Valentine Dinner Honors Rainbow Fathers-Daughters

The annual Father-daughter dinner for Rainbow girls and their Masonic fathers was held at the IOOF hall on Valentine's evening with Rainbow mother's and Eastern Star members cooking the dinner. Mrs. Walter Rue headed the arrangements for the dinner.

Miss Darlene Rue is Worthy Advisor of Rainbow for the spring term and presided at the meeting following the dinner! The "Dads" also attended this meeting.

Verne Clark was named "Rainbow Dad" by the girls. He is Worshipful master of the Masonic lodge.

The girls drew names for Secret Dads and the ones they had the past year were revealed. Both the girls and their adopted Fathers exchanged gifts Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Don Carlson, mother advisor for the girls said their next regular meeting would be February 28.

Laura Wilson Hosts Jaycette Meeting

Laura Wilson entertained members of the Jaycettes at her home Thursday evening when the forthcoming fashion show was the main topic of discussion. The Pep club at Santiam High school is assisting with the show which will be held at the school, February 22.

The Jaycettes will nominate officers at their March 7 meeting and Shirley Carver was welcomed into the club Thursday evening.

An interesting program had been arranged for the evening with the young ladies "giving and receiving" facials which were demonstrated by Pam Sherwood. They said it was sort of anti-climax to have their skin all in top condition for a "night out", only to have to go home following the meeting.

Door prize was won during the evening by Nancy Girod. The hostess served refreshments to those attending.

Music Festival Set For February 29

The annual Capitol Conference Music Festival will be held February 29 at 8 p. m. at three host schools.

Section A, which includes Santiam High school, Stayton High, Scio High and Regis will be held at Regis High school. Spencer Hillesland, music director at Santiam said the Festival this year should be one of the best ever presented.

There will be band and choral numbers from the individual schools and also massed numbers including the famed Washington Post March which will be directed by Mr. Hillesland. Dave Doerkson of Salem will direct the grand finale.

Engagement Told

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Stafford are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Miss Elaine Stafford to Patrick William Moore, son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel W. Moore.

Both young people are 1967 graduates of Santiam High school with Miss Stafford now attending Central Oregon College. Mr. Moore attended Vanderbilt College in Nashville Tennessee and will enter OSU for the spring term.

No date has been set for the wedding.

Grosso-Champ Rites At Calvary Lutheran Church Saturday

LYONS — Miss Vicki Ann Grosso and Kenneth Dale Champ exchanged their wedding vows at a very pretty winter wedding Saturday night February 17, at the Calvary Lutheran church in Stayton, with Rev. Paul Emmel performing the 7 o'clock ceremony before an altar of baskets of yellow and bronze Chrysanthemums.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Grosso of Lyons and the bridegroom the son of Mr. and Mrs. Dale Champ of Mehama.

The bride escorted down the aisle on the arm of her father, wore a white lace cage style gown fashioned with a scalloped neckline and scalloped lace train enhanced with satin trim. Her shoulder length pouff veil was held in place by a headpiece of lily of the valley. She carried a bouquet of yellow roses.

Maid of honor was Miss Helen Grosso sister of the bride. She wore a princess style floor length dress of loden green velvet. Bridesmaids were Miss Renee Champ, sister of the bridegroom, Miss Sharon Olson and Miss Sharon Spellmeyer. They wore princess style dresses of mint green crepe with loden green velvet bodice and carried bouquets of bronze chrysanthemums.

Best man for Mr. Champ was Ron Bethell. Groomsman was Darrel Tietze and ushers were Steve Philippi and Royce Longfellow.

A reception followed in the church parlor. Cutting and serving the cake were Mrs. Don Vanderpoole, cousin of the bride and Mrs. Donna Assmussen. Presiding at the punch bowl was Mrs. William Carter and pouring the coffee was Mrs. E. F. Bourg, aunt of the bride.

For their wedding trip along the Oregon Coast, the new Mrs. Champ wore a moss green suit. Upon their return the young couple will make their home in Salem.

Fred Duffys Honor Linda Ohmart on Birthday Anniversary

Mrs. Douglas (Linda) Ohmart was honored on the occasion of her 21st birthday anniversary at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Duffy on Sunday. The traditional birthday cake and ice cream were served following the dinner. Those present besides the Duffys were Mr. and Mrs. Rex Ohmart and Jon, Mr. and Mrs. Ken Corning, Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Heller, Mrs. Lena Poff, Raymond Duffy and Linda Ohmart from Salem. Douglas Ohmart has recently entered the service.

Reba Miller Marries Donald Cloyd Sat. Feb. 10 at Stayton

The Calvary Lutheran Church was the setting Saturday, February 10 for the wedding of Miss Reba Louise Miller to Donald Michael Cloyd.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Miller of Idanha and he is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Cloyd of Salem.

The Rev. Paul Emmel officiated at the 4 o'clock ceremony with the bride using colors appropriate to the Valentine season, burgundy and pink.

The bride, escorted to the altar by her father, was lovely in a gown of lace and organza fashioned with a scalloped lace bodice and long sleeves. Her Watteau train fell from the shoulders and was of silk illusion held in place by a lace headpiece.

Her flowers were pink rosebuds arranged in a heart shape.

Miss Joy Mennis was Maid of honor and she wore a gown made empire style with a burgundy velvet bodice with a light pink crepe skirt. She carried a single pink mum.

Bridesmaids were Miss Madalyn Smith and Miss Kathy Reeves and they were gowned the same as the maid of honor but carried one pink long stemmed rose.

Candlelighters were Anita Hill and Pam Cloyd.

Flower girl was Judy Rotten and ringbearer was Brad Knapp. Ushers were Bob Miller, brother of the bride and Clint Cloyd, brother of the groom.

Standing with the groom as Best man was John Cloyd, his brother from Salem.

Following the wedding a Reception was held at the Church with Mrs. Howard Dean and Mrs. Al Lemberger pouring and Mrs. Sam Leffler, cutting the cake.

For going away the bride donned a blue linen dress with a blue and white plaid coat. Her accessories were blue.

Following the wedding trip to the coast the young couple are now at home at Mapleton where the groom is employed by a logging company.

Suzu Stewart Hosts Bid or Bunch Club Monday Evening

Suzu Stewart entertained the members of the Bid or Bunch club at her home Monday evening. There was one guest, Bobbi Budlong, who replaced Esther Cline for the evening. She is reported to be ill with pneumonia.

Rilla Shaffer won the high prize; Darlene Ruby, pinochle and Linda Bastuscheck, low.

Mrs. Stewart served refreshments to the 16 ladies before the evening of cards.

The next meeting will be March 4 at the home of Mary Wright.

Lou MacGregor Hosts Round Robin Club Monday Evening

Lou MacGregor entertained members of the Round Robin pinochle club and guests at her home Monday evening. Her home was attractively decorated with arrangements of pussywillows and daffodils adding a nice contrast to the rainy weather outside.

Mrs. MacGregor served cherry pie before the evening of cards, using the patriotic motif in her table favors.

Guests for the evening were Anne Hovey, Wilma Ragsdale and Pauline Jones. Winning high prize was Goldie Rambo with Mabel Yanus winning pinochle and Marle Stewart, low.

The next party will be March 4 with the place to be announced at a later date.

The Old Timer

"The discontent of our winter is shoveling snow."

The Calvary Lutheran Church of Stayton was the setting Saturday at 4 o'clock in the afternoon for the wedding of Miss Reba Louise Miller, bride elect of Michael Cloyd of Salem. Miss Miller is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Miller of Idanha and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Cloyd of Salem. The young couple is making their home at Mapleton where Mr. Cloyd is employed as a logger. Miss Miller is a 1967 graduate of Detroit school.

RAMBO'S RAMBLINGS

Goldie Rambo

Well, the paper is out for another week — Valentine's Day has passed. Our great State of Oregon is another year older—and aren't we all. For a time last week we weren't sure about getting the paper out as a "pot" went out on one of our Linotypes but our ingenious Boss kept things hot with a propane torch until the electrician arrived.

Brace yourself for a rugged March—according to my calendar there were about 11 days without rain; not only that but the sun was out EVERY day and it felt like spring. It's cloudy today (Friday) so anything can happen—but the Lord willing hope the snow stays off until after March 2.

Driving home from Mount Angel last Sunday we were listening to the radio—a nice variation from TV I may add, and a forum was being held on the use of drugs by young people. I listened for a few miles but some of the things they were relating were worse than the blood curdling murder mysteries I read. When one realizes that some of our youngsters get on these drugs just as a lark—and then they are "hooked"—it makes anyone feel very helpless. I do think education in both the home and schools on this subject is bound to help—I doubt if any normal young person viewing the films on use of LSD for instance, would fail to have it impressed on them quite heavily.

There has been considerable talk lately of legalizing marijuana or at least making it a misdemeanor instead of a felony. I think it would be a great mistake because the use of marijuana is too often just a stepping stone to using a stronger and more dangerous drug. When some of our college professors use it however, and the students know it—what does a poor parent do to cope with the situation?

Speaking of being hooked I ran across a little poem the other day that was written specifically for people that wanted to give up smoking—but it could easily be applied to ANYTHING that one wished to achieve:

Did is a word of achievement; Won't is a word of retreat; Might is a word of bereavement. Can't is a word of defeat. Ought is a word of duty. Try is a word of each hour. Will is a word of beauty. Can is a word of power. So you think it's corny—
