Mrs. Ethel Huffman
Resigns as President
Of Church Group

LYONS—Mrs. Harold Hawthorne and Mrs. Howard Naue were hostesses for the meeting of the Womens Society of Christian Service held Tuesday afternoon December 3, in the fireplace room of the Methodist church with Mrs. Alex Bodeker vice-president presiding. The usual business was carried out and the resignation of Mrs. Ethel Huffman, president, was read and accepted. Plans for the bazaar held Thursday, December 5 were completed. It was voted to pay $40.00 on bill for repair of furnace at church.

Mrs. Clyde Bressler, Mrs. Lenard Cruson, Mrs. Glen Julian and Mrs. Ethel Huffman were the committee appointed to make budget for the coming year. Due to the holiday activities it was voted to dispense with their meeting December 17. The next meeting will be held Tuesday, January 7 at that time they will be hostess to the District officers of the Womens Society of Christian Service.

Attending the meeting were Mesdams E. L. Roye, Olen Spiva, Wilson Stevens, Paul Pennington, Clyde Bressler, Glen Julian, Alex Bodeker, Lenard Cruson, Miss Lula Cory and the hostesses Mrs. Naue and Mrs. Hawthorne.

Eastern Star Has
Yule Party
Monday Evening

Marilyn Chapter No. 145 held its regular meeting Monday evening observing the Christmas spirit with its annual exchange of gifts and entertainment.

Under the direction of Hubert Bastuchek the grade school chorus sang several Christmas songs accompanied at the piano by Doris Williams. The school and community should be very proud of a group so well trained as the songs were well presented and enjoyed by all present. Some of the boys and girls assisted in directing the difficult numbers.

Dorothy Noren, Worthy Matron and Oscar Noren, Worthy Patron of Gervais Chapter No. 118 were introduced and escorted to the East. Mr. and Mrs. Ole Erickson were introduced. The members of the chapter were very pleased to welcome back Rose Cree, Addie French and Elise Allen who have been absent many months because of injuries which kept them confined for a long time.

The Worthy Matron presented each of her officers with a Christmas gift.

The hall and dining room carried out the theme of the Holiday season by their decorations and refreshments were served by Mary Gulliford, Helen Johnston and Gladys Lake.

Christmas Program Is Scheduled
At Detroit

DETROIT — A community Christmas carol program is scheduled for the evening of December 15, Mrs. L. Rogers announced this week. Anyone interested in participating in the caroling program is asked to be at the Detroit Community Christian church at 7 p. m. on that date.

The program is being sponsored through the combined efforts of the Detroit Woman's Civic club, the Detroit Catholic church and the Detroit Community Christian church.

Following the caroling, refreshments will be served at the Detroit Community church. Christmas Vesper Services at the Idanha Community church are also scheduled for December 15 at 5 p. m. A film, "Child of Bethlehem" will be shown.

The older generation thought nothing of getting up at 6 a. m.—and the younger generation doesn't think so much of it either.

Rebekah Lodge To Have Christmas Party
At Hall December 18

Mrs. Albert Carr, president of the Rebekah Three Links club has announced that the dinner served to the Mill City Volunteer fire department members and their guests, was a real success. The dinner was served at the firehall on the Sunday following their 24th annual benefit which was held recently.

Mrs. Arnold Syverson presided at the business meeting at the last meeting of the Rebekah lodge and district deputy president, Mrs. June Bartow of Stayton was present. The incoming officers gave the unwritten work to Mrs. Bartow. Also giving the secret work were Mrs. Walter Olmstead, Mrs. Dave Barnhardt and Mrs. C. L. Stickney.

Members agreed to have their Christmas party and gift exchange on Wednesday evening, December 18. Guests will be invited. Gifts are to be brought for residents of the IOOF-Rebekah home in Portland at that time.

At the close of the business session refreshments were served by Mrs. Stickney and Mrs. Carr with October, November and December birthdays honored.

Playing of cards furnished entertainment for the remainder of the evening.

Extension Unit

Henning-Humphreys
Rites Held at Stayton
Lutheran Church

LYONS—Miss Marjorie Lee Henning became the bride of Dan Terry Humphreys Saturday afternoon, December 7 at the Calvary Lutheran church in Stayton. The Rev. Paul Emmel officiated at the 5 o'clock ceremony.

Miss Henning is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis F. Henning of Lyons and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Humphreys, Sr., of Stayton.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of tulle embossed with an all-over rose pattern of lace fashioned with a wateau train, long sleeves and scoop neckline. The bodice was embellished with seed pearls. Her elbow-length illusion veil was held by a double ring of daisies and seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of gardenias.

Miss Christine Henning was her sisters' only attendant, wearing a floor-length gown of cranberry red velvet. She carried a bouquet of pink roses and carnations, tied with pink velvet streamers.

Best man for Mr. Humphreys was Danny Griffith. Ushers were John Purdy and Robert Adams.

A wedding reception was held following the ceremony in the fellowship hall of the church. The young couple will make their first home in Portland, where both are employed.

Mrs. Nell DeWitt Heads Seal Drive

In just a few weeks December 25th will have come and gone. But throughout each year, the traditional symbol of the yule season—Christmas Seals—remains an everpresent reminder to you and your family of the urgent and continuing need to protect yourself and your community from tuberculosis, other respiratory disease and the health hazardous clouds of air pollution.

"Through contributions to this year's Christmas Seal campaign for the Willamette Tuberculosis and Health Association, we can all help in the battle now being waged by modern science to control and hopefully eradicate these crippling and sometime fatal respiratory disease." General Chairman Rex Hartley continued his report by stating that, "to date through the combined contributions by many residents of Benton, Linn, Marion, Polk and Yamhill counties, approximately $35,500.00 has been received by the Salem based TB Association."

Marion County chairman Bruce Prosser added, "In that this amount has been reached now at the halfway point of this year's campaign. I earnestly hope that those in Marion county who have yet to mail in their contribution, will do so today in order to do their part to help protect our community from tuberculosis, emphysema, chronic bronchitis, and other respiratory disease. Mrs. O. K. DeWitt is chairman in the local area for the Christmas Seal Sales."

Jerilyn Hopson Marries
Sgt. Donald Round
In Honolulu, Hawaii
