Hattie Kremen Talks At Women's Meet

Mrs. Hattie Kremen, former Marion County District Attorney, spoke to members and guests of the Mill City Women's Club Tuesday evening.

The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Arey Podrabsky with Mrs. Rudy Tohl and Mrs. Steven Chudzinski, co-hostesses.

Mrs. Sylvia Duncan presided at the short business meeting before the program.

Mrs. O. K. DeWitt, longtime friend of Mrs. Kremen, presented her to the group, of which she is an honorary member.

Subject of Mrs. Kremen's talk was "Laws That Pertain to Women"—dealing with these laws literally from "Cradle to the Grave."

It was interesting and also disconcerting to note that 54 out of 100 marriages in Oregon end in divorce. So much of her discussion pertained to divorce laws.

Some interesting facts were brought out regarding Wills and the necessity for having them up-dated occasionally, particularly in case of re-marriage if children are heirs.

Mrs. Kremen warned people of the current "raquet" of sales and services that is being perpetuated particularly among the gullible and older people.

Refreshments were served by the hostesses to Daisy Geddes, Helen Kimmel, Ruth Cummings, Dora Kleinhege, Marie Tolbert Edith Gruver, Marie Colton, Ann Primeau, Mary Kelly, Nadine Duggan, Hattie Kremen, Goldie Rambo, Nell DeWitt, Mable Schroeder, Lettie Swan, Virginia Miller, Sylvia Duncan, Dora Rogers, Evelyn Davis and Edith Mason.

The February meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Bert Morris.

Men To Be Invited To Valentine Party

Round Robin Pinochle club members were entertained Monday evening at the home of Irene Podrabsky with the hostess serving dessert before the three tables of pinochle were in play.

Winning pinochle was Wilma More, a guest for the evening with Rose Haywood receiving low and Evelyn Davis high prize.

There was some discussion on the Valentine party, February 13 when members will entertain their husbands. A 7:30 dinner will be held at the Highway Inn followed by an evening of cards at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arey Podrabsky.

The next meeting will be February 1 at the home of Teary Muir.

Mr. and Mrs. Jones Return from Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Jones returned recently from a three week's vacation trip to New Mexico where a holiday family gathering was enjoyed. They visited in Albuquerque with their son M/Sgt. and Mrs. Leland Jones and family. The group went from there to Artesia where the family gathering was held.

Mr. Jones visited with his father, J. H. Jones, who will observe his 95th birthday anniversary in March. The elderly man is in good health.

Mr. and Mrs. Jones made the trip down by train but were forced to return by bus from Richmond, Calif., as the trains were not running because of the recent slides.

Rosemary Freeborn, Rex Herron Married

Mrs. Rosemary Freeborn and Rex Herron were married December 31 at Reno, Nevada.

Mrs. Herron is Home Ec teacher at Santiam High school and Mr. Herron recently sold his service station at Gates. They are making their home between Gates and Mill City.

The Old Timer

Following a covered dish dinner the evening was spent informally. Surprising the couple were Mr. and Mrs. William Shafer from Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Ormy Lovell from Stayton, Mr. and Mrs. Laverne Ohrt, Mr. and Mrs. Pernal Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Peterson, Mr. and Mrs. Veryl Hoover, Mr. and Mrs. Don Carlson, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie French, Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Cree, Mrs. Elsie Volkel and Mrs. Jimmie Bevier and daughter.

Julia Cherry And Glen Shelton Wed

Mrs. Julia Cherry and Glen Shelton were married January 11 at a quiet ceremony at 11 a. m. at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Hugh Jull on Lancaster Drive in Salem.

The single ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Jull, who was formerly minister of the Mill City Christian church.

Attending the couple were Mrs. Ray Cherry of Salem, daughter-in-law of the bride and Mrs. Jull.

For her wedding the bride chose a light blue dress. She wore a small white hat and white accessories. She carried a nosegay of white carnations and pink rosebuds.

The couple spent a week at the beach south of Newport. They will make their home in Mill City.

Ben Jones Talks At PTA Meeting

The January meeting of the PTA featured a talk by Ben Jones, counselor at Santiam who spoke on his work, not only with the students but how it involves the school and parents also. He showed a film to illustrate his talk. There have been a number of tests at the school this year and Mr. Jones stated that a special aptitude test would be available to seniors for a small charge.

Mrs. William Leaming presided at the short business meeting when the PTA members voted to purchase paint to re-finish the inside of the Youth Center in the City park. The Center is used for many youth gatherings. The building is owned by the Lions club. Volunteer labor will do the painting.

The February meeting will feature Founder's Day, according to Mrs. Fred Berg, program chairman.

Room count of most parents and teachers present at the January meeting was won by Mrs. Duane Norrie's second grade room. They won the award for the second consecutive time which is a "first."

Refreshments were served at the close of the program by a group of 8th grade mothers.
