

FROM OUR FILES

Five Years Ago

A crowd estimated at 500 had turned out for the Mill City Elementary school Christmas program — with many complimentary remarks about the outstanding event. Clyde Morgan was in Santiam Memorial hospital recovering from injuries received in a pick-up accident that week.

At Detroit, Kenneth Fry, Russel Rice and Wayne Wright were elected to serve on the city council.

At Mehama the D. L. Teeters home was the setting for a large gathering at Christmas time.

Orville Hayward had lost his Gates home by fire during Christmas week.

The extra large issue of The Enterprise that week was filled with holiday greetings from merchants in the area and with many happy family gatherings.

Ten Years Ago

At Stayton Gene Teague had a new $50,000 building to house his Chevrolet agency and garage.

Lettie Swan had been elected to serve as president of the Three Links club for the ensuing year. Eva Duffy was the retiring president.

Mrs. Olivette Roles had started an adult sewing class with the classes held at Fir Manor.

The Santiam Shiner's Club had a dinner meeting at Chuck's Fine Foods east of Mill City. Ken Golliet was master of ceremonies for the evening.

Mrs. Albert Millsap had broken her leg in a fall at her home. She was then the Gates correspondent for The Enterprise.

A picture to make one feel old—on the front page were members of the kindergarten class who had participated in a Christmas program—and now they are in high school. Among them were Kathy Dugan, Craig Shaw, Pat Kelly, Peggy Cooper, Monte Lalack, Terry Hansen, Steve Pearce, and Terry Jacobson.

Fifteen Years Ago

Playing at the Mill City theatre that week was, appropriately enough, "Holiday Affair," starring Robert Mitchell and Janet Leigh.

Mrs. Bob Veness had been surprised that week with a baby shower with Mrs. George Veteto, Mrs. George Steffy, Mrs. Lowell Stiffler, Mrs. Ed Goschie and Mrs. Jack Colburn hosting the affair.

Mr. and Mrs. George Laird had left for California as Lt. Laird had been called into the service for active duty.

Dr. and Mrs. David Ferguson had left for a vacation trip to California to visit with relatives.

Santiam Valley Grange members had a very festive Christmas party at the grange hall.

The Bill Eliason family of Albany had spent the weekend in town visiting with friends. They were former residents.

A September wedding is planned by the couple.

Marie Stickney presided at her last meeting as noble grand for the current term at Santiam Rebekah lodge Wednesday evening. Juanita Emerson will be installed as the newly elected noble grand Saturday.

District Deputy President, June Bartow, presented Carmel Barnhardt and Marie Stickney with seats of perfection.

Qualifying for their offices as noble grand and vice-grand were Mrs. Emmerson and Mrs. Irene Lewin, by giving unwritten work and the charges of the degree.

Mrs. Stickney appointed a committee to meet with the Oddfellows to get estimates on a new carpet for the main room of the lodge hall. Those serving are Blanche Syverson, Ann Primeau and Carmel Barnhardt.

January 15 was the date set for the joint installation of officers of Santiam Rebekah lodge and IOOF No. 144, who will also join with the Stayton and Turner officers for installation ceremonies at the lodge hall in Stayton.

Woman's Society Delivers Toys to Fairview Home

DETROIT — Mrs. Barbara Whitely, president of the Woman's Missionary Society, reported this week that the society delivered 167 gift wrapped toys to the children at Fairview Home at Christmas time. Each child also received a bag of homemade cookies from the society.

All of the toys, many of which showed little wear, were donated to the society by Canyonites, said Mrs. Whitely.

Used clothing is still very much needed to carry on with mission work and anyone wishing to contribute these articles may do so by contacting Mrs. Whitely at Detroit Lake Resort, or call 854-3423.

OREGON DEPARTMENT OF EMPLOYMENT NEWS

(Note: This column is written weekly and published by this newspaper as a public and educational service. If you have questions with regard to the Oregon State Employment Service, and for Unemployment Insurance, please address the Oregon Dept. of Employment, attn. Informational Representative, 402 Labor and Industries Building, Salem, Oregon 97310.)

Question: What were the estimated average unemployment tax rates by industry for 1965?

Answer: The average tax rate for all industries was 1.91 percent. For agriculture, forestry and fishing it was 2.07 percent; for mining, 2.21 percent; construction, 2.34 percent and all manufacturing 2.06 percent. In the manufacturing categories, the tax varies by the type of manufacturing, as follows: canning and preserving, 2.65 percent; other food products, 1.89 percent; lumber and wood products, 2.20 percent; paper and allied products, 1.62 percent; primary metals, 1.94 percent; fabricated metals, non-electrical machinery and transportation equipment, 1.96 percent and other manufacturing 1.79 percent.

Transportation and utilities industry average tax is 1.63 percent with transportation at 1.85 percent and utilities at 1.34 percent. Trade unemployment tax averages 1.78 percent with wholesale at 1.66 and retail trade at 1.85 percent.

The finance, insurance and real estate industry average U. I. tax is 1.45 percent and service and miscellaneous at 1.77 percent. Thus canning and preserving, a seasonal industry, is paying the highest U. I. tax at 2.65 and the utilities industry the lowest. During 1965 the unemployment tax ranged from 1.2 percent for the low-cost employers to 2.7 percent. More than one-third of all nearly 40,000 employers paying unemployment taxes in Oregon had no charges whatsoever against their tax accounts and more than 15,000 paid the lowest rate in 1965.

Santiam Ripples

By Juanita Morgan

Group pictures of the school organizations were taken on Wednesday, January 5 for the annual. Confusion was high as classes were interrupted and people were changing clothes as many as six times for the different organizations.

On Saturday, January 8 the basketball team and a bus of spectators trekked to Elmira for a non-league basketball game. Santiam clipped Elmira 63-54. The buses left at 2:45 and 4:00 respectively and returned home around 1:45 a. m. Sunday. The highlight of the trip for the team, statisticians, and managers was a free dinner furnished by the Student body. The dinner was enjoyed and greatly appreciated. The trip also was reportedly great fun.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

January 5, 1966
Mill City Enterprise:
We would like to bring to the attention of all your readers that the City of Lyons has changed some of our speed limits; to better facilitate the flow of traffic. From the east city limits (near Bassett's Welding Shop) down to and including the turn west of the Post Office is designated a 35 M. P. H. zone. This was to help relieve the congestion at shift change and to give our truckers a break.
We hope your readers realize that this is a jump of 10 M. P. H. and will understand we will have to enforce this new speed limit diligently for safety reasons.
Thanks to the Lyons City Council for this change and may they and all your readers have a Happy and Prosperous New Year.
