Approximately 3,000 persons visited the Philippi Motor Co. display and entered the free drawing. The winner was Mrs. E. A. Russe! 2465 Woodale Ave. Salem. Mrs. Russell is still driving a Ford purchased from Philippi Motor Co. in 1962.

DETROIT IDANHA

By Boots Champion

Mrs. Nina Lewis of Idanha is now taking a census for the city of Idanha. The program got underway Monday morning. The city's population was increased recently by the annexation of South Idanha and a census is needed for a true count.

Erma Dike who manned the U. S. Forest Service Gold Butte Lookout this summer completed her work on the Lookout Saturday, Sept. 7th and has returned to her home in Dallas.

This was Miss Dokes first year here with the Forest Service having previously worked for the State Forestry for five years.

Hal Stadel, Chance Hull and Bob McFall, employees of the U. S. Forest Service, Detroit Ranger Station, spent the weekend after fire fighting, relaxing at the coast. (Astoria).

The Francis Dummer family moved from here to Dayton last Saturday. Mr. Dummer who served as Detroit school Supt. here for the past seven years is now serving in that capacity at Dayton.

Ron Wilkerson, elementary school principal succeeded Dummer here as school Supt.

Reports here indicated that the Breitenbush Hot Springs will remain open with all attendants including the massage until October first. Usually the attendants leave after Labor Day, but unseasonal rains slowed business and many people are now taking advantage of our lovely Indian summer to visit the area it was reported.

Jake Williams was one of the lucky ones in getting his Buck last week. He downed a nice 1-point buck Thursday in the region above Marion Forks.

Deer season opened Tuesday of last week in the high cascades.

No doubt a few others in the upper canyon also got their buck, but if so their names were not learned.

Mr. and Mrs. Eric Nyberg and daughter Christine of West Scio have moved into their former home on Detroit Ave.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Layman spent the week end in Central Oregon visiting with relatives.

A spokesman at the Detroit Ranger Station said Monday, all of the Forest Service summer crew, with the exception of about five have left for their respective homes.

Many of the summer crew are college students from various states who work here during the summer.

Arriving here August 19th for a visit with his son, Hal Stadel Jr., was his father, Hal Stadel Sr. of Scales Mound, Illinois. His son Hal is employed by the U. S. Forest Service, Detroit Ranger station. While here Mr. Stadel enjoyed fishing and a visit to the Detroit Dam and Weyerhaeuser Mill at Springfield, Ore. He left for his home in Illinois Sept. 2nd.

Los Malerbas Gypsey dancers will offer a variety program of colorful, exciting authentic Flamenco dances.

Lyons City Council Meets; Election To Be Held November 5

LYONS — At the regular meeting of the City Council September 4th, final steps on the new library were completed. Books were transferred Saturday. No opening date has been set, but it will be soon.

City election will be held November 5, two councilmen and a mayor are to be elected, more candidates are needed. To date, filing petitions are Scott Brown, Harold Hawthorne and Robert Reynolds for councilmen and Dennis Clippell for mayor.

Anyone with complaints or new ideas is asked to put their name on the ballot. Petitions can be picked up at the City Recorder's office. Petitions must be filed to the recorder by October 5th.

A Thursday through Saturday guest at the Detroit home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Muise was Father Francis W. Callen S. J. of Salem. While here he visited many of his parishers to interest them in the need of the painting of the church exterior. A crew of volunteers worked Saturday but there is still much to be done before the job is completed. So this Saturday has been scheduled for more volunteer work on the project.

A water base paint is being used, so in case of rain, baring a down pour, the job is scheduled to proceed as planned.

Mrs. James Cowan's home was the setting when the Altar Society of the Detroit Catholic church met at 10:00 A. M. Friday morning of last week.

Trout fishing continues to be good in Detroit Reservoir and we can see no reason why it should not continue as the season progresses into fall. Still fishing with cheese eggs seems to be tops in the Santiam Arm of the Lake near Hoover Rock, and fly fishing where the river moves into the lake is good in the late afternoon. There have been many large trout taken in the lake of late.

Detroit will play the seasons first Casco League 8-man football game at Triangle Lake Friday, Sept. 13th at 3:00 p. m.

Gates To Elect Two Councilmen And Mayor This Fall

GATES — Hazel Gabriel, Gates City Recorder said this week that the city must elect two councilmen for a four year term, also a new mayor must be elected. The two councilmen who must be replaced are Willard Gabriel and Ross McCombs. The terms of the two councilmen and the mayor will expire on December 30, 1968. Petitions can be obtained from Hazel Gabriel. The petitions must be signed by 13 voters. The petitions have to be in 10 days before election on November 5.

Petitioners must have resided within city limits for 12 months immediately preceding election. Petitions can be circulated by the petitioner or someone acting in his behalf. The Mayor's office is salaried.

The next council meeting will be on September 19 at 8 p. m.

Boeckstiegel Has Happy Father's Day On His Birthday

DETROIT—As the old saying goes, "it's better late than never". This is what happened to our District Ranger Lee Boeckstiegel when Father's Day rolled around this year.

Boeckstiegel's wife and two children, Kelly and James, went shopping for Father's Day presents in Salem last June, but in the store to store process the packages were mislaid.

By the time the loss was discovered it was too late for additional shopping so Boeckstiegel settled for a Father's Day card and word was left with the several stores to be on the look out for the lost packages.

Last week a Salem store advised the Boeckstiegels that they had packages fitting the description for them if they could identify the contents. So last Thursday, almost three months late, Boeckstiegel got his Father's Day gifts. It was an appropriate time for gift getting, though, because the day before (Wed.) was Boeckstiegel's birthday.
