Santiam Ripples

By Sharon Rose

Try-outs for the play, "The Ghoul Friend" were held on Monday, January 11. Some of the leads will be played by Carol Blumenstein, Karen Stewart, Fred Bassett, Bill Bassett, Janeta Johnson, Phil Bumgarner, Chris Story, Melody Rosamond, Sherry Farrier and Bucky Lyons.

Wilda Wilson is the student producer and Fred Bassett is student director. Practice started this week under the supervision of Richard Ricketts.

Representatives of Santiam Memorial hospital met with the Sophomore, Junior and Senior girls last week and introduced them to the Junior Cheerette program. A volunteer will spend one evening or Saturday afternoon each month at the hospital. Her duties include serving refreshments to patients, reading to them, running errands and admitting visitors. Girls interested in the program went to the hospital for an Orientation course and tour of the hospital Thursday. There were about 20 signing for the program.

The G.A.T. B test was given to the senior class last week with the tests supplied by the state employment agency, consisting of aptitude tests and manual dexterity. These tests should help seniors know what field they would best be suited for.

The Freshmen and Juniors received their scores on the Iowa tests, taken in December. These tests measure the student's educational development.

Ben Jones, counselor, said that Santiam students compared favorably with those from other schools on a national average basis. Parents of Freshmen and Juniors will be called in to discuss the tests with Mr. Jones.

FHA girls entertained their mothers Monday evening in the Home Ec room with a dinner which they had prepared under the direction of Mrs. Rosemary Herron.

DETROIT IDANHA

Mrs. Joe Mulse, who was confined for nine days at Santiam Memorial hospital with pneumonia, returned home Monday. Kay Lang of Detroit, who was seriously injured in a logging accident last summer, has been readmitted to Santiam Memorial hospital for further treatment.

Mrs. Lynn Williamson of Idanha whose home was washed away in the Christmas week flood, reported that a two quart thermos bottle was found intact near Piety Nob by Ernest Presley.

Mr. and Mrs. Gudne Geston, who have purchased a trailer house will move to Gates this week. The Gestons, who lost two homes in the Christmas flood, have been staying at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Len Davis. The Gestons have resided in Idanha for 29 years.
