MEHAMA BOWLING

By Mrs. John Teeters
Dinner guests Friday evening of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Cooper were Mr. and Mrs. Bob Bobbilet of West Linn. The Bobbilets had just returned from a successful hunting trip in Eastern Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Hollinger of Castle Rock, Wn., visited during the weekend with his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. George Robinette and Kay with his brother's family, the Steve Hollingers.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Rogers moved during the weekend to Salem where he is employed. Mr. and Mrs. Mike Bloom and daughter are now living in the house vacated by the Rogers.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Crook were dinner guests Saturday evening of his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Seamster in Salem.

A community pot luck supper is being planned for Thursday evening, October 27 at the Mehama church. The 6:30 pot luck will be held in the Fellowship room and anyone in the area is cordially invited to attend.

Don Semolke returned to Portland Sunday evening after spending part of the weekend here. He will be receiving more treatment and tests at the Veteran's hospital where he has been for about 10 days.

Overnight guests last Wednesday of Mr. and Mrs. Julius Titze were her nephew and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Shipley of Oxnard, Calif. Mr. and Mrs. Titze went to their cabin on the Metolius river last Friday and returned home on Saturday.

Police Blotter

October 17—
A 15-year-old girl was taken into custody by Mill City Police today and lodged in Juvenile Detention charged with being a runaway. The girl was currently on probation at home for running away two weeks before.

October 19—
A Gates man was arrested by Mill City Police today on a Marion County district court warrant charging him with pointing a firearm at another. He was released to Sheriff's Deputies and is held under $1,000 bail. He was identified by Mill City Police as Robert C. Depner of Gates.

October 21—
Veryl W. Hoover of Mill City reported to police today that someone has been throwing rocks at his house. Mill City police are investigating the case, and believe there may be a connection with a complaint from Isabell A. Calkins of 170 SE Hazel who complains of a similar incident and also received phone calls where no one will answer.

October 22—
A Gates man was arrested today by Mill City Police on a charge of driving under the influence and driving with a suspended operator's license. He is being held in Mill City jail under $450 bail. He was identified by Jim Taylor as Ruglas Lanterman, 39.

October 23—
Mill City police were called at 1 a. m. by Mrs. Launa Fisher, who said her baby had sustained a fall and required medical attention. Police assisted her in getting to the hospital.

Chief Jim Taylor said today that the patrol vehicle is now equipped with a respirator similar to that carried in the fire trucks. Officers will be trained in its use by qualified personnel.

OBITUARIES

MRS. ROBERT L. VOGT

Funerals services were held Friday at the Virgil T. Golden Chapel in Salem at 1 p. m. for Mrs. Robert L. (Hildegard) Vogt, former resident of this area.

Mrs. Vogt was born in Germany and came to the United States in 1957 where she married Robert L. Vogt. She was 44 years old.

Mrs. Vogt passed away on Tuesday in a Portland hospital of an apparent heart attack following surgery. She had been in the hospital for a month where she was being treated for cancer.

She was a member of the Mill City Christian church. Rev. Maurice Thompson, minister of the First Christian church in Salem officiated at the service in Salem and interment was at 3 p. m. Friday at the Willamette National cemetery. Her husband was her only survivor.
