A thought for the week.—“A child enters your home and makes so much noise for 20 years you think you can hardly stand it—then departs, leaving the house so silent you think you will go mad.”

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Cree of Redmond are the parents of their first child, a son, born November 29 at a Redmond hospital. The little boy weighed seven pounds and 6 1/2 ounces and has been named Scott James. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Paul Cree of Mill City and Mr. and Mrs. Herman Schillings of Orofino, Idaho. This is the first grandson for Mr. and Mrs. Paul Cree, although they have two granddaughters, so they are pretty proud, too.

Recent guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Drynan and family were her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wayman Maurer, her sisters, Sally and Pat Maurer of Salem and her uncle Frank Andrews of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kelly were in Salem Saturday where they attended a Postmaster's conference and Christmas party. He is president of the tri-county Postmaster's Association. The Kelly's took a decorated Christmas tree to the party.

Mrs. John Swan entertained Sunday with a dinner honoring her husband on his 80th birthday anniversary. Others attending were Mrs. Blanche Smeenk and son and Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Swan and family of Portland and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Swan and sons of Mill City. Calling later in the afternoon were Mr. and Mrs. Jim Swan.

Mr. and Mrs. Herb Schroeder accompanied their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Schroeder of Salem to Crescent City, Calif., recently where they enjoyed a family gathering at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Darrel Schroeder and family. Also attending were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Schroeder, former Mill City residents.

Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Steve Champ were Mr. and Mrs. Dale Champ of Mehama, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bruce of Albany.

Recent guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Sorensen were their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Crippen of Pasco and their granddaughter, Dianne Warren and son, Michael, of Seattle and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Farnen and family of Albany.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Moffatt were dinner guests in Salem Thursday evening of Mrs. Jay Mason. Mrs. Mason had spent Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. Glen Blegen at The Dalles who brought her back to Salem and spent a few days there.

Police Blotter

November 30—
A collision hospitalized a Mill City man, and slightly injured a Mill City woman here today in rain slick weather. Chief Jim Taylor said a pickup truck driven by Clyde Morgan collided with a vehicle being driven by Josephine Whitsett at the corner of 1st and Wall. Morgan was cited for failure to yield the right of way. He was taken to Santiam Memorial hospital and treated for rib and possible spleen injury. Mrs. Whitsett went to a doctor for a leg injury. Both are in satisfactory condition. Damage to both vehicles was moderate.

December 1—
Axel T. Anderson of Mill City, who had been charged by Mill City police with driving under the influence was convicted here today in Municipal court by a jury trial. Judge Sheythe sentenced Anderson to pay a fine of $255, five days in jail, and a 90-day suspension of his driving privileges. Anderson appealed to the circuit court.

A Mill City man was arrested here on December 4 and charged with failure to leave name and address at the scene of an accident. Officer Les White said Alfred H. Thomas plead guilty in Municipal court Monday night. Thomas struck a Forest Service vehicle on that date and fled the scene. He was arrested minutes later by Mill City Police. He was fined $105 and given five days in jail, which was suspended.

For the second time in about a week Mill City residents were without power due to an accident involving a motor vehicle striking a power pole at 1st and Broadway. On December 4 a car driven by Louisa G. Kalani of Mill City struck the power pole causing an interruption in service for about three hours. She was cited by Mill City Police for not having her car under control and sent to Santiam Memorial hospital for face cuts. She was later released.

Mill City police cautioned citizens this week to be careful when driving on rain or ice-slick streets. There have been 15 accidents on Mill City streets so far this year.

MEHAMA

Mrs. John Teeters
Mr. and Mrs. P. N. Hughes returned home December 3 from a two week's visit to Austin, Texas where they were called by the serious illness of her father, Smith Thompson. They visited a short time on the way home with Mr. Hughes' cousin, Dr. and Mrs. James R. Pine and family at Holloman AFB, New Mexico.

Work Smarter . . . Not Harder

All Is Not Rosy for Newlyweds — Young marrieds should expect some marital conflict, says Ermina Fisher, Marion County Extension Agent. Studies indicate that contrary to popular opinion, the first year of marriage is not the happiest. Mrs. Roberta Frasier, Extension Family Life Specialist at OSU says that conflict is normal for newlyweds because they have to work out a routine and a way of living together. Even those couples who come from very similar family backgrounds discover that each family had a certain way of coping with everyday living. Another source of conflict comes when each individual tries to remain a separate person at the same time the couple is trying to become a unit or working team.
