HAVE YOU BEEN BORN AGAIN
By Hugh Durall
Nicodemus came to Jesus
He came to Jesus by night
He came to learn beyond a doubt
The truth of the Saviour's might.

We know you were sent from God
We know that God is with you
By the wonderful words that you speak
And the Miracles that you do

Jesus spoke to Nicodemus
I am telling the solemn truth

You must be born over again
It's not the birth of your youth.

You must be born of the spirit
Or the kingdom of God you cannot see

You must be washed with pure water
And then a Christian you will be

God really loved the world
That he gave his only son
That he might die on the cross
So salvation could be won.

Think this over, my brother
Think what Jesus went through
He died the most terrible death

And did it all for you

Have you been reading your Bible

Have you sought your Saviour's love

Have you repented of your sins

Have you been born from above?

CHEER

To wish you every blessing of the Christmas season.

ABOVE ALL

CHRISTMAS 1968

In a world where trips to the moon are in the offing, where the spoken word may be transmitted instantly to every nook and cranny of the earth, where genetic science is unlocking the mysteries of man's existence, the awesome simplicity of the Christmas story seems a striking contrast to the restless spirit of today.

Yet, with all our man-made advances, the spiritual leadership of Christ Jesus—its message of hope and peace—makes man's material accomplishments but a pause in the passing parade of humanity.

In the love and companionship of family and friends, let us ponder the Christ spirit and seek to reflect its inspiration in our daily lives. While the physical wants of Jesus were limited, his compassion and love for his fellow-man were boundless. Isn't there a lesson in the life of the Man from Nazareth for us, too?
