Capt. David Goode Married In Eugene

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Kelly spent part of last weekend in Eugene where they attended the wedding of Capt. David Edmund Goode, U. S. Army, and Gerlinde Kammerer, formerly of Germany, but more recently of Santa Barbara, Calif.

The marriage took place on Saturday afternoon, July 16, at the Central Presbyterian Church in Eugene, with the reception following in the church parlors. Rev. Walter Grey officiated at the rites, a portion of which were repeated in German.

Mary Lee VanStokkum of Eugene, sister of the bridegroom, was matron-of-honor and one of the soloists at the ceremony, as was her voice instructor, Helen Hunter. Bridesmaid was Sharon Goode (Mrs. William) of Seattle, Wn.

Serving as best man for his brother was William Goode of Seattle, while the other attendant was Anton VanStokkum of Eugene.

Mrs. Kelly assisted in serving the wedding cake at the reception. On Friday evening, the Kellys were among about 30 invited guests at the rehearsal party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Don Goode, parents of the bridegroom. A buffet supper was served on the patio.

Following a honeymoon trip of about a week, the newlyweds plan to spend a few days in Mill City at the home of the groom's grandfather, Edmund Bertram. Later they will drive to Fort Leavenworth, Kansas, where Capt. Goode is to report for duty by August 17 and will attend a 9-month military school.

Five Canyon Girls Attending Camp Fire Girls Camp

Five Canyon area girls are among those attending the third session of camping at the Camp Fire Girls camp, Camp Kilowan. The girls are taking part in all the camp activities which are centered around the theme for the week, "Mardi Gras." Kilowan campers participate in cook-outs, swimming, hiking, singing, and a variety of their unit activities. Approximately 156 girls from Benton, Linn, Marion, Polk and Yamhill counties, and girls from out-of-states are attending Kilowan this week.

Canyon area campers include Jean Ann Braly, Wanda Blackburn, Diana Blackburne, Linda Oakland, and Cathryn Wright.

The Camp Fire Girls office, at 2555 State St., in Salem, is still accepting registration for the sixth session, "Sound of Music," held July 31 to August 6; and for the seventh session, "Land of the Luau," held August 7-August 13. Blue Birds and Camp Fire Girls, as well as non-members, may register for a week of fun and friendship at Camp Kilowan, located out of Falls City, Oregon. The camp is owned and operated by the Willamette Council of Camp Fire Girls of which the Canyon area is a part.

Calvary Lutheran To Have Ground Breaking Ceremony

Ground-breaking service for the new sanctuary of Calvary Lutheran Church, Stayton, will be held at the church site, Fern Ridge Road and North First Streets, Stayton, Sunday, July 24, 11:00 a.m.

The congregation is presently worshipping in the Seventh-day Adventist building, 610 Fern Ridge Road, Stayton. A short service will be held there at 10:30 a.m. before the ground-breaking service.

The new church building will seat about 215 people in the nave and choir loft. It will accommodate church offices, mother's room, on the ground level and a fellowship hall, educational area in the daylight-type basement.

Calvary Lutheran Church organized in 1946 in Marion now has 204 baptized members, many of whom are living in the Mill City-Gates area. Its pastor is the Rev. Paul Emmel who was installed in 1965 when the congregation relocated to the Stayton area.

The public is invited to attend its regular 10:30 a.m. services.

Grand Master of Masons to Attend Outdoor Meeting

Wilbur A. Willborn, Grand Master of Masons in Oregon will be in attendance when the Masonic Lodges of Salem hold their Annual Outdoor Meeting July 30.

Several other high officials of the Order are expected to be present when the meeting convenes at 2:30 P. M. on the Frank Meeker Ranch some 13 miles Northwest of Salem in the Polk County hills.

Members of the Demolay will furnish guide service to the site from the west end of the Marion Street bridge.

Entertainment is being provided by the Shrine Band from Portland with refreshments to be provided by the Salem Lodges following adjournment.

Earl A. Wiper, General Chairman for the event reports that all committees are functioning and in case of inclement weather arrangements have been made to move the meeting to the Scottish Rite Temple on South Commercial Street.
