City Zoning Talked At Woman's Club Meeting Tuesday

The Mill City Woman's club held their first meeting Tuesday evening, at the home of Mrs. Herbert Schroeder since receiving first place in the state for Community Improvement. The prize money, a check for $300 was passed around for "inspection" and then a motion was made and passed that the money be placed in a special improvement fund in the bank.

Mrs. O. K. DeWitt was elected to serve on the budget committee for the ensuing year. Other members are Mrs. Mel Rambo and Mrs. Leo Russell.

Club members backed a petition which will be presented to the city council which will enforce certain zoning regulations in the city. The petitions will be placed where residents may sign them if they so desire.

After the business meeting which Mrs. Harry Mason conducted, Mrs. DeWitt introduced the speaker for the evening, Mark H. Astrup, landscape engineer for the state highway department. He showed colored slides to illustrate his talk.

He stated that $2 million had been spent in the past two years in highway landscaping. This both beautifies and prevents headlight glare on the freeways. It also stops the serious problem of soil erosion.

Jerry Coffman, president of the North Santiam Chamber of Commerce spoke on the cleanup campaign which the Chamber is sponsoring the morning of Sunday, May 24, date of the Fishermen's Bend park dedication.

A number of clubwomen volunteered to assist in cleaning up sections of the 16-mile strip between the golf course and the park.

Guests of the club for the evening were Mrs. Wendell Heller, Mrs. Mike Cherry, Mrs. Oletta Chudzinski, Mark Astrup, Jerry Coffman and Dick Cole. Refreshments were served.

Rainbow Installation Held Saturday Night

Installation of officers for Marilyn Assembly No. 60 Order of Rainbow for Girls was held at the IOOF hall Saturday, May 16 at 8 o'clock with Nancy Stewart installed as worthy advisor.

Others installed were Linda Duffy, associate worthy advisor; Juanita Morgan, Charity; Janeta Johnson, Hope; Willetta Malone, Faith; Sara Smith, Recorder; Reba Miller, Treasurer; Lynette Parker, Chaplain; Janice Jacobsen, drill leader; Carol Ann Ragsdale, confidential observer; Kathy Kelle, love; Marsha Worley, religion; Janie Belveal, nature; Mary Ann Michael, immortality; patriotism, protom and Sharon Berg, service.

Crowning ceremonies were by Santiam Chapter, Order of DeMolay.

Installing officers were Marilee Teller, worthy advisor; Suzy Carlson, chaplain; Lynda Parker, recorder; Janice Logan, marshal, and Ruby Brisbin, musician.

Committees included decorations headed by Juanita Morgan; program, Janeta Johnson, and refreshments, members of the Eastern Star.

The colors used in decorating the hall were red, white and blue with lovely arrangements of red American beauty roses and white stock.

Janice Gordon played two piano selections for the program.

Marilee Teller, past worthy advisor was presented her white Rainbow bible from Mrs. Don Carlson, mother advisor for the girls. The Rainbow officers also presented a drill honoring Marilee.

Among those introduced were the mother advisor, and associate mother advisor, Laurel Johnson; Floyd Johnson, worthy patron of OES; Marilee Teller, Grand Immortality; Reba Miller, Grand Choir and Past Grand Officers and Worthy Advisors.

Miss Stewart introduced members of her family including her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charley Stewart and brother, Charley, Jr. Mr. Stewart presented his daughter with a gavel for use during her term.

Out-of-town relatives present for the installation ceremonies included Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Wright and family from McMinnville; Grover S. Black and Jennie Saltalamachia from San Jose, Calif., and Mrs. Delores Stewart and daughter, Carol Dee from Portland.

Following the installation refreshments were served from the attractively decorated table with Mrs. Dave Barnhardt, Mrs. Jennie Saltalamachia and Mrs. Delores Stewart pouring.

Mrs. Bill Leaming To Head PTA

Installation of officers was the main order of business at the May meeting of the Santiam PTA with Mrs. Don Westrick, past president acting as installing officer.

Mrs. Bill Leaming will serve as the new president and Mrs. Dave Barnhardt is the retiring president.

The Rev. Gene Davidson gave the invocation and the salute to the flag was led by a group of Bluebirds.

Mrs. Leaming, Mrs. James Budlong and Mrs. James Rose attended the state PTA convention and Mrs. Rose gave the attendance report.

It was announced that the Canyon Scholarship fund had "gone over the top". The $600 goal will allow awarding two scholarships to graduating seniors.

The Rev. Donald Dishong of the Mill City Ministerial Association suggested that the meeting date of PTA be changed from the second Wednesday to the second Thursday, as there were several conflicting church activities. The motion was made and passed.

Mrs. Barnhardt thanked the room mothers who had served throughout the year and service pins were presented to Mrs. Leaming, program chairman and incoming president, and Mrs. Alice Morrison, room mother chairman.

William Lewellen, administrator of the school, gave a talk on the proposed serial levy which will be brought to a vote of the people in June.

A panel, comprised of Mabel Yankus, Donald Dishong, Wilma Shepherd and Charlene Cooper, Nadine Duggan and Carmen Barnhardt gave comments and recommendations given by the evaluation study.

Sigrun Grimstad's room was the winner of the most parents and teachers present.

John Kelly Presented In Piano Recital

Mrs. Eldon Hutchinson presented John Kelly in a piano recital Sunday, May 17 at the school music room.

John presented a complete repertoire of numbers ranging from "Fantasy" by Frederic Chopin to "Deep Purple" and "Tico-Tico".

Miss Janet Hutchinson, daughter of Mrs. Hutchinson sang two selections, Mrs. Hutchinson and John played the theme from "The Apartment" on two pianos and he played an outstanding number, the theme from "Exodus" along with a recording of the same number.

Refreshments were served by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kelly following the recital.

ket social was held with Don Carlson as auctioneer. The girls netted $41.20. Proceeds will be used by the girls who are planning to attend Grand Assembly at Corvallis June 21-23 inclusive.

The next Rainbow meeting will be May 27 with the new Worthy Advisor presiding.

Two Local Girls To Be In Dance Recital

Rebecca Savage and Sherry Marshall will participate in a dance recital at the Salem Armory on Sunday, May 24 at 2 p. m.

Proceeds from the recital will go into the student work fund at the deaf school and students doing work at the school are paid from the fund. Some youngsters are not financially able to purchase the small items they need and this helps solve that problem.

Mrs. Athol Savage said that a parents group meets at the School for the Deaf on the third Monday of each month at 8 p. m. and anyone interested is welcome to attend. Rebecca and Sherry will be selling tickets to the recital this week.

Linda Davenport Married Saturday In Mehama Church

MEHAMA — The Mehama Community Presbyterian church was decorated in pink and white for the wedding of Miss Linda Kay Davenport to Harley Hershfeldt, Saturday, May 16.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Kanoff of Lyons and the groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Al Hershfeldt of Eugene.

The 8 o'clock ceremony was performed by the Rev. Arne Magnuson, pastor of the church. Mrs. Ercill Wilson was organist and Miss Kathy Owen sang.

Mrs. Robert Rogers was matron of honor and Miss Pam Humphreys was bridesmaid. They both wore Alice blue ballerina length dresses with nylon stoles and net hats and carried nosegays of pink carnations and white rosebuds.

The bride wore a gown of white tulle with fitted bodice and long tapered sleeves and a bouffant overskirt of nylon net. Her shoulder length illusion veil was caught to a crown of seed pearls and she carried a flat arrangement of pink carnations and white rosebuds. The groom's mother wore a dark blue suit with an identical corsage of carnations and rosebuds.

A reception followed in the Fellowship room of the church. Mrs. Ivan Clason, aunt of the bride, cut the cake, Miss Sheryl Thompson served the punch and Miss Edna Keys poured the coffee.

The newlyweds are now at home in Mehama where Mr. Hershfeldt is employed at Stout Creek Lumber Co. The new Mrs. Hershfeldt is a senior at Stayton Union High.

Round Robin Pinochle Entertained at Albans

The Round Robin Pinochle club members were entertained Monday night at the home of Frances Alban, who has been a frequent guest of the club. She served a dessert before the evening of cards.

Holding a 1500 trump hand during the evening was Goldie Rambo, who was assisted in this rather unusual hand by her partner, Irene Podrabsky.

High score was won by Mrs. Podrabsky, pinochle by Margaret Boroughs and low by Frances Alban.

Guest for the evening was Wilma Moore. The next party will be June 1 at the home of Marie Stewart.

Shakesperian Festival To Open July 11th

The Oregon Shakesperian Festival opens at Ashland on Saturday, July 11 with tickets for the opening performance completely sold out.

The remaining 57 nights, closing September 6, offers a range in all three price sections, however.

Last year there were 51,020 admissions so that officials this year decided on an expansion program to honor the poet's 400th birthday.

Prior to the home stand, the Oregon event will launch Stanford University's first annual Summer Festivals of the Arts celebration by presenting 12 nights of Shakesperian on an especially constructed Elizabethan style stage.

Producing director Angus Bowmer of the Ashland company will present "The Merchant of Venice", "King Lear" and "Twelfth Night" for the Bay area audiences. Added to this program at Ashland will be "Henry VI, Part 1."

The Shakesperian Festival at Ashland is an event that many people include in their annual vacation and is a never to be forgotten experience in the amphitheatre under star-studded skies.
