

LYONS

By Eva Bressler

Mr. and Mrs. Max McCartney of Lyons are announcing the birth of another daughter, Debra Arleta born July 29 at Santiam Memorial hospital in Stayton. She weighed 7 pounds 1 ounce and will be welcomed at home by three sisters. Grandparents are Adolph Sampauski and Mrs. Dorothy Hale of Klamath Falls and Mrs. Roy Howard of Portland.

Mrs. Lawrence Chvka returned home Wednesday from Ravinia, S. D., after spending three weeks there with relatives and while there she attended the wedding of her niece Miss Ruby Schmidt.

Mrs. Charles Oleson from Geddes, S. D., arrived in Lyons Wednesday. She will spend two weeks visiting at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Bud Miley and family. She will also visit a brother in Albany.

Mr. and Mrs. John Lengacher Sr. with their son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Lengacher and children were Sunday guests in Portland. They spent the day visiting relatives.

Mrs. Albert Wesley was taken back to the U of O Medical hospital in Portland Tuesday. Mrs. Wesley has been in and out of the hospital several times, having been in ill health for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Downing from Florida were recent guests at the home of his cousin, Mr. and Mrs. Orville Downing. They were enroute to Am-day, Wn., to see his mother, Mrs. Orville Downing.

Mr. and Mrs. Jess Fitzgerald from Wisconsin were Thursday callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Bressler. Mr. Fitzgerald and Mr. Bressler were boyhood friends. They had not seen each other for 49 years.

Hugh Johnston and sons, Bobby and Tommy left Tuesday morning for Lima, Ohio, where Mr. Johnston will pick up a new school bus for Mari-Linn.

Mrs. Gerald (Freda) Wilson was the lucky one in the drawing at Thiels Grocery Saturday July 27 winning a sewing machine.

Mr. and Mrs. Ramie Martell and sons and her mother, Mrs. Pearl Averill have moved to Oceanlake where the Martells have purchased a motel.

At the meeting for the Lyons Public Library Thursday evening, Mrs. Gerald Wilson was elected president, Mrs. Harold Horn, vice president; Mrs. Bob Walton, secretary and Mrs. L. H. Behrens, treasurer. Mrs. Behrens will continue as librarian, assisted by Mrs. Lester Lamunyan and Mrs. Russell Thiel. The library is open to the public each Thursday evening from 7:30 to 8:30.

At the regular meeting of Santiam Valley Grange Friday evening the Scotts Mills Grange members were present and put on the entire program for the lecturer's hour. Guests were also present from Silverton, Seio, McClay and Crow Foot. A special open meeting will be held Friday evening, August 16 to make plans and discuss the annual Harvest Festival and Fair. All interested persons are welcome to attend. A pot luck supper will be served following the meeting.

Recent guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Hennings and daughter, were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hennings and sons of Huntley, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. Nels P. Dalby and family from McHenry, Ill., and Mr. and Mrs. Leon Russell and family of Salem; Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Russell and son of Monitor; Mr. and Mrs. Einar Dalby of Albany, and David Hennings of Corvallis.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Roye were Sunday dinner guests at the home of Rev. and Mrs. R. A. Feenstra at Falls City.

Mrs. Alice Huber spent the weekend in Portland at the home of her sister, Mrs. Maggie Matheny. Mrs. Matheny has recently undergone eye surgery.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Walton returned home Monday afternoon after spending several days over the weekend at North Bend at the home of his parents Mr. and Mrs. Ben Walton and his sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Maze. Their two nephews, Freddie and Billie Maze returned home with them for a visit while Wendee and Sally Walton remained there for a visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Leland Manning and children spent Sunday at the coast. They were guests at Oceanlake. They reported a beautiful day and seeing the Ramie Martells for a short time.

Miss Jane Taylor and brothers Keith Jr. and Rex from Newport, are spending several days at the home of their grandmother, Mrs. Ruth Lyons.

Mrs. Dewey Durham and children, Phyllis, Cheri and Jeanie from Mt. Vernon, Wn., spent several days at the home of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Donna Aasmussen and daughter, Mildred.

The Methodist church took on a coat of white paint Saturday when men, women and young people of the community gathered for the painting job. The women served dinner at noon to the workmen.

Lt. and Mrs. Emery Hatch and family from Port Orchard, Wn., were weekend guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lawrence. Dennis Lawrence, who had been visiting at the Hatch home returned with them.

The newly organized choir at the Lyons Methodist church will present a musical program at the church Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock. A quartet from Salem will be present to sing several numbers. There will be a sing-along and watermelon feed following.

Mr. and Mrs. Harley Scott and daughter, Joyce and Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Weaver, Cheryl and Patricia and LuAnne Sturtevant spent the week end at Big Lake where they enjoyed boating and water skiing.

Five Years Ago

Mr. and Mrs. Toni Marastoni had put in a swimming pool at The Last Frontier and merchants of the Gates area had taken space in The Enterprise to congratulate them.

Mrs. A. R. Tohl had just returned from Wheeler where she had visited her husband who was employed there.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Kuhlman and family had moved to Albany that week to make their home. Ron was to stay with Mr. and Mrs. Bill Shuey to finish his school year.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Chance and family were vacationing in Auburn, Wn.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Mason and family of Long Beach, Cal., were visiting with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Mason.

A family reunion was held that week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Harris east of Gates.

Ten Years Ago

Mrs. Floyd Blackburn (Virginia Timm) was complimented with a bridal shower at the recreation room of the Gates High school. Hostesses for the affair were Mrs. George Stafford, Mrs. Mabel Knutson, and Mrs. Ed Chance.

A tennis tournament had been going on and "ladder" standing were Larry Large at the top; Harold Kliever, Larry Kanoff, Gary Bevier, Terry Muir, Rodney Goble, David Jones and Brian Moffatt.

The Morris clan had held their annual picnic at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Morris west of town. President of the group was Albert Morris of Salem and Lulu Berringer was secretary-treasurer.

Mason's Style Shop in Mill City was offering Back to School togs at reduced prices. The shop was located on 1st avenue.

John Muir, along with other Mayors of the area had helped judge floats at the Santiam Bean Festival in Stayton.

Fifteen Years Ago

Mill City residents had made a substantial contribution for the relief of Vanport flood victims. Local committee in charge included Mrs. Gladys Mason, Mrs. Rose Daly and Mrs. May Mason.

At Lyons word has been received that Orville Miller, manager of Mt. Jefferson Lumber Co., had died of a heart attack and his son, Walter, was to assume the executive position.

Mavis Mundt had been married that week to Robert Crass of Wheeler at the Mill City Presbyterian church.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Lewis had returned from a vacation trip that took them to Canada.

At Gates Mrs. Carl Jensen, a recent bride, had been complimented with a shower at Moore's Grove. Hostesses were Mrs. Bill Pennick and Mrs. R. N. Pennick.

Latest record hits advertised that week by Porter & Lau included "Woody Woodpecker with Kay Kyser, "Now is the Hour" by Ray Noble and "Because" featuring Perry Como.

Subscribe to The Mill City Enterprise Only $3.00 a Year

NEED CASH?

- How many pieces of furniture do you have stored in your garage or attic. Maybe it is something someone wants. You can turn your unwanted items into ready cash
- Why not sort out all unwanted furniture, dishes, clothing, garden tools. Make a list of them then call

The Mill City Enterprise and place an inexpensive

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISEMENT

- You'll be surprised how little it will cost you and how many calls you will receive.

Try It Today

The Mill City Enterprise
Commercial Printing Advertising
Phone 897-2772 Mill City