LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Recently I was in Mill City and no less than 6 persons said they had heard I was picked up by the police for snagging salmon. I would like to take this opportunity to clarify a few things.

My fathers name is Burrell and mine is Burnett but most people in Mill City call both of us Burr.

Recently my Dad legally caught a chinook salmon and in landing this fish his line became entangled in an old lure.

LYONS

By Eva Bressler

Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Pietrok were in Salem Monday to attend the funeral of his sister, Mrs. Catherine Zielinski, who passed away Wednesday. Requiem Mass was held Monday morning at 10 at St. Joseph's Catholic church. Interment was at St. Barbaras cemetery.

Rev. and Mrs. Norman Williams and four small daughters of Salem moved into the parsonage Monday morning. He will serve the Methodist church, replacing Rev. Ruth Cotton.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Olmstead were in Portland Saturday evening to attend the wedding of his nephew, Robert Olmstead, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Olmstead of Coburg, and Miss Judith Ann Roberts, daughter of Mrs. Phyllis M.

that was in the side of this fish. Someone had probably snagged this fish accidentally the week before. Your local city police was on the opposite side of the river and he evidently thought this fish was snagged, but due to the distance he couldn't clearly see the situation. After the State Police was notified, and arrived on the scene, a talk with the witness who netted the fish and another who helped remove the single egg hook from the fish's mouth, it was quickly decided that everything was legal. A little incident like this can ruin a person's reputation as well as snowball into distorted facts. If there are any doubts by the city police about my Dad's reputation as a good sportsman, I suggest a talk with most of the fishermen or business people in town.

I also feel that the teenagers in Mill City are far above the national average as there is very little trouble in town, so instead of accusing them of snagging fish, I feel that it would be better to gain their confidence and try to create a better relationship. Once you lose respect of the teenagers you can expect your troubles to multiply.

In summing this letter up I would like to state; That I am 100% in favor of arresting anyone caught snagging fish on purpose. That we have a State Police office paid by everyone of us for doing this job. That in my opinion you people of Mill City are paying officers to patrol your streets and not the river banks.

I don't mind being mistaken for my Dad but he nor I either one like to be accused of something which we have not done or have intentions of doing.

Sincerely,
Burnett Cole.

Roberts and Merton H. Roberts both of Portland.

Gail Webb, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Janeway of Lyons and Miss Vicki Dymond, daughter of Mrs. C. A. Dymond of Kingston, N. Y., exchanged their wedding vows at Reno, Nev. Saturday, June 1.

Their only attendants were Mr. and Mrs. John Lucas of Salem. They are now at home in Salem.

Barbara Jean Roten, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Roten of Lyons left Monday for 4-H summer school at Corvallis. She was awarded a scholarship through the Linn County 4H office.

Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Durham and family of Mt. Vernon, Wn., were weekend guests at the home of his sister, Mrs. Donna Asmussen and daughter, Mildred.

Mr. and Mrs. Vaughn Hunt and son, Duane and Darrell, and her mother, Mrs. Effie Nydegger were last week guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Paulson. Enroute they visited at The Dalles at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Carleton and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Julian were in Klamath Falls Friday to attend graduation at OTI where their son, Glenn, Jr., received his degree in applied science.

Mrs. Robert Schiewek was hostess for the meeting of the St. Patrick Altar society held at the Catholic Community hall Thursday evening.

Wanda Mead of Portland was a recent visitor at the home of her mother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kimery and children.

Mrs. Thelma Phillips and her mother, Mrs. Ora Delk, who have been living at Apple Tree Court east of town have moved into the former Bill house which they recently purchased.

Members of the Wednesday afternoon card club held their last party at the fire hall Wednesday afternoon with a no-host pot luck dinner at noon. They will recess for the summer and resume again in September. High score was held by Eulalie Lyons; second high by Alma Nydegger. Others attending were B. Allen, Margaret Kunkle, L. Worden, Dorothy Williams, Bernice Bridges, Rose Bassett, Carrie Naue, Esther Danielson, Bea Hiatt, Mildred Huffman, Alice Huber, Ruth Lyons, Helen Lyons, Katie Sieg and Ethel Huffman.

At the meeting of the fire district June 4 a budget of $7,950 was passed. This is about the same as last year.

OBITUARIES

Mill City friends have received word of the death Thursday of Ray W. Stockdale, 45, of Bend. He passed away in a Bend hospital following a long illness with cancer.

The Stockdales lived in Mill City about eight years ago when he operated a shoe store and worked as relief patrolman for the city.

Survivors include the widow, Pauline, two sons, four daughters and 10 grandchildren.

Services were held Monday from Tabor Mortuary in Bend.

DETROIT—John Mason, longtime resident of Detroit, died in a Portland hospital Friday after a long illness.

He is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mason of Sweet Home; sons Clifford and Charles Mason of Portland; a brother, Richard of White Sands, N. M., and two sisters, Mrs. Martha Taylor, of Idanha and Mrs. Hazel Gabriel of Gates.

Come hill ... or high water
Vacations go smoother in a Chevrolet Corvair

Bring on those mountains! They're not so high and mighty when you've got Corvair's gummy six and rear-engine traction working on them.

You scurry up the meanest grades. You move with sure-footed agility on wet pavement, muddy lanes, gravel and other would-be miseries.

And with most of Corvair's weight on the rear wheels, you have easy steering, too. Fact is, the handling's so light and responsive we don't even offer power steering for the car.

And there's more to feel good about. No problems with your radiator boiling over or going dry, because there's no radiator. Corvair's engine is air cooled. No concern about brake adjustments, either, because the brakes adjust themselves. Nothing much to think about at all except the good time you're having.

Like to do that in a sporty bucket-seated Monza Club Coupe or Convertible? Like to spring into summer with a 4-speed stick shift* and Spyder package* with its 150-hp Turbocharged engine? Your dealer's got just the Corvair and the Trade 'N' Travel deal on it to put you in a holiday mood.
