Mrs. Francis Bodeker Hosts Woman's Club Tuesday, January 21

The Mill City Woman's club members were entertained Tuesday evening, January 21 at the home of Mrs. Francis Bodeker with Mrs. Glen Cummings as co-hostess.

Mrs. Cummings presided at the meeting when it was announced that the TB mobile unit would be in Mill City on February 6. The equipment is not here primarily to check for TB but will have a new "breathing" machine to detect many difficulties including emphysema. Mrs. De Witt is arranging for the unit in Mill City. Mrs. Leo Poole was in charge of the program and presented an interesting display of Slides and Tapes, showing how the Project Springboard and Open door operates in school district 129J. Mrs. Poole is the graphic artist for the schools in the district.

Members present besides the hostesses were Mrs. Alex Burrell, Mrs. O. K. DeWitt, Mrs. J. C. Kimmel, Mrs. Harry Mason, Mrs. Arey Podrabsy, Mrs. Clyde Rogers, Mrs. Leo Russell, Mrs. John Swan, Mrs. Walter Thomas, Sr. and a new member, Mrs. Dean Mowery.

Jayne Marie Pfeifer Marries Gerald Dwayne Rosamond In Saturday Rites

Miss Jayne Marie Pfeifer of Silverton became the bride of Gerald Dwayne Rosamond of Mill City on Saturday, January 18.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tony Pfeifer of Silverton and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald H. Rosamond of Mill City.

The wedding ceremony was performed at St. Paul's Catholic Church with the Rev. J. Harris officiating.

The Church was decorated in lavender and white chrysanthemums with the pews marked with white and lavender ribbon.

The bride, escorted to the altar by her father, was gowned in a full length dress of white lace over taffeta. The bodice was of lace styled with a square neck edged with sequins and pearls. The gown had long sleeves and the skirt had tiers of lace. The veil was elbow length, held by a jeweled crown. She carried a bouquet of roses.

Honor attendant was Mrs. Dan Juneski, wearing a full length gown of purple velvet with a lavender satin bodice. Her bouquet was white mums. Miss Patricia Elch and Miss Cheryl Hubert were bridesmaids and they were gowned the same as the honor attendant.

Junior attendants were twin cousins of the bride, Carol and Cris Gasper, age 5 years. The little girl wore a dress of lavender satin and the little boy wore black trousers and a white dinner jacket.

Best man for the groom was Steven Pearce and ushers were Terry Savage, Gene Pfeifer and Randy Budlong.

For her daughters wedding Mrs. Pfeifer selected a knit suit of navy and gray with a matching gray coat and navy accessories. Her corsage was made from white spider mums. The bridegroom's mother wore a brown wool A-line dress with a brown and black plaid coat and black accessories. She also wore a white spider mum corsage.

A reception was held immediately following the ceremony at the Church hall with the lavender and white decorations used. Centering the bride's table was the three tiered cake and the guests tables held arrangements of lavender heather.

Cutting the cake were Mrs. J. Schaefer and Miss Melody Rosamond. Pouring was Miss Donna Crockett and assisting were Mrs. D. Wilkerson and Mrs. H. Huckle.

For the wedding trip to California the new Mrs. Rosamond donned a two-piece pink knit suit with white accessories. She had a pink rose bud corsage.

The young couple will live at a Stayton apartment house and will be at home after January 31. Mr. Rosamond is employed as a mill worker.

Garden Club Has Work Day At Home Of Mrs. Lowell Cree

Twelve members of the Mill City Garden Club met Friday at 10 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Lowell Cree for the first in a series of work days for the Christmas Bazaar to be held next December in conjunction with the Christmas Greens Show.

The day was spent exchanging patterns and materials and making gift items. Each member present took items home to complete.

The next work day will be announced later.

Present Friday were Mrs. Clyde Phillips, Mrs. Ross McCombs, Mrs. Hollis Turnidge, Mrs. Wendell Heller, Mrs. Charles Dolezal, Jr., Mrs. Charlie French, Mrs. Arthur Hedge, Mrs. Marie Tolbert, Mrs. Louis Verbeck, Mrs. Fred Moore, Mrs. Martin Hansen and Mrs. Lowell Cree.

Palmer's Honored On Twenty-Fifth Wed. Anniversary

LYONS—Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Palmer were honored with a reception Sunday for their 25th wedding anniversary at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Craigmyle. The beautiful four-tiered wedding cake which was baked by Mrs. Hazel Wirth was cut and served by Miss Mary Thurston. Serving the coffee and punch was Mrs. Floyd Craigmyle and Miss Tammy Palmer was in charge of the guest book.

Due to the deep snow a very small crowd was present, but the Palmers received many congratulations by telephone.

Mrs. Heller To Host Garden Club

The Mill City Garden Club will meet on Thursday, February 6 at 10:30 A. M. at the home of Mrs. Wendell Heller. Those attending are asked to bring a sack lunch. Dessert and coffee will be served by the hostesses.

The business meeting will be held in the morning. For the program in the afternoon Mrs. Vale McGrew from Sublimity will be the guest speaker.

The executive board will meet on Tuesday, February 4 at 10 A. M. at the home of Mrs. Lowell Cree.

Sue Poole Hosts Lions Auxiliary; Arranges Program

Sue Poole entertained members of the Mill City Lions Auxiliary at her home Thursday evening. She presided in the absence of LaDell Metteer, president.

It was voted to have a rummage sale in the building adjacent to the U. S. National bank on Saturday, March 29 from 9 A. M. to 5 P. M. A clothing drive is underway at present for good used items and it is expected that there will be a good assortment of low prices.

Pat Eastwood, member of the Ways and Means committee said a Theatre party was being planned for early March, with Lions members and their wives having dinner at a Portland restaurant preceding the show.

There was discussion again on making costumes for Auxiliary members to wear at visitations and convention. Ann Rush was appointed to select material and patterns and bring them to the February meeting for members to decide on definitely.

Goldie Rambo, treasurer, reported that the Barbie doll sale and used paper back book sales were both very successful ventures.

Mrs. Poole had arranged an interesting program, a Slide and Tape presentation used for visitors to district 129J. It was taped locally and showed just how the Project Springboard and Open door techniques were used in the Mill City and Gates schools. This gives the school visitor a preview of the materials before seeing them in action.

Mrs. Poole is a graphic artist at the school and has first hand knowledge of the materials.

Following the business meeting refreshments were served by the hostess.

The door prize was won by Ann Rush.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Betty Berg on February 27.

Peasley-Tompkins Ceremonies Held At Longview Church

Miss Eloise Rose Peasley of Scio became the bride of Herbert Dale Tompkins, son of Mrs. Wayne Tompkins and the late Mr. Tompkins of Idanha. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Orie T. Peasley of Scio.

The marriage vows were exchanged Saturday, January 25 at 1 o'clock at the American Baptist Church in Longview, Wash. The Rev. James H. Conrod performed the double ring ceremony.

The bride, escorted to the altar by her father, wore a floor length gown of Chantilly lace made semi-fitted cage style with a chapel train fashioned into the lines of the gown. The bodice was accented by a satin bow. Her elbow length veil was of nylon illusion caught to a crown of lace adorned by crystals and seed pearls.

The bridal bouquet was white roses and lily of the valley.

Maid of honor was Miss Esther Zelenka of Scio and bridesmaids were Miss Kathy Webster of Scio and Miss Teresa Tompkins, sister of the groom from Idanha.

They wore floor length gowns of Kelly green satin accented at the bodice by satin bows. Their headpieces were made from green nylon net and green satin bows. Their bouquets were white roses on a background of green net.

Candle lighters were Dan Peasley, brother of the bride and Charles Tompkins, brother of the groom.

Flower girl was Miss Kathy Lyon of Idanha and ringbearers were Owen Matney, nephew of the bride and Tony Tompkins, brother of the groom.

Best man for the groom was his brother Leslie Tompkins, and ushers were Dan Peasley, brother of the bride and Charles Tompkins.

Playing the wedding music was Mrs. Darlene Bricknell.

A reception was held immediately following the ceremony with Mrs. Cyrus Beck of Kelso, Wash., aunt of the groom cutting the cake. She was assisted by Mrs. C. J. Nickolas, another aunt of the groom from Kelso.

Miss Linia Tompkins served the punch with Mrs. Wesley Matney, sister-in-law of the bride serving the coffee. Miss Sandra Tompkins was in charge of the guest book and Miss Ramona Tompkins was in charge of the gifts. Both are sisters of the groom from Idanha.

For the wedding trip Mrs. Tompkins wore a white lace dress with bell sleeves and white accessories. Her corsage was the roses from her bridal bouquet.

The bride attended Scio schools and is now completing her Senior year at Detroit High where the groom is also attending the school.

They are making their first home in Idanha where the groom is employed by Green Veneer.

Bassetts Take Winter Vacation Trip to Calif.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Bassett returned last week-end from a winter's vacation trip in their camper to California. However, they found the Los Angeles area far from sunny. They got a chance to do some sight seeing at Disneyland, Knott's Berry farm and Marine land before the heavy rains came. Mrs. Bassett said they left earlier than anticipated because when the water got up to three inches they figured it was time to go.

In San Francisco they took in the sights along Fishermen's Wharf and talked by phone with their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Maurie Bassett at their hotel in Frisco. They took off later that day for a vacation trip to Honolulu.

The Bassetts also visited with relatives in Santa Maria and said they really enjoyed their camper vacation despite a little bad weather.

It sometimes surprises people when they visit non-profit Goodwill Industries and see men without legs repairing shoes. But, it makes sense. Handicapped people are skilled at their trade and the hands can do all the work. These people get around fine in wheelchairs managing to lead nearly normal lives. Help Goodwill help the many handicapped men and women who need their services. Today please?

Local Folks Back From Trip East

Mr. and Mrs. Al Yankus returned home Friday from a trip to California and on east. They left here January 4, taking their son, Alan, back to his studies at Stanford University.

They visited with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Bryan at Oakland on the trip down and back. From California they spent two days in Reno and then took the Northern route through Utah, Wyoming and Nebraska to Illinois. While there they visited in Maneto, Ill. with his sister, Mrs. Isabelle Beedy; in Wankegan with another sister, Mrs. Eleanor Duffy and in Kenosha with his brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Yankus and a sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Janowitz.

They visited in Galesburg with Mr. and Mrs. George Ward. She is a former school friend of Mrs. Yankus and he is a professor at Knox college.

They came back through Missouri, Oklahoma, Arizona and New Mexico, visiting in the Los Angeles area with friends, Mr. and Mrs. Cross Hollis. The two men were in the Navy together.

Mrs. Yankus said they missed all the bad weather almost everywhere, encountering a silver thaw at Kenosha.

They had planned to do more visiting in Los Angeles but more floods were predicted so they left.

They arrived back home just in time to get really bad weather.
