Phyllis Rowland Weds Dick Ricketts

Phyllis Mae Rowland became the bride of Richard Douglas Ricketts on Friday, November 25 at the Woodland Chapel in Salem at 2 o'clock.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. William Church of Auburn, Ill. She was unable to attend the wedding because of illness in the family.

Mr. Ricketts is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Ricketts of Rose Lodge. The Rev. Raymond Lilley performed the ceremony and the honor attendant was Mrs. Carl Martin with Carl Martin best man for the groom. They are from Livermore, Calif.

The bride wore a honey beige knit suit for the afternoon ceremony, with gold accessories. She wore an orchid corsage.

The honor attendant wore a red suit with white accessories and her corsage was of pink roses.

Playing the wedding music was Mrs. Don Sheythe of Mill City.

For her son's wedding Mrs. Ricketts wore a gold toned suit and her corsage was made of yellow roses.

Following the wedding there was a reception at Holiday Inn at Salem with the bride's table centered with a wedding cake trimmed with yellow roses.

Following the wedding trip to Portland the young couple are now at home in Mill City where the groom is a teacher at Santiam High school and the bride will commute to Eugene where she teaches blind students.

Rita Savage Married in Ceremony at Ft. Lewis

Mr. and Mrs. Athol Savage are announcing the marriage of their daughter, Miss Rita Savage to Sgt. Richard D. Brown on Thursday, November 10 at Ft. Lewis, Wn.

Chaplain Edward D. Mauchetti performed the marriage rite and the young couple are now living near the base at 12805, 47th Ave. S. W. Tacoma. They will leave February 17 for Buffalo, N. Y., where Mr. Brown will join the family business in that city.

The former Rita Savage was a 1966 graduate of Santiam High school and attended Salem Tech prior to her marriage. She is presently taking Airplane stewardess training in Washington.

Degree Conferred at Eastern Star Meeting

Marilyn Chapter No. 145 OES held a special meeting Monday evening. Receiving the degrees of the order was Mrs. Leola Delker of Gates. Mrs. Jack Gulliford acted as courtesy candidate.

Mrs. Fern Shuey was presented her 25-yearpin by Mrs. Leora Stevens. She was also presented a corsage from her husband and son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Que Haines from Portland.

Refreshments were served by the line officers.

The next regular meeting will be December 12 at 8 p.m. This will be Friendship night with several other chapters invited to attend.

There will be a gift exchange and a silent auction with proceeds to go for the Estar and Home Endowment funds.

Carol Blumenstein Weds L. Brunidge

GATES—Mr. and Mrs. Robert Blumenstein are announcing the marriage of their daughter, Carol to Lornia Dale Brunidge. The wedding took place in Salem, Wednesday, November 23. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lornia D. Brunidge of Salem.

After spending Thanksgiving day with his family in Salem, the newlyweds left on a honeymoon trip south along the coast. They will be at home in Gates after December 2. He will be associated with Mill City Builders.

A wedding reception will be held for the couple at 2 p.m. Saturday, December 3 at the Mill City Christian church. Friends and relatives are invited through the press to attend. The bride's parents will be hosts for the reception.
