

A thought for the week—"It is better to understand a little than to misunderstand a lot!"

Goodwill Industries will send their truck to Stayton on Wednesday, May 27th to collect items of clothing, furniture, appliances and other household goods. Those who wish to contribute their resalable discards are asked to call Mrs. R. G. Wood at 769-5365 who will arrange for the truck to pick up donations in the area. There still remain an acute shortage of furniture at Goodwill. Donations of household furniture, large and small, will be most appreciated.

Through a misunderstanding, the Garden Club picture and story featured in last week's Enterprise stated the lace table cloth owned by Mrs. Q. V. Miller was purchased in Red China. It came from Old China.

Mrs. Fred Gooch is confined to her home following a severe stroke. Mrs. Golda Martens is caring for her at her home. Mr. Gooch is confined to a Salem hospital by illness.

Mr. and Mrs. John MacGregor and twins spent Sunday in Beaverton visiting with friends.

Mrs. Blair Meredith and small son of Miss. arrived Wednesday to visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arvey Podrabsky. Her husband is taking specialized training at General Motors and hopes to get a position on the west coast.

Sunday afternoon Mrs. Gladys Lake and Mrs. Elsie Volkel attended the reception in Salem honoring Mrs. Agnes Booth, who is retiring July 1 as Marion County Superintendent of Schools.

Mrs. Ollie Muise and children and Mrs. Florence Timm went to Albany Tuesday to help Mrs. Bertie Slater celebrate her birthday. She is the mother of Mrs. Timm and grandmother of Mrs. Muise.

Oecil Lake and Charles Cruson spent Sunday in Portland at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Coreyell.

Mrs. Gladys Lake and Mrs. Elsie Volkel were co-hostesses at the Lake home Monday for a potluck luncheon for members of their millinery club from Salem. Attending were Mrs. Marie M. Jackson, Mrs. Clara Leendgren, Mrs. Lolita Hoadley, Mrs. Edith Shantz, Mrs. Nellie Ruhl, Mrs. Almeda Laughlin, Mrs. Bertha Holman, Mrs. Marie Newhardt, Mrs. Helen Smith, Mrs. June Moen, and the hostesses.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles DeGuire from Silverton were visitors Sunday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Badlong and daughters and S. G. Higdon. Birthday cake was served in honor of Mrs. DeGuire, who was celebrating her birthday anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Lake and Mrs. Elsie Volkel, Toni Newberg and Lisa Gabriel from Gates were in Portland Saturday afternoon where they attended the Ice Follies.

Friends will be glad to learn that James Gordon, who suffered a severe heart attack Friday, is holding his own. He is still listed in critical condition but the attending physician is hopeful of his recovery. He was taken to Salem Memorial hospital Sunday morning.

Custom Bulldozing
AL WARD
Call 897-2858 or 897-2954
"No Job Too Small!"

YOU CAN GET RELIEF FROM HEADACHE PAIN

STANBACK gives you FAST relief from pains of headache, neuralgia, neuritis, and minor pains of arthritis, rheumatism. Because STANBACK contains several medically-approved and prescribed ingredients for fast relief, you can take STANBACK with confidence. Satisfaction guaranteed!

Test STANBACK against any preparation you've ever used.
STANBACK POWDERS
10c 25c 69c 98c

CHUCKLE CORNER

"JOE AND I ARE ON A DIET. WE LOST 25 POUNDS BETWEEN US... DIDN'T WE JOE?"

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Sims from Lebanon and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Sims from Scio visited Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Flook.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Shepherd attended the Queener school reunion Sunday at the Queener school near Stayton.

Guests Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Cree were her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Wade Dickenson from Salem.

Mrs. Charles Dolezal has resigned as registrar for Linn County. Those who wish to register to vote may do so at Tom's Shell Service station.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Severs spent the weekend at the coast. Mrs. Severs started work in the Jerry Pittam Insurance office this week replacing Mrs. Clifford Swift, who resigned. Mrs. Bill Bickett assumed Mrs. Severs' position as checker at Stewart's.

Marilyn Club will meet next Tuesday, May 26 at the home of Mrs. Viola Hirte at Gates. A covered dish luncheon will be served at noon.

Bruce Gordon was called home from California by the serious illness of his father, James Gordon. His wife, Camille (Goble) Gordon and their children accompanied by her sister and family will arrive later this week.

Mrs. Frank Novak left by jet Tuesday morning for Colorado Springs where she will visit with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Jamie Baughman and await the arrival of a soon expected grandchild.

The Mill City Volunteer Fire department was called out Saturday afternoon to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bud Bilyeu when oil barrels at their home caught fire. The fire was extinguished without any damage.

Lois Hershberger has returned home after spending several months in Arizona. She visited with her brother, Darrell Hershberger who is stationed at Luke AFB and with friends. She plans on obtaining work in the Salem area soon.

Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Mitchell of Anchorage, Alaska visited last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Howell. They were enroute to Minnesota for a vacation. Mrs. Mitchell was trapped under the airport tower at Anchorage at the time of the quake and it was some time before she could be released after it collapsed. She suffered only bruises and cuts. Mr. and Mrs. Howell took them on a number of scenic drives and they thought this was a wonderful area.

Mrs. Isabelle Calkins returned recently from a visit to Tucson, Ariz., where she visited with her brother. She said she did not care for the desert and dry looking country after so many years in the "green country" of Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Shattuck of Gresham were Sunday visitors at the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Fleetwood.

Among those attending the Ice Follies at Portland last week were Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Kimmel, Mrs. John Swan, Miss Daisy Geddes and Mrs. Edith Mason.

The Studio of Hair Design, next door to Ada's Needle Shop is open Tuesday through Friday. Hours 9 a. m. to 5 p. m., Thursday 10:30 a. m. to 7:30 p. m. For appointments phone 897-2100. Betty Klutke, prop. ad

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Peterson took an enjoyable trip Sunday when they joined a group of 1250 people that took an excursion train trip from Portland to Madras, stopping at scenic spots including Round Butte dam.

A potluck supper will be held Sunday, May 24 in the new gym of the Stayton Seventh Day Adventist church honoring the Storz family who will be transferred to Waldport in July. Pastor Storz has been in charge of the church here for some time.

Mill City friends have received word that Mr. and Mrs. Bob Baltimore have moved to Coquille where he is employed in the Pacific Power & Light office. He had been working in the bend PP&L office and she worked in a bank there. The Baltimores are former longtime residents here.

Mr. and Mrs. Earle Healey of Beaumont, Calif. visited this week in Mill City. They purchased property here some time ago and plan on moving soon. They said they have been telling their California friends what a wonderful area this is.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Kleihege left last week for Kansas by train where they will visit with friends and relatives. Mr. Kleihege has been in poor health recently but has improved enough so that he looked forward to the trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Thompson have been visiting frequently with his mother, who has been hospitalized at Corvallis. The elderly lady has been quite ill but is somewhat improved at present.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Swan and Mr. and Mrs. John Swan were at Four Corners Methodist Church Sunday where they attended the 25th anniversary Reception for their niece and nephew, Mr. and Mrs. William Dunnigan.

Recent guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Swan were Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Swan and family and Mr. and Mrs. Al Smeenk and family both of Portland.

At a recent meeting of the Mill City Woman's club the group voted to donate $25.00 to the Children's Farm Home at Corvallis. The Women's Clubs of Marion county all contribute to the support of this worthy institution. Mrs. Harry Mason, Woman's Club president, said that funds were particularly needed this year.

Mari-Linn Graduation Exercises Set

LYONS—Graduation exercises for Mari-Linn will be held Tuesday evening, June 2 at 8 p. m. Gerald Wilson, chairman of the school board will award the diplomas to the 26 students.

Dr. George J. Sirmio of Salem is commencement speaker.

Kathrine Behrens is Valedictorian and Patricia Clippell, Salutatorian.

Graduate this year are Kathrine Behrens, Don Bryson, Valerie Chytka, Patricia Clippell, Brent Cole, Jim Cox, Ricky Davidson, Helen Grosso, Louis Hampton, David Holman, Jerry Kimery, Mike Kokstis, Oletta Mays, Patricia McDougall, Earl Mentze, Rodney Ramsey, Rosalie Rohwein, Katherine Schmitt, Larry Shelton, Linda Shepherd, Marsha Sledge, Richard Tinney, Coelia VanAgmael, Melvin Wainman, Connie Walker and Mary Wilson.

TV Franchise Changed by Council

The May meeting of the city council was held at the city hall with Mayor J. C. Kimmel and all councilmen present.

The franchise name of Santiam TV Cable, Inc. was changed to Santiam Vision Cable Inc.

Stop signs were authorized on Juniper street on both sides of S. W. 2nd and on the south side of Grove on S. E. 2nd.

Ron Meacham, police chief, submitted his report for April with 32 traffic violations cited to appear in court.

There was one violation of the basic rule with speed involved which was cited to the Linn County Juvenile court.

There were 21 violations of the basic rule with speed involved.

(Five failures to stop at posted intersections, two without operators license, one expired car license, one obstructed front vision, one excessive noise from mufflers, one arrest for being a minor in possession of alcohol, one juvenile referred to Linn county court for being a minor in possession of alcohol, one complaint filed with the Marion County District court for selling alcohol to a juvenile.

There were 21 complaints turned into the police and 11 of them cleared. There were 467 collected in fines with the police car patrolling 1,196 miles using 160.6 gallons of gasoline.

Frances Reid Busy Selling Whitewater Challenge Buttons

Frances Reid, Santiam High school princess in the May 30th Whitewater Challenge is busy selling buttons for the event.

These buttons are for admission to a local talent show and the coronation of the queen, which will be held at the Mill City Grade School gym later this month.

Cookies can be frozen either baked or unbaked. Baked cookies can be stored in a freezer up to 12 months; frozen dough stays fresh up to six months.

Mehama Little League to Serve Breakfast May 30

By Jean Roberts

MEHAMA—As baseball season approaches, Mehama Little League baseball players are planning to serve a breakfast to help defray baseball expenses. The boys assist with the breakfast by serving, pouring coffee, and washing dishes. At present they are selling tickets for the affair.

Mehama firemen plan to help the players cook and serve the breakfast which will be given May 30, the day of the White Water Challenge, at Mehama.

Consisting of hotcakes, nam and eggs, the breakfast will begin at 5:00 A. M. and will continue until after the White Water race.

Sky Divers Visit Queener Picnic

Three sky divers from OSU Parachute club of Albany Airport parachuted down as guests at the 32nd annual Queener Homecoming picnic Sunday May 17 at the Queener school-house south of Stayton. The men, Hugh G. Rosenberg, OSU, Don Wright, Corvallis and John E. Furrow of Hood River fell approximately 4200 feet before opening their chutes and landing closeby where they were picked up in automobiles and brought to the picnic.

Desmond Fuson, Aumsville, president of the Tri-County Transivers 2-way radio club headed the group crew.

Oldest teacher present was William H. Fuson, Aumsville, who taught from 1903 to 1909.

New officers elected were Mrs. E. T. Ware (Margaret Schaefer) of Stayton, president; Mrs. Ruth Frantz (Ruth Fuson) Salem, vice president and Mrs. Evelyn Fuson (Evelyn Kelley) Aumsville, secretary-treasurer.

Approximately 80 former students, neighbors and friends were present.

All prepared to serve breakfast May 30 are the following Mehama Little League players. Top row: left to right: Keith Hughes, John Crandall, Jeffery Pudge, Randy Rockwell, Bruce Teeters, Dale Johnson, Darrell Walz, Timmy Culberson, Mike Waltz. Bottom row: Arthur Landers, Bobby Rychar, Dale Crandall, Kenneth Olson, Rickie Crandall, Donny Wagner and Rex Longfellow.

GRAND OPENING
The Get Together Thrift Shop
Good Used Clothing and Appliances
Wednesday, May 20th
10 A. M. - 5 P. M.
Open Wednesdays Thru Saturday
FREE Coffee and Cookies
Betty Savage - Jacky Krieger
Located in Booth-Hill Bldg. on First Street
Across from U. S. Nat'l Bank

GET YOUR "BOAT" READY
FOR THE ANNUAL WHITE WATER CHALLENGE, SPONSORED BY THE NORTH SANTIAM CHAMBER OF COMMERCE ON ANYTHING GOES MEMORIAL DAY, MAY 30
You'll have a lot of fun and you may win a prize! Contestant or spectator - don't miss it!
Get Your Car Ready
... FOR SUMMER DRIVING NOW BY BRINGING IT IN TO GENE TEAGUE'S FOR A TUNE-UP!
Rid your car of cold weather weariness—we have the know-how, the tools, and the quality parts to do your job RIGHT. Timely repairs of minor troubles, periodic checkups of motor, brakes, lights, transmission, cooling and exhaust systems, protect your investment and allow you to drive a SAFE car.
Free Drawing
ON A
$500 USED CAR
NOW ON DISPLAY
All you have to do is stop in and register — Anyone who has a driver's license is eligible. No purchase necessary.
DRAWING JUNE 20
Gene Teague Chevrolet
120 W. Hollister Phone 769-2126