Mr. and Mrs. Percy Mulligan met his brother and wife, the Otto Mulligans of Portland, in Salem Saturday and the two couples motored to Klamath Falls where they were the overnight guests of the Otto Mulligan's daughter. They went on to Reno Sunday for a day and night, going on then to San Jose, where the Otto Mulligans will be spending Thanksgiving with another daughter and her family. The Percy Mulligans continued on to Redondo Beach to spend the holiday with their son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Kruse. Mrs. Mulligan plans to enter a California hospital for a checkup after Thanksgiving. They expect to be gone several weeks.

Friday visitors at the home of Mrs. Lang Stafford were her brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Myers of Elkhorn. Mrs. Myers, who received a broken arm in a fall recently, is getting along fine. The accident occurred while her husband was in Eastern Oregon elk hunting.

Mrs. Lang Stafford called on her sister-in-law, Mrs. Alice Thacker of Mill City Monday. Mrs. Thacker is ill at her home.

Gael Cutsforth returned Sunday from a 10-day elk hunting trip in the Wallowa Mountains. His companions were D. C. Henry and Harry Blanchard of Salem and Richard and Ross Chrz of Gervais. The group encountered bad weather, but had moderate luck in spite of it, bringing home a cow elk.

The Trail Seekers CampFire Girls met Tuesday afternoon at the Mill City grade school. The girls made get-well cards for shut-ins at Santiam Memorial hospital.

A dinner guest Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Barnhardt was David Vernon of Northwest Christian College at Eugene. Mr. Vernon delivered the morning sermon at the Gates Church of Christ and will be serving that church for the next several weeks.

Gene Jacobson and John Wills spent Sunday goose hunting in Eastern Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. Gunter Cline and Doug and their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Tourville and family of Salem, were Sunday dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Grant.

Doug Cline was among those getting deer over the weekend on the special hunt.

Mrs. Fritzie Ward and Mrs. Hazel Devine enjoyed a day in Salem Saturday, visiting friends and doing some shopping.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Cornell have returned to California for the winter due to illness in the family. They hope to return in the spring.

Sunday dinner guests at the home of Mrs. Bessie Novak were her daughter and granddaughter, Mrs. Marie Herron and Dinah Herron and a friend from Salem and Mrs. Janis Baughman and two children of Mill City.

Mrs. Verna Hunziker and Mrs. Julia Stoffel of Portland spent Friday to Sunday visiting at the homes of relatives, the George Staffords, the Dave Barnhardts and Richard and Oscar Nystrom.

Mrs. Bob Blumenstein and Carol visited Saturday in Salem at the home of Mrs. Blumenstein's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Bonnet. Mrs. Bonnet is convalescing from a recent stroke. Bob Blumenstein and Carol's fiancé, Pete Brundige, joined the ladies in the evening for dinner and a movie in Salem.

A guest all last week at the Fred Stone residence was his sister-in-law, Mrs. Marion Stone of Tacoma.

There used to be a furnace here
[Then they switched to electric heat]

Say goodbye to that obsolete flame-type furnace and all its bulky pipes and flues, when you switch to flameless electric heat. No wonder 64% of all new homes and apartments built last year in a five-state area we serve chose electric heat. It's a big value from Pacific Power.
