

Subscribe to The Mill City Enterprise

3 DAY HOLIDAY IN PORTLAND
SAVE THIS COUPON

3 DAYS
2 NIGHTS
for 2 people
ALL $13.50
Mail Coupon Today for Reservation

- Family Plan — 2 Rms. $11
- Swim in the sky
- Free sauna baths
- Free garage
- Free direct dial phone
- No tipping for luggage
- Commercial rates for traveling men
- 24 Hr. Food Service

226-7831
THE PARK HAVILAND
A MOTORIST'S HOTEL
S.W. Park at Salmon in Portland

Honor Roll Students Named at Detroit

DETROIT—The following Detroit students have been named to the honor roll:
Ricky Williamson, 4.0; Cecelia Williamson 3.6; Rudy Thornton 3.6, Dorsey Smith 3.3, James Morgan 3.2, Linda Roth 3.2.
Perfect attendance: Kathy Reeves, Barbara Stephens, Annette Steward, Delva Saner, Robert Smith, Gary Stephen, Alan Benton, Gerald Hiebert, Dorsey Smith, Lyle Rogers, Freddie Miller, Calvin Steward, James Morgan, Beverly Calbreath, Jeff Drago, Christine Rogers, Cecelia Williamson, Karen Peterson and Jack Cram.

Detroit Station Wants Tree Planters

DETROIT — Applications for annual Spring tree planting is now being accepted by the Detroit Ranger station, it was announced this week. The project is scheduled to get underway the 1st of May a forester said.
Tree seedlings will be planted in the Cliff Creek, Bruno Mountain, Boulder Ridge and Woodpecker Ridge areas comprising some 100 acres he said.
The seedlings will be obtained from the Wind River Nursery in Washington, and West Fir Nursery, Oakridge. Work days will be Monday through Friday.

MEHAMA

Mrs. John Teeters
Mrs. M. V. Frame returned home April 20 after visiting several days with relatives and friends in Oakridge, Eugene and Leaburg.
Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Shields of Salem were Mehama callers for a short time April 20.
Mrs. R. J. Brush left for her home in Seattle Saturday April 22 after a week's visit at the home of Mrs. Jack Ryland. Mrs. Ryland, Mrs. Brush and Mrs. B. L. Kirsch were guests Friday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dunbar at the Senior Estate at Woodburn.
Mrs. Reed White of Portland, Mrs. M. E. Mulkey and Mrs. Wayne Stedronsky and daughters of Salem visited a short time April 20 with Mrs. E. J. Hughes and at the J. M. Teeters home.
Mr. and Mrs. Chris McDonald of Glide visited with relatives and friends during the weekend when they were here to attend the wedding of their grandson, Harold Teeters to Rose Williams in Stayton Saturday afternoon, April 22. Sunday dinner guests at the Donald Teeters home were Mr. and Mrs. McDonald, Mr. and Mrs. Don Stensland and son, Ted of Independence, Mrs. Blanche McDonald of Salem, Mrs. Harold Longfellow and Mr. and Mrs. Teeters and Bruce.
Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Art Andersen were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Spoelstra of Salem, Mrs. Benny Hileman and daughter, Machele of Ft. Lewis, Wn., Mr. and Mrs. Dale Spoelstra and children Shelly and Brian of Chemult, and Mr. and Mrs. Darrel Andersen and son, Eddie of Mill City.
Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Ellis of Portland came on Saturday to spend the night and Sunday with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Taylor. They all drove to Eugene Sunday to visit with the ladies' brother, who is in the hospital there.
Mr. and Mrs. Horace McCarter Jr. and daughters of Springfield visited a short time Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Cooper.
Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Castle were her brother, Jack Herberger of Salem, Joe Adams and three sons of Portland and Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Herberger and five children of Salem.

"Big Stick-up" of the American Cancer Society is joined by Oregon's First Lady, Mrs. Tom McCall, at her home in Salem, where she is shown sticking the 7 Cancer Warning Signals inside her medicine cabinet. Warning signal stickers are being distributed throughout Oregon as a part of the Cancer Society's April Crusade for funds and public education.

OBITUARIES

ORVA D. BROTHERTON

LYONS—Orva Donald Brotherton, a resident of Lyons the past 34 years, died Tuesday at a Portland hospital. He had cancer.
He was born in Mill City and lived in Portland, Salem and Bend before returning to the Santiam area. He was a retired auditor for the CIO.
He leaves a widow, Agnes, of Lyons.
Services will be held at Weddle Funeral Home, Stayton Friday at 2 o'clock. The Rev. Melvin Elving of the Stayton Baptist church will officiate.

KENNETH P. SIMMS

LEBANON — Services for Kenneth P. Sims, who died Wednesday night at the age of 66, were 11:00 a.m. Saturday in First Methodist church Rev. Oscar Luchs officiating, with ritual by Corvallis Masonic Lodge. Burial was in Miller Cemetery near Scio.
Sims, active civic leader in Lebanon for many years, was a native of Scio and lived in Albany and Corvallis before coming here in 1943.
He was Lebanon manager for Pacific Power & Light Co. from 1944 until retiring in 1965. Voted Lebanon Man of the Year in 1965, he was a past president of Chamber of Commerce, Highway 20 Association and Lebanon Strawberry Fair Board. He was a member of Corvallis Masonic Lodge, Royal Arch Masons, Knights Templar, Oregon Council 2 of Royal & Select Masters, Lebanon Elks Lodge, Corvallis Valley Knights of Pythias Lodge 11, Lebanon Villa board, past patron of Lebanon Rotary Club.
He died unexpectedly of a heart attack while visiting the home of a son in Lebanon. The body was taken to Huston Funeral Home.
Sims was a PP&L lineman and serviceman in Scio, Corvallis and Albany before coming to Lebanon.
He and Etta Morcom were married in Corvallis in 1924. Besides the widow, he leaves son Kenneth Sims, Lebanon; brothers Ted, Shedd and William, Scio; sisters Mrs. Sadie Flook, Mill City, Mrs. Lillian Harris, Dallas, and Mrs. Cleora Hutchinson of Portland; four grandchildren.

FLOYD F. PFLUG, JR.

TURNER — Floyd Frederick Pflug, Jr., 37, a resident of Turner the past 10 years and a salesman the past six with Ted Morrison Real Estate, Salem, died Tuesday at Santiam Memorial Hospital following an apparent heart attack. An autopsy was scheduled.
Survivors include widow Beverly, Turner; mother Mrs. Thelma Pflug, Turner; children Linda Ann, Karon and Richard Branch, all at home, and Ricky, Ronnie and Greg Pflug, all in Williston, N.D.; brothers A. Eugene, Belevue, Wash., Phillip, Salem, Daniel, Seattle, Richard, Turner, Joe, The Dalles, and George, Mill City.
Services were held 2 p.m. Thursday at Weddle mortuary, Stayton. Interment was at Belcrest Memorial Park, Salem.

Cancer Society Crusade To Start

Melvin Derrick Aboard Ship USS Camden
USS CAMDEN—Radioman Seaman Gary L. Derrick, of the U.S. Navy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin C. Derrick of Idanha, is aboard the combat support ship USS Camden in Philadelphia, Pa. as part of the crew which helped commission her there April first.
The Camden is named for the city of Camden, New Jersey, where she was built and launched. She is the second vessel of her class to be constructed with a greatly increased cargo capacity, and can carry the equivalent load of about three standard Navy supply ships.
As a "plank owner," he will be aboard the Camden during her fitting out and underway training periods.
The expected homeport of the USS Camden will be Long Beach, California.

GORDON W. OLSON

Gordon William Olson, 49, of 1323 Glen Creek Road N.W. died Friday at a Salem hospital after suffering a heart attack Thursday near Valsetz.
Olson was a log scale supervisor in the mid-Willamette Valley area for Columbia River Scaling Bureau, headquartered in Portland.
He was born in Canada and moved to Portland as a child. He graduated from Jefferson High School there and attended the University of Oregon. During World War II he served with the U.S. Coast Guard. He was a member of Salem Elks Lodge.
Survivors include the widow, Hazel Olson, Salem; son, 2nd Lt. John Olson with the Air Force at San Antonio, Texas; sister Mrs. Adelaide Wood, LaGrange Park, Illinois; brothers Rudolph of Project City, California, and James of Mill City, Joe and Leonard, both of Portland.
The services and interment were at Skyline Memorial Gardens Tuesday.

Ensign Jerry Johnson Qualifies For Carrier Landings On Lexington

PENSACOLA, Fla.—Ensign Jerry L. Johnson, USNR, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Johnson of 703 S.E. Fairview St., qualified for carrier landings aboard the USS Lexington while undergoing advanced flight training with Training Squadron-5 (VT-5), based at the Naval Auxiliary Air Station here.
Flying the F9 "Cougar" jet, he will now receive training in all-weather instrument flight, advanced air-to-air and air-to-ground weaponry, tactics and formation as well as carrier operations.
Upon completion of the training with VT-5, he will be designated a Naval Aviator and received his "Wings of Gold."
He is a graduate of Santiam High school and Southern Oregon College at Ashland.

F.H.A. Girls Plan Money-Making Events

At the F.H.A. meeting this week at Santiam there was considerable discussion on how to raise some money for their treasury.
Saturday, April 29 the girls will hold a bake sale at Hilltop Market. Tuesday, May 2 there will be a bottle drive and residents are asked to save their bottle, which will be picked up on that day.
The F.H.A. girls are planning a trip to the coast May 6 and 7 and hope they can raise enough money so the trip will be "self-supporting", according to Janet Schulz, reporter.

Boat Capsizes on Santiam; Man OK

Police searched two hours for the owner of a boat capsized in the Santiam River near Idanha Sunday night.
But Marvin Sandberg of Sublimity, who said the boat's motor quit and the river's current turned the craft over was safe at home.
Mill City police started searching boat landings after the overturned boat and life jackets were found floating in the river. No identification was found and state police joined the search before the owner was found safe.

Melvin Derrick Aboard Ship USS Camden

USS CAMDEN—Radioman Seaman Gary L. Derrick, of the U.S. Navy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin C. Derrick of Idanha, is aboard the combat support ship USS Camden in Philadelphia, Pa. as part of the crew which helped commission her there April first.
The Camden is named for the city of Camden, New Jersey, where she was built and launched. She is the second vessel of her class to be constructed with a greatly increased cargo capacity, and can carry the equivalent load of about three standard Navy supply ships.
As a "plank owner," he will be aboard the Camden during her fitting out and underway training periods.
The expected homeport of the USS Camden will be Long Beach, California.

Fire Destroys Gilbert Warner Home

DETROIT—The home of the Gilbert Warner family in Detroit on Forest Avenue was destroyed by fire late Saturday while the family was away.
David Roberts, Idanha fire chief said the fire apparently started in the rear of the house but cause was undetermined. Everything was completely destroyed.
Cook's motel has given the Warners and their five boys shelter until they find another place to live.
Warner is a log truck driver for Mel Round Trucking.

Pvt. Charles Epperson Completes Radio School In Georgia

FT. GORDON, Ga.—Private Charles R. Epperson, 24, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Epperson, 323 S.E. Ivy, Mill City, completed a radio relay and carrier operation course at the Army Southeastern Signal School, Ft. Gordon, Ga., April 14th.
During the 12-week course, he was trained to operate different types of field telephone, telegraph and radio relay equipment.

Detroit Civic Club Elects Officers

DETROIT—Mrs. Gary Coleman was re-elected president of the Woman's Civic club for the ensuing year at the regular business meeting of the group.
Other officers elected were, Mrs. Sam Leffler, vice president; Mrs. Arthur Whiteley, secretary, and Mrs. Jules Hill treasurer.
Installation ceremonies will be held the evening of May 3 at Maron Forks lodge. Installing officer will be Mrs. Howard Drago, past president of the club.

Why Don't You Subscribe to The Mill City Enterprise

Mrs. Glenn Julian Hosts W S C C

LYONS—Mrs. Glenn Julian was hostess for the meeting of the Womens Society of Christian Service held at the parsonage Tuesday afternoon, with Mrs. Leonard Cruson presiding over the meeting due to the absence of Ethel Huffman, president. A report was heard on the birthday luncheon, and plans discussed for the pot luck supper to be held at the Lyons Methodist church Friday evening, April 21. Slides will be shown of the Queen Charlotte Islands. Plans were also discussed for the annual rummage sale, with the date to be made known later. All donations of rummage will be appreciated.
At the close of the meeting refreshments were served to Mmes. John Elmore, Harold Hawthorne, E. L. Roye, Leonard Cruson, Clyde Bressler; and Mrs. Morris, a guest of the afternoon.

Large Crowd Attends Open House Here

A crowd of some 300 people attended the Blaylock Construction Co. open house Saturday and Sunday.
The new three bedroom home, located on S. E. Kingwood is an all-electric Medalion home.
Joe Meuse, public relations man for Pacific Power and Light said he was well pleased with the public's response to the Open House and their comments on the electric and other features of the home.

City of Gates to Improve Water System

GATES — The Gates City council decided at last Thursday night's meeting to purchase a new pump for the city water system. The pump will be installed in the near future at a cost of $1,927.20.
Fred Woods was appointed water caretaker by the council, replacing Louis Cacka, who is leaving the community.
The city recorder, Mrs. Bill Gabriel, attended a session on local budget assistance conducted by the OSU Cooperative Extension service Monday night at Stayton High school.

Sparky says:

If your clothing catches fire, don't run . . . Roll on floor or ground . . . Smother with coat or blanket

Don't give fire a place to start!

"Brunner's Flowers" and Gifts
Flowers for all Occasions
FLOWERS by WIRE SERVICE
230 N.E. 4th Street
Phone 897-2452 Mill City

Snookie's Special
April 26, 27, 28, 29
10-19¢ Burgers — $1.50
Good only with this Coupon
Snookie's Drive-In
Gates, Oregon Phone 897-8999
BEGINNING SUNDAY, APRIL 30
Open 11:00 a.m. to 9:00 p.m.

Subscribe to The Mill City Enterprise
$3.50 Per Year
Read it Every Week

Schafer's Canyon Hardware
Mehama, Oregon
A Real Complete Shopping Center
Make this your headquarters for -- Household Needs . . .
• TOOLS • HOUSEWARES
See our line of SPORTING GOODS for the Fisherman and Hunter
Sporting Goods for the Whole Family
Electrical and Plumbing Supplies
Full Line of PAINTS

Harriet and Pappy with Donnie ARE BACK AT
The Highwayman Inn
Come out and hear this popular combo featuring Harriet, the Golden Girl with the Golden Voice
Opening Appearance Friday Night At 9:00 P.M.
They will play EVERY Friday and Saturday from 9:00 p.m. 'til 2:00 a.m. AND Sunday from 8:00 p.m. 'til 1:00 a.m.
We'll Be Seeing You . . .
The Highwayman Inn
Joyce and Mac
Santiam Highway Gates