Velma Carey spent last week-end visiting with her son, Eugene Carey in Milwaukie.

Due to previous commitments of everyone, the Harold Wilson's had their Thanksgiving dinner celebration Saturday. Joining them at their home were Mrs. Betty McFadden, a long-time friend, their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wilson, Rory, Roger and Robbie from Portland, and their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. John Carey, John, Tommy and Steven from Stayton. The Robert Wilson family stayed until late Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Schroeder and two sons of Siletz, spent two days recently, visiting at the James Huntsucker home.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Johnson recently visited with the John Fowler family in Salem. I would like to correct an error I made in last weeks' column. It stated that the Earl Hennes family of Beaverton will be moving to Ogden, Utah December 20. It was due to a misunderstanding. Earl Hennes, who works for the Internal Revenue service in the Portland office was called to work in the home office at Ogden for three weeks and will be returning home December 20. Sorry about getting a lot of people confused over this. Lola Hennes reported to me that she had people asking her why she didn't let them know her son, Earl, was moving.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Stone just returned from visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Dale Miles in Florence for the Thanksgiving holiday.

The Jack Gullifords had their son, Ray and his fiancée, and other son Jim and wife and two children all together for the Thanksgiving holiday. Jim is a first lieutenant in the Marines and is now stationed at Camp Pendleton, Calif., for helicopter training. His wife, Linn, and two children will be staying at the Jack Gulliford home until Christmas time.

Elsie Volkel is home from the hospital now after her third recent surgery, and reports that she is feeling fine.

Recent visitors at the home of Mrs. George Stafford were her two sisters, Ruby Frichtl from Corvallis and Julie Stoffel from Portland. While here, Mrs. Frichtl and Mrs. Stoffel also visited other relatives in the area.
