ERICK G. PETERSON
Mr. and Mrs. Ervin S. Peterson have returned home from Los Angeles where they were called by the March 13 death of his father, Erick G. Peterson, age 95.

The elderly man had always enjoyed good health but fell shortly before his death, breaking his hip. He never recovered from the shock of the fall.

Mr. and Mrs. Peterson were visiting in Portland at the time of his father's death and made the trip to California by plane from that city.

Other survivors include son, Melvin Peterson of Portland, daughters, Wilma Smith of Portland and Ethel Harzka of Los Angeles.

EVA HUNT
TANGENT—Mrs. Eva Hunt, 88, Tangent, died Saturday in a Lebanon nursing home following a long illness.

A native of Minnesota, she moved from there to Lebanon in 1909. She lived in Lebanon and Mill City before moving here in 1963.

Surviving are daughters Mrs. May Koos, Tangent, and Mrs. Helen Lancaster, Roseburg; son James Hunt, Coquille; sisters Mrs. Myrtle Scott, Grants Pass, and Mrs. Myra Anderson, Buffalo, Wyo.; seven grandchildren and 13 great grandchildren.

Services were 2 p. m. Tuesday in Coos Mortuary Chapel, Coquille, under the direction of Fisher mortuary, Albany.

VIRGINIA R. TODD
LEBANON—Mrs. Virginia Ruth Todd, 44, of Lebanon Rt. 2, Box 184, died Wednesday morning in a multi-vehicle collision on the Freeway near Albany in which another occupant of the same car, Mrs. Martha Clara Holloway, Lebanon, also was killed.

Mrs. Todd had lived in Lebanon four years, moving here from Wichita, Kan. She was born in Mill City and graduated from high school at Westfir.

Surviving are widower Raymond, Lebanon; daughter Dianna Brandsetter, Warren, and son Ace Todd, Wichita, Kan.; father Henry Bordune, Sweet Home; one grandson.

FRED C. RITTNER
Fred Charles Rittner, 85, a life-long resident of the mid-Willamette Valley, died Monday in a Salem hospital of a cerebral hemorrhage.

He came to Salem in 1926 after making Dallas his headquarters during 20 years of traveling as a logging contractor. He retired in 1950 and lived at 732 Engel Ave. N. W. He was born near Kings Valley in Benton county. He was a member of Dallas Masonic Lodge and a charter member of Salem Gold club. He was well-known here, owning an area logging company.

Survivors are the widow Myrtle; daughters Mrs. Cleo Cornell, Seattle; and Mrs. Irene Baker, Pleasantville, N. Y.; four grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Arrangements are pending at Barrick mortuary, Salem.

Frank Dummer
Visits Schools At San Francisco

DETROIT—Frank H. Dummer Supt. of Detroit School District 123J spent several days last week in the San Francisco Bay area observing different educational television uses in the schools of the area.

The tour included Stanford University at Palo Alto on video tape, Far West Laboratory for Educational Research at Berkeley, Calif.; and several school districts in the Bay area using closed circuit TV for instruction. School administrators from Marion-Polk and Yamhill Counties participated in the project headed by Marvin Covey of the Marion County Intermediate Education District.

William Whiteley
Now at Mass. Hospital

DETROIT—Warrant Officer William Whiteley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Whiteley of Detroit, who was hospitalized recently in Japan, is now hospitalized at the army base hospital at Fort Davins, Mass. Whiteley, a Helicopter pilot, was wounded on the ankle March 8th when a mini gun misfired while his transport was refueling and loading troops at the Cu Chi Air Force Base in Vietnam.

In a letter received from her son Mrs. Whiteley said the mini gun misfired when the safety switch was touched. The missile shattered the bone in his ankle and came out through his heel. She said plastic surgery will be done on his heel. Mr. Whiteley's wife and baby reside at New Hampshire.

Deputy Sheriff Talks at Camp Fire Girls To Have Flag Ceremony at PTC

LYONS — Marion County Deputy Sheriff Jim Barnes of Salem was speaker at the regular meeting of the Mari-Linn PTC held Thursday night. He was accompanied by a detective from the narcotics bureau of Marion county.

Deputy Barnes talked on marijuana and told of its danger to health and how the continued use of the drug increases the tolerance for it. It brings a morbid craving which leads to stealing or acts of violence to obtain the drug. He had samples of the drug and showed what they call "reefers" and the cigarette cocktail. He said it is surprising how much marijuana is being used in colleges and high schools in cities and also small towns.

Why Don't You Subscribe to The Mill City Enterprise

DETROIT — The regular meeting of the Deanna Parent Teachers Club will be held Thursday March 28th at 7:30 p. m. at the elementary school. Participating in the evenings program will be the Blue-Birds and the 4th grade Campfire girls who will present a flag ceremony. The schools 5th annual Science Fair will also open Thursday.

The program will include both Primary grades and High School exhibits. Exhibits will be on display Thursday evening from 7 to 10:00 p. m. and on Friday from 9:00 a. m. to 2:30 p. m. Judges will be selected from the teaching staff.
