My dad gets mad sometimes.
Like when my bike is in the driveway when he gets home from work.
He used to get mad a lot when the shower would get cold in the morning.
But it never gets cold anymore.
I think its cause we got a fast electric water heater.
It has 2 things that get the water hot right inside. All I know is we have a lot of hot water.
Now if I can remember to get my bike out of the driveway

Every driver, every walker, every flier.

Lovely country we have here. Let's keep it that way.
