebration. Mr. and Mrs. Al Nesbitt and Ann Primeau were appointed to meet with that group.

Gladys Mason, district deputy president has asked that all members try and give the secret work this year and obtain their seal of perfection.

Ida Fleetwood and Toni Thomas reported on their recent attendance at the Rebekah Assembly of Oregon which was held at The Dalles last month. They said that the president of the Assembly has asked the cooperation of all the lodges in Oregon in helping her carry out the project for the year, painting the outside of the IOOF home in Portland. Last year all the lodges raised enough money to put an elevator in the home and it is now in the process of being installed.

Santiam lodge members are having a series of benefits to raise money for a new rug for the lodge hall. A bargain table will be available at each meeting and proceeds will go towards the fund.

Following the business meeting Ruth Hess and Blanche Syverson served refreshments to those present.

The next meeting of the lodge will be Wednesday, June 19.
