Lyons Rebekahs To Join With Mill City

Reading and adoption of a petition from Faith Rebekah lodge to consolidate with Santiam Rebekah lodge was the main order of business at the last meeting of Santiam.
Several members of the Mill City order plan on attending the last lodge meeting to be held at Lyons Wednesday evening. Plans for the visit of the president of the Rebekah Assembly of Oregon to both lodges on December 4 will also be discussed at that time. The official visitation will be held in Mill City, with Faith Rebekah members assisting.
It was announced that further plans for the dinner which will be served to Mill City Volunteer firemen and their families the day following the annual benefit will be discussed at a Three Links meeting.
Plans were discussed for participation in the district convention which will be held at Turner Saturday, November 16. Santiam will also present an exemplification at the convention.
Nominations of officers for the ensuing year were read for the second time with no new names added. Voting will be at the December 4 meeting.
Marie Stickney was appointed to serve as conductor replacing Dorothy Vail, who resigned.
Refreshments were served following the business meeting with Hattie Cole and Toni Thomas on the committee.
