Many Take Part in World Day of Prayer At Ceremony Friday

An impressive message was brought by the Rev. John Elmore of the Lyons Methodist church for the observance of World Day of Prayer at the United Presbyterian Church here Friday afternoon. For his topic, he chose the title "Hands," speaking chiefly of the many functions of the hands of women, including their possible influence on destiny, then leading up to the hands of Christ. Those who attended the service felt it to be inspirational.

In charge of the program was Mrs. Earl Loucks, president of the Presbyterian's Women's Association, with Mrs. James Murray leading the hymns and Mrs. Gene Davenport playing the organ. A vocal solo was sung by Mrs. William Shepherd. The invocation was given by Rev. James Murray.

Others assisting in the observance, and representing various churches in the community, included Mrs. Charles Kelly, Mrs. Arlo Tuers, Mrs. J. C. Kimmel, Mrs. Clyde Rogers, Mrs. John Swan, Mrs. Lang Stafford, Mrs. Homer Gallion, Mrs. John Stroschine, Mrs. Donald Dishong, Mrs. William Shepherd, Mrs. John Elmore, Mrs. Murray, and Mrs. Loucks.

At the conclusion of the program, a reception was held in Fellowship Hall where light refreshments were served from a beautifully appointed table, the centerpiece of heather and yellow chrysanthemums flanked by lavender candles having been arranged by Mrs. James Swan. Pouring were Mrs. Roy Epperson and Mrs. John Swan. Other members of the Women's Association also assisted with the table and in the kitchen.
