Mr. and Mrs. Teague Give Appreciation Party for Employees

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Teague gave an appreciation party Saturday night at the River-view Cafe to their crew and several other friends, and business associates.

Mr. and Mrs. Teague had just recently returned from a tour of Europe, where they went primarily to attend the wedding of their daughter Cathy to Wayne Bell. In greeting his guests Teague said that under the management of his partner, John Lucas, a total of 100 units were delivered in June, which was the best month the company had ever had.

While away the Teagues visited both East and West Berlin, England, Greece and the Holy Land. Teague said it was a great thrill to see where Christ was born. They also made a five-day cruise on the Aegean sea. They brought with them many colored pictures of their trip, and following the dinner, the pictures were passed around the tables where guests could get a firsthand view of points of interest the Teagues had visited.

Cheerleaders Win Award at Portland Training Session

Cheerleaders from all over the United States and Canada met on the Lewis and Clark Campus in Portland for a National Cheerleaders clinic July 7-11.

Girls from Santiam won honorable mention and received a blue ribbon for their good efforts. There were three top winners plus the honorable mention and Santiam Cheerleaders felt it was a distinctive honor for such a small school.

Going from here were Judy Boroughs, Cathy Whigham, Sheryl Alban, Lonnie Bodeker and Tricia Moore. There were about 550 girls present at the session and many new yells and chants were exchanged among the groups.

The girls were housed at dormitories on the college campus.

For the awards the cheerleaders were judged on spirit, appearance and the way they worked together as a group.

Most of the expenses for the trip were paid by profits from the Cheerleaders 4th of July concession stand.

Recreation News

By Roger Mink

The big interest this past week has been the Robin Hood Archery classes both for beginners and those who have learned how to shoot in past years. There is a class for beginners from 1:15 to 2:00 P. M. and an advanced class from 2:00 to 2:45. Sometime during the upcoming week there will be a shoot-off for prizes in both divisions.

Another big item this past week was a treasure hunt in which there were about 45 participants. The winning teams received prizes for their efforts.

In baseball action last week the Pee Wee team beat Mehama, 1-0, and Pee Wee No. 1 beat Pee Wee No. 2, 6-4. The Little League teams beat Detroit 15-5 and Mehama 8-0 in two tough games. The Junior State group lost 3 tough games, one to Sweet Home and a double header to Detroit.

Let this be a reminder that there is basketball in the high school gym on Tuesdays-Wednesdays-Fridays from 7-9 P. M. for high school and grades 6, 7 and 8.

Susan Whitsett and Daryl Gooch Married in Salem Church Ceremony

The First Congregational Church in Salem was the setting for the marriage Saturday, July 6 of Miss Susan Whitsett to Daryl Wayne Gooch.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bonnie E. Whitsett of Mill City and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy J. Gooch of Salem.

The Church was decorated with tall baskets of white gladioli and chrysanthemums on a background of greenery. Bows of pale green ribbon marked the pews of the church.

Lighting the white tapers were Linda Gooch, sister of the groom and Traci Custor.

Performing the 4 o'clock afternoon double ring ceremony was the Rev. W. Carl Calhoun, pastor of the church.

The Rev. John DeMain of the Mill City Free Methodist Church sang, "O Perfect Love" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a white peau de soie belled A-line gown with applique of floral patterned lace, with belled elbow length sleeves. The cathedral length train was caught to the shoulders of her gown. Her elbow length illusion veil was fashioned with a flower cluster headpiece.

Her bouquet was a fan shape arrangement of white carnations.

Honor attendant was her sister, Mrs. Howard Hopkins, wearing a lime green crepe dress made floor length. The empire waist was accented with small white daisies and she wore short white gloves with matching daisy trim. Her flowers were a nosegay of white chrysanthemum. Her headpiece was of lime green veiling caught to a crepe covered band.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Russell Nelson, Jr., and Mrs. Lonnye Custor, wearing identical gowns of lime green crepe and carrying the mum nosegays.

Flower girl was Linda Gooch, dressed like the other attendants and ring bearer was little Leonard Custor.

Best man for the groom was Eugene Flesch and ushers were Joe Tatti and Wesley Harmon.

For her daughters wedding

Mrs. Whitsett selected a dress of light blue crepe and a pink carnation corsage. The grooms mother wore a two-piece dress of pale blue brocade and the pink carnation corsage.

A reception was held immediately following the ceremony in the social room of the church with the bride's colors of lime green and white used for the table and room decorations. Centering the table was a four tiered cake in green and white. Tall green tapers were in crystal holders.

Cutting the cake was Mrs. Tom Inions of Tacoma, Wash., aunt of the bride and Mrs. Carol Miller, cousin of the groom.

Pouring were Mrs. Joe Opek and Mrs. Fay Gooch, aunt of the groom from Salem.

Mrs. Leo Stubenrauch of Stayton, friend of the bride, was in charge of the guest book.

For the wedding trip to California the bride donned a peach crepe A-line dress with a white coat.

The young couple will make their home in Salem at 2825 High street S. E. The groom is employed as a machinist and the bride is a clerk-typist in one of the state offices.
