

Advertising in The Mill City Enterprise
Brings Results—Try It Every Week

Hunters!
You Can Have
$15,000 Life Insurance
and
$1,500 Medical Expenses
Caused By Accidents.
For THREE DAYS
For
$2.30
Hill Insurance Agency
J. C. Kimmel - Bud Davis, Owners
Phone 897-2660 Mill City, Oregon

HAVE YOU PHONED AHEAD FOR RESERVATIONS?

YOU'RE MORE LIKELY TO GET OUT-OF-THIS WORLD HOSPITALITY IF YOU CALL AHEAD FOR RESERVATIONS WHEN TRAVELING

Valley Telephone Co.
Serving Mill City, Aumsville,
Detroit-Idanha, Silvertown, Turner

'66 FAIRLANE

1966 Fairlane 500 XL Hardtop

America's famous family car takes on new sports-car jazz!

Fairlane's been re-invented! New styling, new performance, new models. (Same family-car dependability as always.) New convertibles! And new GT and 500/XL. Wow! New jazz is right. Come dig it!

Powered by Ford... presented by your FORD DEALER

Philippi Motor Company
1064 First Street Phone 769-2117 Stayton, Oregon

Woman's Page

Goldie Rambo, Woman's Page Editor, Phone 897-2772

Shower Given for Mrs. Donna Adkins

Mrs. Charles Golden and Mrs. Clyde Golden were hostesses at the former's home on Grove street Monday evening for a shower honoring Mrs. Donna Adkins and her baby daughter, Diane, who was born October 3. The honored guests are from Sublimity.

For entertainment the guests played baby bingo and the honored guest opened her many lovely gifts. Refreshments were then served by the hostesses.

Present were Mrs. Adkins and Dianne, Mrs. Dale Hunt, Mrs. Marion Hunt, Mrs. Catherine Hunt and Mrs. William Lensman all of Sublimity; Mrs. Bill Dye and Mrs. Bud Chappelle from Salem and Mrs. Iri Plymale, Mrs. Clyde Golden, Mrs. Gerald Golden and the hostess Mrs. Charles Golden and Debbie.

Sending gifts but unable to attend were Mrs. Eldon Hutchinson and Mrs. Guy Scott, Mrs. Verna Scott, Mrs. Robert Humphreys, Mrs. Henry Tate and Mrs. William Tate all of Sublimity.

Youth for Christ Meet Held at Gates

GATES — "Say cheese" someone said, and the roll was taken by photograph by Director Bill Wilson, when members of Gates Youth for Christ met Saturday evening in the Church of Christ fellowship room. Pictures of the previous week's roll were posted for inspection.

The business meeting was called to order by Vice President Lynn Cutsforth, in the absence of the president, Kande Henness, who was ill with the flu. The group has chosen to make pictures their project and a discussion was held on the means of obtaining cameras for each member. Pictures taken on an outing the previous Saturday were displayed. Plans for future field trips were made, including a photo trip and picnic to Breitenbush Hot Springs Sunday afternoon. The minutes were taken by Secretary Rosie Devine.

Following the worship service, refreshments of hot dogs and punch were served by Mrs. Lang Stafford.

Crowned Queen

Crowned Friday evening at Santiam High school gym to reign over Homecoming festivities was Laura Rambo. She was crowned by last year's queen, Sherry Bennett. Laura is a senior at Santiam and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mel Rambo. Members of her court were Patti Eastwood, junior princess; Vicki Rush, sophomore princess and Jeanette Herron, freshman princess.—Enterprise photo.

Lyons Garden Club Plans to Attend Show

LYONS—Virgene Scott was hostess for the October meeting of the Lyons Garden Club held Wednesday afternoon in the dining room of the Lyons Methodist Church. Each member answered to roll call by naming an unusual vegetable they had grown in their garden this year. Also each one brought a party favor they had made which was on display. Plans were discussed for those who could and care to, to attend the Mum Show to be held in Silvertown on Friday and Saturday, October 15 and 16 at the Silvertown High School. Plans were also discussed to have some form of a work shop at the next meeting on November 10.

A nominating committee of Laura Neal, Mary Crust and Virgene Scott were appointed to select officers for the coming year. Dainty refreshments were served to Margaret Mahan, Esther Danielson, Katherine Neal, Mary Crust, Gertrude Weidman, Laura Neal, Mary Fink, Helen Johnson, Evelyn Julian, Nellie Riggs, Eva Bressler, Mabel Downing and the hostess Mrs. Scott.

Local Women Visit Turner Memorial Home

Mrs. Clarence Howe, Mrs. Richard Freeman and Mrs. Patricia McClintock spent Friday at Turner where they attended the 32nd Anniversary of the Turner Memorial Home.

A dinner was served at noon at the Judith Turner Hall followed by conducted tours of the buildings, grounds, and the cottages where the couples reside.

Rev. and Mrs. Claude Stephens, who were Mill City residents a number of years ago when he was minister of the local Christian Church, reside in one of the cottages.

Rev. Norris Reasoner former Gates minister also resides at the home.

People from all parts of the state were present for the anniversary.

Sally Jenkins Given Birthday Party at Her Home Saturday

Mrs. Don Jenkins entertained at her home Saturday afternoon honoring their daughter, Sally, on the occasion of her 7th birthday anniversary.

Games were played, birthday gifts were opened and refreshments of a gaily decorated birthday cake and ice cream were served to Sally and her guests, Shelly Smith, Sue McClintock, Nancy Loveall, Kay and Bobby MacGregor, Louise Bethel, Lisa Barnhardt, Lori Levon, Sheila and Steven Bohack, Lori Elide, Sandra Hoover, Kathy Lyness, Jeanne Drynan and Sally's sister Susan who was home for the weekend from the U of O.

Colored Slides Shown at Meeting Of Woman's Club

Mrs. Steve Chudzinski entertained 17 members and one guest of the Mill City Woman's Club at her home Tuesday evening, October 19. Refreshment hostesses were Mrs. Jack Duggan and Mrs. Francis Bodeker.

For the evening's program, entertainment consisted of the showing of colored slides of Ankara, Turkey, some parts of Greece and Germany, taken in 1959 and 1960 by Mr. and Mrs. Chudzinski when he was in service there. Authentic costumes worn by the Turkish people were modeled by a member of the club.

Mrs. Sylvia Duncan presided over the brief business meeting which preceded the program. The new printed programs for the year, compiled by Mrs. Leo Russell and Mrs. J. C. Kimmel, were distributed and committees thus announced.

The report of the budget committee was presented by Mrs. Leo Russell. Mrs. C. E. Rogers invited the group to her home for the next meeting, November 16.

Announcement was made that the General Federation of Women's Clubs will observe its Diamond Jubilee (75 years) next year, with the Convention in June in Chicago.

The Marion County Federation of Women's Clubs will hold its Fall meeting on Thursday, October 28, at the Colonial House in Salem. At the Spring meeting next April Mill City will assist Mehana in entertaining the group at Mehana.

Use of Milk Extension Topic

LYONS—The first fall meeting of the Lyons Extension Unit was held Thursday forenoon at the Lyons Methodist Church. Project of the day was "Pressing Know How" with Lucille Huber and Alla Mae Bethel as project leaders. The next meeting will be November 4th due to the second Thursday being Veterans Day. Lesson for the day will be "More Ways to Use Milk" with Irene Roy and Joyce Neal the project leaders.

Attending the meeting Thursday morning were Merna Howard, Alma Olmstead, June Kokstis, Rae Music, Florence More, Shirley Stinson, Irene Roy, Gloria Shafer, Helen Shafer, Kathleen Manning, Thelma James, Lois Morgan, Alla Mae Bethel, Jean Kuhn, Eleanor LaMunyan, Helen Johnston Lucille Huber, Clara Rohwein and Johanna Rohwein.

Dairy Products Feature At Extension Meeting

Sour Cream and Cottage Cheese, Keys to Use, Calories, Nutritive Value will be the topic when members of the Santiam Canyon Home Extension Unit meet at 10 a. m. October 28 at the Gates Clubhouse. Instead of the usual potluck lunch, a meal using various cheese dairy products will be provided by project leaders, Mrs. Wilma Bumgarner and Mrs. Jeanne Rosamond.

A small fee will be asked of each present to cover cost of the luncheon.

In the afternoon, Mrs. Catherine Turnidge will give a demonstration on the arrangement of dried floral material. Those wishing to may bring their own material for instruction and practice following the demonstration.

400 Jacks and Trump Feature at Card Party

The Round Robin Pinochle club members were entertained Monday evening at the home of Alta Moffatt with a dessert served before cards were played. Lora Mason of Salem was a guest for the evening. Mrs. Moffatt received high score, Marie Stewart, pinochle and Ruth Tohl the consolation prize.

An unusual hand was held during the evening by Frances Alban who had 400 jacks along with her trump suit.

The next party will be November 1 at the Teary Muir home.

Presbyterians To Have Potluck Dinner Saturday Night

Members and friends of the Presbyterian Church are being invited to a potluck dinner at Fellowship hall this Saturday night at 6:30 o'clock. Purpose of the dinner is to enable those interested to meet Rev. and Mrs. James Murray and their family. Rev. Murray has been asked here as a candidate for the position of pastor of the Mill City Church, and this will give them and the congregation a chance to meet.

Rev. Murray will bring the sermon at the Church this coming Sunday.

Guest Night Observed At Bid or Bunch Party

It was "guest night" Monday evening when two guests received prizes at the Bid or Bunch Pinochle club party held at the home of Hattie Fenel. Marlena Severs received high prize and Shirley Pearce, pinochle. Another guest for the evening was Alma Stewart. Gladys Podrabsky received the low prize. Mrs. Fenel served dessert before pinochle was in play.

The next party will be held at the home of Nadine Duggan November 1.

Student Book Fair Set for Detroit

DETROIT-Idanha — The Detroit-Idanha Public Schools will sponsor a student book fair October 27 and 28th between the hours of 9:00 A. M. to 3:00 P. M. Scheduled hours for PTC viewing will be 7:30 to 9:30 P. M. October 27th. Books will be displayed in the main hallway.

The book fair committee invites all students, parents and visitors to attend the fair. It is hoped the fair will not only help spur student interest in reading and building home libraries, but will also contribute to a worthwhile project. The school earns 20% of all sales, and profits will be used for purchasing play equipment and library books for individual classrooms.

Several room mothers will be helping the students at the book fair, with Mrs. Joyce Retnke, Elementary Principal, serving as book fair chairman.

The display will include attractive new books from many publishers in all popular price ranges. All reading area's of interest to students will be represented, including classics, fiction, biographies, adventure stories, science, nature, crafts, mystery and reference books. Wonderful books to read or to give as a gift.

The committee is working with Education Reading Service, a professional book fair company, to furnish an individual selection of books for the fair.

Parent Teachers Club meeting will be held in the school library at 7:30 P. M. on Wednesday, October 27th.

Stork Shower Honors Mrs. Carolyn Gardner

DETROIT—The home of Mrs. Carolyn Gardner was the scene for a "stork shower" Tuesday night honoring Mrs. Marianne Levering. Co-hostess was Edlie Colman.

A boy, Mark Thomas, was born Sept. 26th to Mr. and Mrs. Tom Levering who reside at the Ranger Station. Mark has a little five year old sister Judy, who began kindergarten this year.

Refreshments were served to Mrs. Yvonne Hills, Myrna Ketchum, Karen Galdabini, Linda Galdabini, Betty Dean, Jessie Jones, Arlene Marty, Bertha Kubesh, Elaine Parker, Marge Wagner and Sharon Harrison, Mill City. Others unable to attend sent gifts.

DETROIT IDANHA

By Boots Champion
Mrs. Vern Bugreen of Idanha was admitted to Santiam Memorial Hospital in Stayton Monday for medical attention.

Finley Hays of Sedro Wooley, Wash., Editor of the Logger World, was a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Oja while here on business last week.

The Cub Scouts, sponsored by the P. T. C. will hold no more meetings this year unless den mothers can be found to carry on with the duties of the Cub Scout program. Mrs. Carolyn Gardner said, Monday. She said there are at least ten eligible boys in each of the 34 and 5 grades, and that four den mothers are needed to carry on with Cub Scout work. Anyone interested in this worthwhile program is asked to contact Mrs. Gardner by calling 854-3452.

Mrs. Edward Humphrey of Detroit left last week for a three week visit with relatives in North Carolina. Her mother, 75 years young will return home with her for an extended visit here.

Mrs. Ronald Galdabini returned home Monday following several days hospitalization in a Salem Hospital with a kidney infection.

Jr. E. Williamson of Idanha suffered an apparent heart attack Friday morning while on a hunting trip. His brother Dale Williamson took him to Lebanon Memorial hospital, where his condition is reported as improved. Mrs. Williamson said Monday he is still in an oxygen tent, and that following a bad night Saturday, he is now resting easier.

Ronald Leming, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Leming of Idanha, received an invitation from Uncle Sam, to report in Portland Tuesday for his physical. Miss Donna Brown and Ronald's wedding was solemnized at the Idanha Community Church the latter part of September.

Mrs. Jim Gray of Portland returned home Saturday following a few days visit at the home of her parents, the Gordon Browns. Mrs. Gray is a twin sister of Mrs. Leming and is also a September bride.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hiebert of Idanha, who will observe their 25th wedding anniversary Sunday, October 24th, cordially invited their friends through the press to their home between the hours of 1:00 and 5:00 p. m. in observance of the occasion.

Folks, don't forget the American Legion Auxiliary (Post 141) dance Saturday night, October 23rd at Detroit City Hall. Farrow's band will furnish the music and refreshments will be served. Tickets may be obtained at most of the business houses in Idanha and Detroit, and from Legion Auxiliary members. A drawing on a 12 inch portable TV set will highlight the dance. Proceeds will go to purchase Christmas treats for the children in the community. See you there.

WHY DON'T YOU SUBSCRIBE TO THE ENTERPRISE.

Sparky says:

If your clothing catches fire, don't run . . . Roll on floor or ground . . . Smother with coat or blanket

Don't give fire a place to start!

FLOWERS PLANTS GIFTS

Fenton Art Glass Goblets and Sherberts in the Thumb Print Pattern.

Start your set now.

Brunner's Flowers
Open 8 a. m. to 7 p. m.
Phone 897-2452
320 NE 4th St. Mill City

