The Mill City Lions Auxiliary met Monday evening at the Highwayman Inn for their regular monthly meeting. Guests present were the Lions Auxiliary District Director, Mrs. Lowell Edwards of Springfield; Ethel and Goldie Stephenson, Lillie Stears and Clara Voss of Jefferson. After dinner a short business meeting was held with Mrs. Edwards speaking to the group on Auxiliary affairs.

Mrs. Voss was winner of the door prize. The next meeting will be held Thursday, March 23 at the home of Sue Lewellen.

Oddfellow Lodge Takes in Member

The Oddfellow Lodge held their regular meeting Saturday night here. Bob Lovell was installed as a new member. Entertainment was furnished by Don Avery, Lucille Emerson and Robert Rowe, who played guitars and sang several numbers. They also conducted a "sing along" which everyone seemed to enjoy.

Refreshments were served by the Rebekahs and the remainder of the evening was spent in playing pinocle with Ruby Brisbin and Claude Lewin receiving high score.

Engagement Told

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Ruby of Mill City are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Miss Geraldine Ruby to Bruce Tuers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arlo Tuers. The bride-elect is a senior at Santiam. Mr. Tuers is a graduate of Santiam and is employed at Frank Lumber Co.

A June wedding is planned.

Vance Goode and Dale Edwards Married Feb. 14th

GATES — Gaily written invitations announced the informal, old-fashioned wedding of Vance Goode, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Warren, Stayton and Sp5 Dale Edwards, son of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Edwards, Gates, the evening of February 14. The ceremony was performed by Fr. Alstock at St. Mary's Catholic church in Stayton.

Carl Warren gave his stepdaughter in marriage. Re-embroidered alencon lace enhanced the empire bodice of the bride's A-line street-length dress of ivory silk shantung. A Watteau train edged in matching lace was held at the corners of the scoop neck line by two tiny bows. A cascade of daphne and white hyacinths was carried on a mother-of-pearl prayerbook, a keepsake of the bride's journey to Rome several years ago.

Dianne Pinkal, wearing a pink knit suit, was the bride's only attendant. She carried a bouquet of pink camellias and white hyacinths.

Jack Dempsey, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, served as best man.

Following the ceremony, the small group of close relatives witnessing the marriage returned with the bridal party to the Gates Community hall where hearts and flowers set the Valentine theme for the family gathering.

The bride attended Stayton High school and was employed the past two years with an insurance firm. The bridegroom attended Santiam High school in Mill City and is presently in the army. The couple left February 26 for Fort Leonard Wood, Mo., where they will make their home.

Married Here Recently

Above is Mrs. Skip Meader, the former Barbara Diester of Lyons who was married at the Christian church here.

Barbara Deister and Skip Meader Wed

Barbara Deister and C. H. (Skip) Meader III were wed at a 2 p.m. ceremony February 5 performed by Rev. Jack Meuser at the First Christian church here.

Sr. Lyons and parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Meader.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Henry Deister, Sr., Lyons and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Meader.

Baskets of yellow carnations and white stock with yellow candles formed the setting for the double ring rites.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length gown with a Chantilly lace empire bodice and long sleeves. Her train fastened at the shoulders by bows was inlaid with Chantilly lace and trimmed with crepe. The shoulder length veil was caught up by a crown trimmed with leaves and pearls. Her bouquet was of yellow rose buds and she wore a cameo which belonged to her great grandmother.

Mrs. Stephen Philippi of Lyons was matron of honor and wore a street length empire style dress of yellow brocade taffeta. She carried a nosegay of yellow carnations.

Harry Meader, brother of the groom, was best man. Tom Deister, brother of the bride, and John Wisenhunt, brother-in-law of the groom, were ushers.

Ronda Meader, sister of the groom, lit the candles. Her gown was a duplicate of the matron of honor's gown.

Mother of the bride wore a navy blue and white knit suit with a white and yellow carnation corsage.

Mrs. Don Williams Shows Slides and Speaks at Meeting

Mrs. Clyde Rogers was hostess to the Mill City Woman's Club at her home Tuesday evening, February 21, when the guest speaker was Mrs. Don Williams of the elementary school faculty. Mrs. Williams showed colored slides of Egypt, Greece, France, England, and Italy taken during her trip to Europe last summer when she visited nine countries. She offered to show more of her pictures at a later date. Mrs. Williams was introduced by Mrs. John Swan, the program being arranged through the International Affairs committee.

In her commentary, Mrs. Williams featured the City of Cairo in Egypt, also showing King Tut's tomb, the Pyramids, the Sphinx, and the Nile river. The City of Corinth in Greece, was shown, and the famous landmarks of Paris, including the Notre Dame Cathedral and Eiffel Tower. High spots in London, England, were the Westminster Abbey and Churchill's Tomb, and in Rome, St. Peter's Cathedral.

Conducting the short business meeting earlier was Mrs. Harvey Tolbert, president, assisted by Mrs. Harry Mason as secretary. Thirteen club members and guests responded to roll call with Safety First tips for the home.

It was announced that the Fourth District Federation meeting is scheduled for 9 a. m. Saturday, March 4 at the Honeywood building on 14th St. Salem. Mrs. Mason, Mrs. Tolbert, and Mrs. O. K. DeWitt are among those planning to attend.

Refreshments were served by the hostess at the end of the meeting.

Sharon Bassett, Arthur Vetter Wed Recently

Miss Sharon Christine Bassett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur L. Bassett and Larry Martin Vetter, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Vetter of Gates, were married Saturday, February 11 at 1 p. m. at the Mill City Christian church.

Rev. Jack Meuser performed the ceremony and Mrs. Eugene Davenport was the organist.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a white brocaded suit. Her shoulder length veil was held by a white pillbox hat. She carried a white Bible topped with a cascading bouquet of white carnations.

Miss Marjorie Godwin, wearing a pink dress was bridesmaid.

Julius Vetter, brother of the groom was best man.

The church was decorated with large baskets of pink stock and white pom mums.

The bride's mother chose a flowered suit for her daughter's wedding and wore a corsage of white carnations.

The groom's mother wore a blue flowered dress and her corsage was also of white carnations.

The reception was held at the Gates Community hall. Mrs. Glen Shelton cut and served the wedding cake.

Following a wedding trip to the coast the young couple will be living at Ft. Hood, Texas, where the groom is stationed with the Army.
