Police Blotter

November 9—
Mill City Police were called to the scene of disturbance at Brawner's apartments tonight. However on arrival everything was quiet.

An Aumsville man was taken into custody by Mill City police tonight and charged with driving under the influence. Officer Les White arrested Maurice P. Riley 28, of Aumsville after he ran off the road at SW Linn Place and Broadway streets causing considerable damage to city street property. He was lodged in the Mill City jail under $300 bail. He was additionally cited for not having a driver's license. A check with the Department of Motor Vehicles by police shows he has never had a license.

November 11—
Mill City police took into custody a 16-year-old youth today for the McLaren School for Boys at Woodburn. Chief Jim Taylor said the youth had left the state without authority, and committed a felony in California then returned to Oregon. He was transported to McLaren where he was held.

A 34-year-old housewife reported to Mill City police today that she had been raped. The victim stated she had accepted a ride home with a man and that he had driven her to a lonely spot and attacked her repeatedly. It was not immediately known where the incident occurred, as the woman was badly shaken up.

November 12—
The Mill City Police department conducted a bicycle safety program today and 22 children participated with their bikes. Films were shown afterwards. All who attended received certificates showing they had passed the course.

They were: Tommy Kanoff, Douglas Lewellen, Brian Jones, Robby Taylor, Douglas Taylor, Steven Maxson, James Rose, Randy Moberg, Guy Wettergreen, Craig Crook, Greg Eide, Rocky Steiner, Gordon Plotts, Douglas Gruver, Floyd Peterman, Darell Plotts, Gary Plotts, Dick Gruver, Gary Moberg, David Plotts, Jerry Payseno, and Mark Peterman.

Chief Taylor said another school will be held in early December. Vern Peterman assisted with the training.

November 12—
Mill City Police arrested a 22-year-old Stayton man here today and charged him with being drunk in public. He was lodged in jail under $50 bail. Chief Jim Taylor said William J. McCollom was arrested by Officer Les White after White had been informed of a disturbance at the Highwayman Inn and told that McCollom was headed for Mill City. White made the arrest after being notified on the police phone.

I wish to thank the voters of Mill City for their support of my candidacy for a position on the City Council of Mill City. I assure this was greatly appreciated and I will do my best to merit your confidence in me.

Its new look is just one nice thing about the
'67 Chevy pickup

'67 Fleetside Pickup

THERE ARE LOTS OF OTHERS.
For instance, new durability: New sheet metal construction discourages rust. Eliminates exposed joints on cargo box and tailgate. Provides self-washing wheelhousings with special splash shields. Inner cab is specially treated against rust.
Also, added comfort, safety and convenience: Improved visibility all around. Dual master cylinder brake system. Telescoping lower steering shaft. Energy-absorbing instrument panel. Interior color-keyed to go with exterior paint. One-hand tailgate latch.
And extra strength: Full-depth double-wall side panels (Fleetside models). Double-wall steel in cab roof and other important areas.
Plus famous Chevrolet truck features: Independent Front Suspension that gives a smooth ride—like a car. The most popular truck 6's and V8's. (And there are lots more, as your Chevrolet dealer will show you.)

Thanksgiving
Dear Friend and Customer:
Somewhere between the football games and feasting, we all need to take time to consider how fortunate we really are.
For myself, and those working with me, the result is gratitude for the consideration and cooperativeness you have extended thru the year. May this Thanksgiving be a happy one for you, your family and friends.
Sincerely,
Mel Eide
