Floyd Fleetwoods to Observe Golden Wedding Date

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd W. Fleetwood will be honored on their Golden wedding anniversary at a reception Sunday, April 7 at the Fellowship Hall of the Mill City Presbyterian Church.

Hosting the event will be the Fleetwoods' children and their spouses, Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Fleetwood of Mill City, Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Fleetwood of Bandon and Mr. and Mrs. Ben (Lois) Beisel of Eugene.

Friends and relatives of the couple are invited to call between the hours of two and five in the afternoon.

The couple ask that no gifts be given.

The Fleetwoods were married in Salem, April 4, 1918 and have lived in Mill City for the past 43 years. They are former owners of Fleetwoods Grocery, selling the store in 1949 to S. W. Stewart and Sons.

Mr. and Mrs. Fleetwood operated a card room, confectionary and restaurant before turning it into a grocery store.

John Kelly Directs Play at Eugene

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kelly drove to Eugene Friday to attend the University Theatre production of "The Fantasticks," a musical comedy presented in the Arena theater and directed by their son, John Kelly, a senior in speech and drama. According to the program, the set, choreography, and costumes were also handled by "Kelly and Company." Guests of the Kellys for the evening were Mrs. Don Goode and a woman friend, both of Eugene. The group took the "director" out for a snack afterward, and later the entire cast was invited to the home of one of the players for a late supper. This was opening night for the musical, which has played three previous times in Eugene, but the cast was greeted with a full house. It was also scheduled for Saturday, March 30, and for April 4, 5 and 6 of this week.

Presbyterian Women To have Clothing Drive

Mrs. Floyd Fleetwood was dessert hostess to 15 members and guests of the Presbyterian Women's Association at Fellowship Hall on Thursday afternoon, March 28.

Mrs. Earl Loucks was in charge of the business meeting which opened with a prayer for missions by Mrs. H. A. Schroeder. A hymn was sung, with piano accompaniment by Mrs. Minnie Champ.

Mrs. Louis Verbeck read the correspondence consisting of a notice of Willamette Presbyterian's Spring meeting scheduled for 9:45 a. m., Tuesday, April 23, in the Central Union Presbyterian Church in Eugene.

Discussion was held concerning the Golden Wedding Anniversary reception at Fellowship Hall for Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Fleetwood on Sunday afternoon, April 7, with a number of the members volunteering to assist Mrs. James Swan.

It was announced that there would be a Spring clothing drive in April or May. The treasurer's report was given by Mrs. Arlo Tuers, and Mrs. Schroeder read from the Yearbook of Prayer.

Devotions were led by Mrs. C. E. Rogers whose topic was "Prayer," with quotations from the Scripture, and readings from "Daily Life" by Billy Graham, including a dissertation on "The Lord's Prayer."

The next meeting of the Association will be held on Thursday afternoon, April 25, at Fellowship Hall, with Mrs. Arlo Tuers as refreshment hostess.

Mrs. Ray Branch Head of Mehama Women's Club

MEHAMA — A meeting of the Mehama Women's club was held at the club house Thursday evening, March 28. The 7:30 business session was conducted by the vice president Mrs. James Owen. The nominating committee presented a slate of new officers and it was unanimously accepted by the members. New officers elected are Mrs. Raymond Branch, president; Mrs. Lily Wolfkiel, vice president; Mrs. Bruce Mathis is the new treasurer and Mrs. Edward Castle was reelected as secretary. The street light committee reported that there were still some who had not paid on the 1967 lights and that the 1968 payments should be made at Shafers hardware store.

The members were asked to save their Flav-R-Pac labels and give them to any of the officers as the club could make a little money that way. It was announced that the Marion County Federation of Women's Clubs would hold their Spring meeting at the Waldo Hills Community Hall on April 25 and all members who could were urged to attend.

The meeting was turned over to Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Stevens who showed the pictures they took on their European Tour. The hostesses for the evening Mrs. B. L. Kirsch, Mrs. Orville Bilyeu and Mrs. Edward Castle served refreshments of coffee and cake to the large group of members and guests later in the evening.

The next meeting of the club is scheduled for Thursday evening May 23 and all ladies of the community are invited to attend. Hostesses for the meeting will be Mrs. Grant Smith, Mrs. Donald Teeters and Mrs. Harold Longfellow.

Lions Auxiliary Plans for Many Spring Events

Members of the Mill City Lions Auxiliary were entertained Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Fred Berg with Mrs. Lee Ross as co-hostess.

Mrs. Bill Metteer presided at the business meeting when a nominating committee was named to present a slate of officers at the April meeting. Serving will be Mrs. Berg, Mrs. Maynard Smith and Mrs. Floyd Eastwood. Plans were made for the dinner to be held at the Gates Women's clubhouse the evening of April 27 with cards and dancing to furnish the entertainment following the dinner. Theme for the event will be "April Showers, May Flowers". Several other clubs in the district have been invited to attend the party.

On the food committee are Mrs. Metteer, Mrs. Mel Rambo, Mrs. Martin Hansen, Mrs. Clyde Richards, Mrs. Lee Ross and Mrs. Bill Lewellen.

Decorations will be in charge of Mrs. Fred Krecklow, Mrs. Leo Poole, Mrs. Eastwood and Mrs. Paul Brady.

Auxiliary members also discussed their forthcoming visitation to the Jefferson club on April 15 with several indicating they would attend.

Mrs. Brady reported on her attendance of the Spring Board session in Salem recently when plans were discussed for the state Lions and Auxiliary convention which will be held in Eugene, May 16-18. Headquarters for the event will be the Eugene Hotel.

Door prize for the evening was won by Mrs. Paul Brady who will bring a gift for the next meeting.

A convention fund was started at Thursday evening's meeting with Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Krecklow in charge of ways and means to make the fund "grow".

The hostesses served refreshments at the close of the meeting. The next meeting will be April 25 at the home of Mrs. Krecklow with a "Taste and Tell" party to be held.

Parent-Teacher Meets Scheduled This Week

Parent-Teacher reporting conferences are again scheduled for this week at the Mill City Elementary school and next week for the Gates Primary school parents.

Notices have been sent to parents notifying them of individual appointment. Wednesday afternoon, April 3, students of the 4th, 5th, 6th and 8th grades were dismissed from school immediately after lunch. Although all parents cannot be scheduled for Wednesday afternoon, it will enable teachers to meet with most of the parents.

Next week the Gates Primary teachers will be meeting with parents and on Wednesday April 10, students of that school will be dismissed after lunch. Parents will again be receiving notices of appointments and should make every effort to be prompt. The parent-teacher conference will relate to the individual progress of the child and presents an excellent opportunity to become acquainted with the school program and the teaching staff.
