Rebekahs Appoint Committees at Evening Meeting

Committees for the year were appointed at the regular meeting of Santiam Rebekah lodge Wednesday evening. Other elections and appointments were also made at the meeting presided over by Blanche Syverson.

Plans were made for the March 6 meeting when the president of the Rebekah Assembly of Oregon will pay her official visit.

Appointed to serve on the finance committee were Ada Plymale, Mildred Carr and Juanita Emmerson; Publicity, Antonia Thomas and Ann Primeau; Floral, Mildred Carr, Antonia Thomas and Alta Bodeker; Welcome, Ida Fleetwood, Lettie Swan and Juanita Emmerson.

Carmen Barnhardt was elected drill captain and Antonia Thomas, degree captain. Trustees elected were Ann Primeau for a three year term; Carmen Barnhardt for a two year term to fill the vacancy created when Frances McCauley moved from the city.

Ann Primeau was installed as recording secretary by Carmen Barnhardt acting as the installing officer.

Daisy Geddes was again back to lodge after an absence of almost seven months due to illness.

Irene Lewin, retiring noble grand presented each of her officers for the past year attractive gifts of paper weights which she had made.

Refreshments were served later in the evening from tables beautifully decorated in the Valentine motif by Blanche Syverson.

Mrs. Bodeker Hosts Women's Group

LYONS—Mrs. Alex Bodeker was hostess for the meeting of the Womens Society of Christian Service held in the Tuesday afternoon February fireplace room of the church 6, with Mrs. Lenard Cruson presiding due to the absence of Mrs. Ethel Huffman. The meeting opened with devotions by Mrs. Freda Grug, et. A favorable report was heard from the results of the tamale sale and supper.

A discussion was held on the Birthday luncheon to be held some time in April, date to be made known later. A discussion was also held on various things for the coming months. At the close of the meeting Mrs. Bodeker served refreshments to Mmes. Lenard Cruson, Glen Julian, Clyde Bressler, Paul Pennington, Harold Hawthorne, Chester Riggs, Van Prichard, E. L. Roye, Mrs. Freda Gruget and Miss Lula Cory.

Mill City Fifth Grade Has Field Trip

Mill City fifth-grade classes visited places of interest in Salem on Thursday, February 1. The 39 students were accompanied by Mrs. Leo Carpenter, Mrs. Roger Mink, Mrs. Lenthel Ragsdale, Carl Schaffer, and Mrs. Don Williams.

At 9:20 the group visited the Oregon State Library. Several of the 6 floors of books were seen.

Next the Salem Police Department was toured. The group compared it with what they had learned from Officer Les White about the Mill City Police Department. The only difference they found was the number of employees at each department.

Lunch was eaten at the Cat Cavern, Matthews Hall, Willamette University. Albert Fedje, Director of Admissions, arranged two tours. The students had an opportunity to ask questions about college classes and life.

Finally the group visited Salem General Hospital where they saw a 3-day old baby in an incubator. The children asked the nurses questions over cookies and punch.

Bus driver Tom Morris delivered an exhausted bus load of children to the Mill City Elementary School at 3:15.

Wallace Hovey and Mrs. Elaine Main, teachers, were pleased with the children's enthusiasm.

Ragsdale—Cree Engagement Told

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ragsdale, Sr. are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Miss Carol Ann Ragsdale to Donald Lowell Cree, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lowell O. Cree all of Mill City.

Miss Ragsdale graduated from Santiam High School in 1965 and is now a junior at Oregon College of Education.

Mr. Cree graduated from Santiam High School in 1959, attended Wenatchee Valley Junior College and Oregon College of Education. He is now self employed in the timber industry.

No date has been set for the wedding.

Santiam Hospital Auxiliary to Have Luncheon Thursday

The Santiam Memorial Hospital Auxiliary will have their annual luncheon Thursday, February 15 at 12:30 at the Calvary Lutheran Church in Stayton. The Church is located at the corner of Fern Ridge Road and First Avenue.

There will be installation of officers, various awards given, reports and a talk by hospital board chairman, Don Moffatt.

The Regis Girls Chorus will furnish the entertainment. The luncheon is open to the interested public and tickets may be purchased at the door or Mill City residents may secure them from Mrs. J. C. Kimmel or Mrs. Arlo Tuers.

Father-Daughter Dinner Planned by Camp Fire Girls

A meeting of the Canyon Camp Fire Leaders was held recently at the home of Mrs. Bill Shepherd. Main item on the agenda was the Father-daughter dinner which is being planned by the leaders and the Camp Fire girls.

This is an annual event and will be held March 1 at the Mill City grade school gym. Theme for this year's dinner is "Power Time."

Preliminary plans were also started on the Grand Council Fire which is scheduled for May.

There are seven Camp Fire and Bluebird groups this year and they have been busy sending get-well cards, which they have made, to community members. They have also sent cards to shut-ins which recipients say they appreciate very much.

This part of Community service has also given the girls much enjoyment and satisfaction.

Following the recent leaders meeting Mrs. James King, South Marion district director, gave some training tips to the leaders on making group meetings more fun and informative for the girls.

Leaders attending the meeting were Mrs. Shirley Sharp, Mrs. Phyllis Ricketts, Mrs. Bill Shepherd, Mrs. Rachel Music, Mrs. Fred Krecklow, Mrs. Don Jenkins, Mrs. Melba Gallion, Mrs. Barbara Penrose, Mrs. Paul Brady, Mrs. Roger Mink, Mrs. Dave Barnhardt and Mrs. Ray Shelton who came down from Marion Forks.

Charles Kellys Attend Postmaster Conference

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kelly were in Portland from Monday until Thursday of last week attending the Mid-Winter Conference of the Oregon Chapter of the National Association of Postmasters. Mr. Kelly served on a panel dealing with "Complaints." The affair, held at the Hilton Hotel, drew postmasters and their husbands or wives from all over the State of Oregon.

Flying out from Wash., D. C., to speak at the main banquet and to conduct conferences for the group was Thomas P. Costin, Jr. of Lynn, Mass., who is president of NAPUS. Vice-president Tom Sawyer of Sheridan, Wyo., was speaker at the final evening's banquet.

Others attending the session from this locality included Quincy Smith of Idanha, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Fair of Stayton, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Dougherty of Aumsville, Mrs. Clara Neal of Sublimity, and Mrs. Joe Johnson of Lyons.

Nicest thing about a telephone party line ...the people on it.

Good party line neighbors use the telephone sharing, space calls, keep conversations reasonably brief. And they hang up carefully. Isn't that your kind of party line? Or shouldn't it be?
