Women's Group Meets at Home of Mrs. James Swan

Mrs. James Swan was hostess to the Presbyterian Women's Association at her home on Thursday afternoon, January 25, a dessert luncheon preceding the business meeting. Twelve ladies attended the affair.

The meeting opened with prayer by Mrs. Herbert Schroeder, after which the president, Mrs. Earl Loucks, conducted the business session. The minutes of the previous meeting were read by the secretary, Mrs. Louis Verbeck, and the treasurer's report was given by Mrs. Arlo Tuers.

A number of those present volunteered to be hostesses for the association during the coming year. The February meeting is scheduled to be held at Fellowship Hall with Mrs. Louis Verbeck as refreshment hostess.

It was mentioned that dish-towels are needed for Fellowship Hall, and if anyone has a few to donate they would be appreciated.

Announcement was made that World Day of Prayer will be observed on Friday, March 1. Several members volunteered to assist at the wedding reception for Laura Rambo and Russell Nelson on Saturday March 2.

Devotions were given by Mrs. Clyde Rogers, whose topic was "The Word." Mrs. Rogers read several verses from the Scripture, some quotations from Haley's Bible Handbook giving thoughts on the Bible from men in history, and one of Billy Graham's stories taken from familiar hymns.

Discussion was held concerning the type of program to be adopted by the group during the coming year. Each person was asked to memorize a Bible verse for the next meeting on February 22.

Thursday afternoon's meeting was closed with prayer.

Phillips Return from California Vacation

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Phillips returned Saturday to their home on S. E. Kingwood following a two months trip to Southern California.

The couple left Mill City on December 4. They took their trailer house and took 5 days for the trip down. They parked their trailer in a court in San Diego near their daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Hanson and two children.

They also visited their other daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Blich and three children at Temple City.

Several days were spent at Desert Hot Springs when a number of their friends took their trailers and all went to the Springs. They reported the weather was beautiful while they were there and they went swimming three times a day.

They visited their California friends and spent one day with their Mill City neighbors Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Cree when they were in San Diego the last of December and first of January.

They had stormy weather on their return trip and had to stay over a day at Ashland due to the icy roads.
