Ron Johnson To Return from Vietnam

DETROIT — Word was received here this week from Mrs. VanBuskirk on the armed service record of her two boys, Ronald and Richard Johnson.

Sp/4 Ronald Johnson will arrive home Tuesday, Oct. 2nd from a 12-month tour in Vietnam. After 30-days leave at the Portland home of his parents Mr. and Mrs. L. VanBuskirk he will be stationed at Ft. Bliss Texas where he will be assigned to the 62nd Air Defense Bn. 4th Hercules Missile Unit.

His twin brother Sp/5 Richard has been in Vietnam since April of this year. He is with the 31st Combat Engineer Bn. Both boys have been only 43 miles apart, one on either side of Saigon and have managed several week-ends together.

Ron says "It is wonderful to see green Oregon again." Their older brother Michael Johnson has received his degree from O.C.E. and is teaching Freshmen math at Willamina High school. His wife Connie Johnson teaches 6th grade at Auburn school in Salem. The couple now resides in Salem.

The Van Buskirk family formerly resided at Detroit where Mr. Vanbuskirk was active on the city council.

Michael graduated with the class of 1964 and Ronald and Richard with the class of 1966.

Jayceettes Obtain Folding Chairs For Jaycee Hall

The Mill City Jayceettes recently ordered and received four green folding chairs for the Jaycee hall. The chairs were obtained through a Gold Bond Stamp project. They said they appreciated all the organizations and persons who contributed to the project.

The young women's organization is again saving the stamps, donation certificates, when books are redeemed, red scissors coupons and gift star coupons. These will be used for more folding chairs.

Anyone wishing to donate to this Jayceette project may call Linda Sanders, project chairman, at 897-2629.

RAY MADDY for Linn County Commissioner

"Experience Plus Efficiency Equals Progress and Less Tax Increase"

Ray Maddy is experienced and capable of handling county business. He has had extensive experience in public service in city and government, in both legal and management affairs.

Maddy pledges competent administration with the background that qualifies him for the position. Ray Maddy has the courage of his convictions, the integrity and initiative to carry out County programs and decisions that must be made. He proposes the County provide more protection against vandalism, theft, and traffic control on County roads in rural areas. He pledges to assist the cities within Linn County for more financial aid in their street programs to avoid duplicate taxation. Maddy proposes that the smaller communities be given more representation and a stronger voice in our County government and an equal opportunity and consideration to help each community grow and prosper. He proposes the County Court hold court meetings from time to time in cities throughout Linn County. Pd. Pol. Adv. by Ray Maddy, Route 3, Box 1013, Albany, Ore. 97321
