For Representative

Former State Representative William F. (Bill) Gwinn, candidate for the legislature from Linn County today announced his committee appointments for the Mill City - Lyons area. They include J. C. Kimmel, Mrs. Chas Dolezal and Mrs. Edith Mason all of Mill City and Fred Lindeman and Mrs. Alta Bodeker of Lyons.

Gwinn who headed up the referendum which stopped the tax increase passed by the 1959 session, served in the 1961 session where he was instrumental in stopping a similar increase by holding the line on spending programs.

Several meetings are being planned for residents of the area to discuss legislative matters of interest confronting the next session of the legislature.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Fraee, Linda and Claudia were guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Don Moffatt and Brian Moffatt. The occasion was the Fraee's wedding anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Cree spent the weekend at Redmond with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Cowden and daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Vail received word last week of the birth of their first grandson, Jeffrey Allen, born to Mr. and Mrs. Allen Vail of Fullerton, Calif. The little boy was born April 21 and weighed 9 pounds 5 ounces. Maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Ed Ostrom of Woodburn and great-grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Dell Smith of Mill City. Allen, who is a graduate of Gates High school will receive his degree in education from Orange State University in June.

Due to ill health, Mrs. Frances Swift, who has been employed in the Jerry Pittam Insurance office for the past four years, has submitted her resignation, effective June 1.

Mrs. Bonnie Whitsett, accompanied by Susan Whitsett and Laura Jo Rambo, were in Monmouth Monday evening where they attended a bridal shower for Sharon Whitsett, senior at OCE, who is to be married in September to Howard Hopkins, kins of Scio.

The Mill City Garden club will meet at Fellowship Hall Thursday, May 7 at 1 o'clock for a short business meeting. Following at 2 o'clock will be a tea and program in honor of the charter members and early members of the club.
