Mr. and Mrs. Logsdon entertained Senator and Mrs. Guynes from Clackamas county. Senator Guynes enjoyed visiting Detroit and is planning on returning. Other guests at the Logsdons this weekend were Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Catherwood and Mr. and Mrs. Lest DeJardin. Mr.

and Mrs. Catherwood were one-time residents of Mill City.

District Ranger Lee Boeckstiegel has been hospitalized at Santiam Memorial hospital. He will be returning soon.

Detroit Community Christian church is holding a potluck picnic at Mongold Sunday, June 30. This will be a day of relaxation.

Mayor and Mrs. Harold Champion left this week on a month vacation. They plan to visit his father at Maple-ton, Iowa and other relatives and friends.

Barbara Hancock, 20, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. Hancock of Detroit, had her back injured Monday, while riding horseback in the Gresham area. Miss Hancock walked two and a half miles to get help. She will be in a cast for four to six months. She had just received word from a Dallas, Texas airline that she had been accepted for stewardess training. She is convalescing in the Gresham hospital.

GATES

By Arlene Taylor

Bill Gabriel was recently at the Santiam Memorial Hospital for emergency and observation purposes. A piece of meat he was eating evidently lodged in his throat causing the complications. X-rays of his lungs were made to determine if the item had lodged in the lung area. He is reported doing fine now, but was a bit shaken up by the incident.

Local residents who are interested in starting up a Saddle Club should contact Mrs. Ruth Hurst, of Mill City, by calling 897-2769. The main function of this group is to form trail-rides and outings, of interest to all. With the growing number of horses and riders seen around the area, this could become a large organization.

The Library at the Gates Elementary School will be open to the public, every Thursday, from 1:00-4:00 p. m., starting June the 27th, until August the 15th. Reading material will be available to all those interested. The Library will not be open on the 4th of July.

Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Gabriel were Mr. and Mrs. Chick Mason, of Sweet Home, and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Dower and daughter, Guerin, of Lake Oswego. Both Mrs. Dower and Mrs. Gabriel were college roommates. Lisa Gabriel went home with the Dowers to spend a week.

Spending the weekend at the Tillman Rains home was Mr. and Mrs. Leon Cline of Foster. Mr. Cline is their son. Also visiting recently, was their granddaughter, Debbie Rains, of Salem. Debbie and her brother and sisters are staying at the Joe Toepfer farm on Fernridge, during the strawberry harvesting season. Her brother and sisters stayed at the Toepfer home, while she visited Grandma Rains.

The Russell Reid children returned home last weekend after staying in Hermiston with relatives. Accompanying them were Mrs. Clarence Reid, Mr. Reid's mother and his brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Houchin of Hermiston.

Visiting with Mrs. Lang Stafford was Mrs. Wilber Case and daughter and two friends of Salem. They all attended the Sing-a-long at the Gates Church of Christ last Sunday.

Elsie Volkel was escort and chauffeur for Vickie Moore,

Mount Peak Outlaws Are Active Group

GATES—For those not aware, there has been an active 4-H group, in this area, called the Mount Peak Outlaws. This group ride horses, learns to care for them in the proper manner, and enter them in shows and special events. Their leader is Ruth Hurst of Mill City. They have been invited to, and participated in horse shows such as the one recently attended at Glendale Acres last month. The show was designed to give all 4-H members some show practice for oncoming shows that are scheduled.

Local participants were: Jackie Evans, Paula Evans, Susan Dorothy, Pat Howell, Karen Howell, Melana Asher, Jeri-Jo Parker, and Toni Newberg. Placing in events with many other contestants were: Susan Dorothy, Jackie Evans and Pat Howell. This was for Western Pleasure Class. This was their first show and workout in an inside arena, and Mrs. Hurst reported that the girls, and the horses did real well. They will have another indoor practice June the 27th, at Glendale Acres, near Salem. Those interested may attend.

The Mount Peak Outlaws 4-H Club have been working and planning on a special parade for the 4th of July Parade in Mill City.

There is one girl in the group who plans on going to the State Fair to exhibit her horsemanship, that is Jackie Evans, of Gates. In order to qualify for State Fair Exhibition, all work records, project work and good attendance records must be kept up correctly. There is talk that another girl will make the Fair if she gets her records up to date, this would be worth while, as there is a lot of fun and pride involved in entering into the Fair's activities.

Mrs. Hurst stated that more leaders were needed, and any one interested in taking over one of the two groups of 4-Hers next year should contact her, by calling 897-2769. She states that there should be about 4 leaders with this size group. Help for this type of club is greatly needed, and would be appreciated.

Companies represented were U. S. Plywood-Champion Paper, Inc. of Lebanon; Bugaboo Timber Co. of Mill City, and Young & Morgan.

The Downing Creek sale price was $58,769.10. The sale is about 19 miles southeast of Detroit.

Buck Salvage sale is approximately 24 miles south of Detroit. High bidder again was Young & Morgan paying $162,228.60. This price includes purchaser credit.

Firms represented were U. S. Ply-Champion Papers, Inc.; Freres Veneer of Lyons; Bugaboo Timber Co. and the successful bidders.
